CARDS OF THANKS
McLEAN — Our sincere thanks to neighbours who acted so quickly when our home was threatened by fire. To Mr. Sam Finnamore for the use of his water pressure system, the water from his cistern, his home and his help. To Mr. Wesley Louth, Mr. Elwood Carney and Mr. Norm Guthrie for the use of their home and help. — The McLean Family.

LIMBOUSE Celebrates Birthday At Summer Cottage
Mrs. R. Lane celebrated her birthday last week at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane's cottage in Thunder Bay. Mrs. H. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow also spent the day with her.

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Appleyard on Thursday evening. Mrs. Sanford read the scripture and Mrs. Mills led in prayer. Mrs. Mills also reviewed the study chapter. Mrs. Roughley obliged with a piano solo. Text word "Remember" was answered in a verse of scripture. A special offering was taken for the bazaar. The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer and the hostesses served refreshments after.

Mrs. Bert Benton and Mrs. S. Woloshyn were both hospitalized in Georgetown and District hospital a few days last week.

Miss Joan Tomkinson, who has been making her home with her sister Mrs. John Gilmore, is again in hospital in Toronto. We hope that she soon improves in health.

The Gilligan's spent holidays at Smith Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sinclair, Mrs. C. Sinclair and Carl spent a few days last week at Port Elgin.

Larry and Linda McKellar

WINI WINI WINI
Diamonds are Glen Girls Best Friend
They don't have Maria and Mantle in their lineup but the Glen Williams girls' softball team have a win-loss record this season that even the New York Yankees can't match.
The Glen girls have won all of their 12 regular schedule games to wrap up the county rural girls league pennant and after two games of the long-sought finals the girls have still to taste defeat.
The Glen females put away playoff win number two in Hornby Monday against their Hornby rivals 3 to 2. Glen hitters pecked away at Hornby pitching for 2 runs in the 2nd frame and Shirley Inglis providing the winning margin with a bases empty home run in the 7th. Hornby failed to hit pitched pretty Stafford's offenz until 5th when they picked up their first run. They also managed a run in the 7th.
In the first game of the series in Hornby Thursday Marlene Webster came through with a hit in the late stages to score Lois Cain with the winning run, and eke out a 9-8 victory. Earlier Joan Hancock got on in a pinch hitting role and scored on Marie South's hit to deadlock the game. Shirley Inglis also came through with a home run in this one with Eva Turdock and Lois Cain on base. Jetty Stafford again went all the way.
The winners of this series will meet the winners of the Palermo-Omagh series. Both are best 3 out of 5 affairs.
The Glen girls will be out to wrap it up tonight when they play the third game in Hornby under the lights.
Glen Lineup: Eva Murdock, Lois Cain, Kay King, Marlene Webster, Shirley Inglis, Audrey Weir, Pat Jepson, Jean Hancock, Marie South, Betty Stafford, Joanne Kemshead, Beverley Williams and Joy Haines.

HUFFIN'IN PUFFIN' IN MILTON
There will be plenty of huffing and puffing when some twenty-odd iron monsters come chugging out of the past to take part in the Two-Day Threshing Reunion, which will take place at the Milton fairgrounds in early September. This two-day event, which is anticipated, will attract crowds of thousands, will feature many Canadian-made engines, such as the Robert Bell, MacConald, Waterloo, Goodison, J. M. Ross, Noseworthy, to mention only a few.
In addition to these steam engines, there will be 75 antique cars on the grounds to demonstrate their features which were popular in the early 1900's. There will also be antique displays both for exhibit and sale, which should be of particular interest to the ladies.
Friday night there will be an Old Time Fiddlers' Contest, as well as a square dance, and a program of varied musical entertainment to which everybody is invited.
However, in all probability, the smell of coal smoke, hot steam, and the thrilling toot to the whistle of the steam threshing engines will attract as much attention as any. The engines will be threshing, running the Baker fan, and it is expected that a saw mill will be in operation during the two-day event.
