MEMORIALS

OLIVER—In proud and loving memory of our dearly loved son and brother, Pir. John (Bud) Oliver, killed in action in Belgium with the Lake Superior Reg., September 9, 1944.

We do not need a special day To bring you to our mind. For the days we do not think of you Are very hard to find.

If all this world were ours to give We'd give it, yes, and more. To see the face of you, dear Bud Come smiling through the door— Sadly missed and ever remembered by his Mom and Dad, Sisters and Brothers.

PALMER—In loving memory of my dear son Thomas Arthur Palmer, who died as a result of a car accident September 19th, 1953.

I am lonely here without you Tom, I miss you more each day. For life has never been the same Since you were called away. If I had all this world to give I'd give it, yes, and more. To see your smile, and hear your voice.

And meet you at the door. If love could save, thou hadst not died— Always loved and remembered, Mom and Alvin.

CARDS OF THANKS

BOOMER—We wish to thank our relatives, friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and floral tributes shown us during our recent bereavement in the loss of a dear sister. We especially wish to thank Rev. Kenneth Richardson for his consoling words and help. Sincerely Boomer and Pearl Armstrong.

BURNS—I wish to thank all my friends for visits and cards received while I was a patient at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. —Clare Burns.

Would Offer Night Academic Education

People who left high school before obtaining their Intermediate Certificates may have a chance to make up their lost subjects if a plan suggested by principal J. L. Lambert materializes. Speaking to the high school board Monday night Mr. Lambert proposed a night school for academic subjects and cited grades 9 and 10 Maths, grade 10 Science, grade 10 Industrial Arts, grade 10 French and Typing as the courses with the most appeal to those who left high school early.

Mr. Lambert also proposed a solution to the administrative assistance of administrative assistance proposing that some of the Commercial Course papers be employed in the office and that the same time given some experience in office work they would be paid for their time.

CLUB MIDTOWN

Club Midtown, composed of 25 Friday night dancers this season with the ever fabulous Silhouettes from out of T.O. This lively group started off the new season very successfully. If you missed them on the 8th don't miss the same error on the 22nd of September at the Rose Room. If anyone has any comments about the Silhouettes let the chairman know at any time.

A point of interest, the 'Midnight Rider' has been persuaded back to this column from one that used to appear in Brand X newspaper. The 'Midnight Rider' for this week is 'One Track Mind' by Bobby Lewis. Other hits of the future are 'The Answer to Everything' by Del Shannon. 'Flip Side', which is already big in the U.S., also 'Bristol Stomp' by the Nobeles.

This week in cooperation with the Gala Celebration of the reopening of the Main Street. M. is holding a free street dance on the 'draz' music will be provided by the wonderful old group from all over Canada. The records in person, their flat little selves D.J. will be the ever great 'Mush Marshall' of Charles St.

Starting on Sept. 22, all Midtowners will have to be at least 15 years old. Anyone who is not 15, please don't embarrass yourself by coming to the dance.

The Western Ontario Teen Town committee's conference will not be held in Georgetown this year anyway, because of lack of funds, mainly.
