SMALL FRY FREQUENT FISHPOND - TAKE HOME TEDDYS

HORNBY

Barbecue, Presentations Follow Final Ball Game

The Hornby United Evening W.A. held their September meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bousfield. Thirteen members were present. Mrs. Harold Learmont presided. The devotionals was given by Mrs. M. Southwood. The secretary and treasurer each gave their reports. Two very interesting letters were read from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coulton former residents of Hornby who are now doing missionary work in Saskatchewan. A dance is being planned for the future. Courtship was played after which corn, ice cream and cookies was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Death.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson and Mrs. William Robinson left Tuesday morning for a motor trip to Winnipeg, Manitoba. They are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robertson and family, and plan on returning September 23rd.

Belated anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snow on September 13 and to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Death on September 14th.

Happy birthday to eight year old Donald Leslie on September 20 and to Ken Hearn on September 16th.

After the ball game at Palermo on Monday night the Hornby Girls ball team returned to Hornby Community Park for a barbecue in honor of Bill Thompson and Earl McDowell their coach and manager. The girls showed their appreciation for the work the two have done all year by presenting Bill with a traveling case and Earl with a combination clock and pen set. Bill left Thursday for Potsdam College in the States where he is attending school.

The Brownie and Guide Mothers of the First Drumquinn Troop held their September meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill on Thursday evening. Committees were appointed for the card party to be held on November 14th.

Skirt, Sportswear Homemaking Project

Horton County 4-H Homemaking Clubs are once again in progress. Approximately 160 girls will take part in the fall project "Separates for Summer." The Training School for 26 local leaders was held in the United Church in Milton on September 12 and 13, under the direction of the County Home Economist, Miss Frances Lampman.

Achievement Day
Club members will plan and make a skirt and simple top suitable for sports wear, and if they wish, a pair of Bermuda shorts. Club meetings will be held shortly under the direction of the local leaders. A record of each meeting is kept by each girl in her Record Book and this along with her separates will be displayed and modeled at Achievement Day, held in Milton early in February.

There will be fourteen clubs participating in "Separates for Summer." The clubs and leaders are as follows: Ashgrove, Mrs. J. McPhail, Mrs. R. Cunningham; Ballinacraig, Mrs. Jesse McEnery, Mrs. Elwood Snow; Bannockburn, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, Mrs. Walter Latham; Dublin, Mrs. D. Moffat, Mrs. M. Nellis; Hornby North, Mrs. Roy J. Wilson, Mrs. Evelyn McKay; Hornby South, Mrs. Cecil Patterson, Mrs. T. Bousfield; Limehouse, Mrs. C. Wilson, Mrs. T. Brown; Nassagawaga, Mrs. M. Moffat, Mrs. C. L. Young; Nelson West, Mrs. J. Lillycrop; Mrs. M. Hamilton; Palermo, Mrs. W. R. Towell, Mrs. C. H. Kingston; Palermo South, Mrs. G. Wiese, Mrs. M. Harrington; Scotch Block, Mrs. E. French; Mrs. J. Brown; Silverwood, Mrs. G. W. Burt, Mrs. George Iron side.

4-H Homemaking Clubs are open to all girls between the ages of 12 and 28. Any interested girls should get in touch with the leader in their community or with the Ontario Department of Agriculture in Milton.

Speaks About Trip to Egypt At United Farmers Meeting

The Terra Cotta U.F.O. held their September meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Thompson, Edith Street, Georgetown.

The ladies meeting was conducted by the President Mrs. J. A. McDonald. After minutes, roll call and business was dispensed with. Mrs. Howard Doulson gave a reading on "Impulses" in which she stated "obey your best impulses and let yourself go." The joint meeting was chaired by the president Mr. C. Anderson. A humorous reading given by Mrs. Fraser McDonald was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Francis Thompson sang very appropriately for the time of the year, "Come to the Fair." The speaker for the evening was Mrs. M. Sisler who gave a very interesting account of her recent visit to Egypt. She travelled with her daughter, the well known sculptor and grandson Adam. At the close of the meeting lunch was served.

Quinn, Wilson Win Events at Cart Club

Herb Quinn, Archie Chase and Al Ingles crossed the finish line in that order in a hard fought duel in Modified A class at the North Halton Cart Club track Sunday.

Registered First Victory
Jim Wilson copped Senior A honours at the weekly whoop and Tom Ledwidge led the field home in the race for Hoobys. Dave Armstrong upped his points total even further with another win in the Intermediate class and Eddie Van Alpen registered his first victory in the Junior Boys competition.

Mrs. Archie Chase salvaged a win for the family by pacing the ladies in the Powder Puff Derby and daughter Donna duplicated the feat by copping the Junior Girls event. A 75 lap feature race will highlight next week's card.

Burt, Baines, Mackenzie Winners at North Halton

North Halton golfers have decided just about every flight and consolation in the book with lots of golf weather still left in the playing season.

Elmer Burt topped the B Flighters Sunday, September 10th when he took the flight final over Russ Fendley after ousting Eiji Anzai, Don Carter, and Scotty Patterson and getting a bye into the second round.

Also Scored Ace

The C Flight title belongs to Terry Baines this week. Also a hol-in-one scorer, Terry beat out Bob Hoare in the final. He got a bye into the second round and then eliminated Cec Greenslade and Tudor Beaumont.

The A Flight consolation went to Sam Mackenzie last weekend when he won the 18th to edge Lloyd Grozelle for the title after wading through Bill McNally, Jim Linton, J. Walsh and Al Norton.

Army Chaplain Conducts Service

Captain the Reverend Kipfel of Oakville conducted a graveside service in Greenwood Cemetery on Saturday morning for Lockhart Vernon Young who died on Thursday at the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. Born in Montreal, the 3-year-old moved to town in May with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young who live at 31 Charles St. He also leaves a brother Trevor.

BALLINAFAD

Pot Luck Lunch Follows Meeting

Ballinacraig W.I. met at the Sept. 13th in the church. The home of Mrs. J. Snow for their September meeting. Roll call was answered by telling one advantage of Rural Living. The conveners for Agriculture Mrs. C. E. Snow and Mrs. J. McEnery told about work in the 4-H Homemaking Clubs.

The Motto "Man is native to the soil and the further we stray from the soil the further we stray from God." was given by Mrs. W. Kirkwood and current events by Mrs. A. McEnery.

LADY BOWLERS

The ladies got back in the swing this week and in spite of the heat managed to chalk up some pretty good early season scores.
