Two Georgetown and District town hospital nurses, Donna Bennett and Jo-Anne Bergen, were rushed here by ambulance for treatment and one of them, Donna Bennett was transferred to St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, where she is under the care of an eye specialist. Donna, a passenger in a car driven by Lyle Armstrong of Toronto, suffered a cut under the eye and possible fractured cheek bone in the smash. Residents May Read Own Meters

Residents would be given cards on which to record their water consumption and these meter reader works full-time at would be mailed to the water department.

Finances Delay Highway

Financing can plague major government as well as individual communities. Expressing concern that reconstruction on the west Normal hill might be postponed, Cr. Ian Cass was told at Monday's council meeting by town engineer Bligh that he had heard work had been temporarily halted because of finances. "It's unfortunate for Georgetown if the project were delayed too long and I think we should contact the highways department and urge its completion," said the councillor. Mayor Hyde said he would also like to see the results of a survey of the 9th line which the town has asked, hoping for a major traffic artery to connect with 401 Highway.

SMITH BROTHERS SIGNED MEET LAYTON-WATSON DUO

Local promoter Sam Yanaky, who says he won't settle for anything less than stellar types for his mat shows, isn't deviating from his pledge one iota. This week Sam told the Herald that the next local wrestling card, slated for Wednesday, August 30th, will headline a tag team bout pitting good guys Lord Athol Layton and Whipper Billy Watson against the foul weather twins, Hurricane and Cyclone Smith. The lineup, which reads like a trio of main events, features big Gino Marrella (the of the vocal cords), against U.S.S.R. grappler Karol Kalmikoff, in the semi-final, and last session's headliner, Frank "Farmer Boy" Townsend against Mrs. Kalmikoff's eldest son, Nikita. "They're all special bouts," says Sam, the only promoter in the province who appears bent on out-Tunneying Frank Tunney. So far he's done a pretty healthy job.
