George (Mac) Herrington Weds Orangeville Girl

Donna Marlene Cochran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran of Orangeville, became the bride of George Herrington, Georgetown, in Westminster United Church, Orangeville, with Dr. Davidson officiating. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Corey Herrington of Georgetown.

Autumn Green
The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her full-length gown was of nylon over net and the flared skirt fell into a tiered chapel train. Her waist-length veil was held in place with a crown of drop pearls and leaf design, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink seventeen roses and white baby mums. The attendants were given in autumn green peaude score with bell skirts and matching bow headpieces carrying bouquets of bronze mums and wind wings of wheat.

Attendants were Mrs. Dennis Moon of Alliston, matron of honour, Mrs. Nobuo Suzuki of Hamilton and Miss Jan Robinson of Orangeville, bridesmaids.

Senior Resident In City Hospital
One of our oldest residents, Mr. John Wheeler, is in hospital in Toronto. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. Harold Fendley in the death of his brother Frank, in Norval.

Congratulations to Miss Catherine Dillon, R.R. 1, who will be attending the Royal Academy of Art in London, England, to study sculpture.

Another sign of fall is the tang aroma in the air on the main street — the cooking of the apples at the apple factory. With the abundance of fruit

.. Social and Personal ..

Mrs. W. J. Paris, 28 Rexway Dr. has her brother, Cpl. A. W. Moxam of Vancouver, B.C., visiting with her this week.

Bronze Mums
Little Miss Donna Pedlar of Cookville, namesake of the bride, was flower girl attired in white dress and gloves, headpiece of yellow and bronze baby mums and carried a basket of corresponding flowers.

Mr. Corey Herrington, brother of the groom was best man. Ushering were Duncan Gibson, Brampton; Bernard Dore, Georgetown, and Harry Yochim of Welland.

Receiving, the bride's mother chose blue crepe sheath with short jacket and the groom's mother was in teal blue.

After the reception and dance at The Highlands, Mr. and Mrs. Herrington left on a trip to Niagara Falls, Rochester and the Thousand Islands. They will reside in Georgetown.

Out of town guests were from Welland, Fort William, Hamilton, Dunnville, Weston, Brampton, Stewarttown, Acton and Georgetown.

Organizing Training Classes
George D. Macaulay, 60 Delrex Blvd., has accepted the appointment on a voluntary basis and will be organizing training classes and disseminating information to people in North Halton area.

Qualified
He served during the second war in the Royal Canadian Artillery, completing ten arm-staff courses and serving as a staff officer. In addition, he completed two staff courses at the Civil Defence College, Antwerp, during the past year.

Mr. Macaulay may be reached at TR 7-2867 by interested groups or individuals who desire further information on survival matters.

GLEN WILLIAMS
this year there should be a good long run and many thousands of tons of good apple production. This is seasonal work for the village men and women which has been carried on for a good many years now.

New Prayer Book
Now Best Seller
The Revised Prayer Book of the Anglican Communion in Canada has become one of North America's best sellers. 200,000 have been printed and sold, and another 100,000 have been now ordered by the Anglican Publishing House from the Cambridge Press in England.

Outstanding orders on hand total 18,000 copies. The books have been distributed from Toronto headquarters and Diocesan Book Rooms.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY INAUGURATES SERVICE
Ladies of the Hospital Auxiliary inaugurated room to room service last Tuesday, where patients could make purchases from their bedside. A cart was taken round for the first time by Mrs. Bob Burns and Mrs. Wm. B. Hamilton.

Ladies report a brisk service and patients are most pleased to be able to obtain the various items for sale.
