Elliott Forecasts Approx. $4600 Budget Surplus

"Our August 31st statement shows an anticipated $4600 surplus at the year-end," reported Deputy Receiver John Elliott to council Monday.

The deputy, who is finance chairman, warned however that a close eye must be kept on the budget for the remainder of the year.

"We haven't any money to throw around," he told councillors.

Escapes Injury in Race At Watkins Glen, N.Y.

Grant Clark, Stevens Creek, miraculously escaped injury at Watkins Glen, N.Y., Saturday when the Comstock Sadler he was driving in a 40 lap sprint there featuring almost all of North America's top racing cars.

Ironically it was Clark's Canadian teammate Peter Ryan who indirectly disposed of Clark's car from the race.

Ryan, who got shoved to the back of the pack in a first lap mix-up, sliced through the all-star field with his Lotus Monte Carlo and passed bigger than one car per lap until on lap 18 challenging the leaders whose engine exploded in a shower.
