

Peter Jones, Georgetown

"STRIKE" UP FRIENDSHIPS

OGETHERS AT THE Bowling Alley is epitomized by the Married Couples Bowling League which meets at the Lucky Strike the group, so any of you who lowling Club weekly for a little family 'pinbusting.' The wives even go so far as to correct any little fault they disco- have relics of the Charleser in hubby's form as exemplified here by Millie and Ray Dutchburn, Elsie and Stan Swann, and Jean and Bill Barker.

GOBS AND MORE GOBS so. "Out of bounds now, mam, especially grandmothers who mother. Things had been going alto- for you civies. We're readying' are fools. Calling behind me ether too smoothly. Like to sail," he explained, as the first Vagabond journey man-made wonder. The essex late coffee. She was told I was the School, then the Toronto had been on when some ad-looked like the Empire State at the dock where the Essex Normal School and Shaw's Bus- Rev. Lloyd Freel officiated at man. Bill Donaldson, Norval enture had not befallen me. Building had been towed up the was moored. She's Halifax incss College. She was on the the double ring ceremony in brother of the bride and David hough I was enjoying every coast and moored in Halifax raised and well aware of the staff of the Ontario Department Norval United Church on Sep. MacKay, Peterborough, friend coment of my CN Maritime harbor. Besides, there was rot fact that no woman should vent of Education (Secondary Schotember 2nd at three o'clock The wedding reception was enducted four, my woman's mance in the story that it and ture onto the docks after dark, ools) and with the Canadian stuition warned me not to be several U.S. destroyers had I hugged my rescuer with re- Bankers' Association in Mon. when Elsie Mae Donaldson, held in the United Church Sune-optimistic. That is why sailed to this Canadian port lief and turned to the Gob who treal and at the time of her daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy day School room where Mrs. was no excuse for my not intending to let Khruschev was saying something about death was with the Chartered Donaldson, Norval, became the Donaldson received for her dauseding the red stop light when know that the most loquacious "the lady missed our open Trust Company of Toronto, Dur. bride of Donald David Smith, ghter in a pale blue nylon lace flashed on my conscience exponent of democracy in the house and I was going to try ing the second world war she son of Mr. and Mrs. George over taffeta gown with beige to a beacon. My impulses are world, the United States was and persuade my officer to let served with the Canadian Wo. Smith of Norval. The church hat and shoes and gloves. Her swally responsible for all my not unaware of the fact Gagarin her aboard. Any land-locked men's Army Corps. redicaments...

It was just past 10 p.m. when guest of Cyrus Eaton at Pug. guest." He politely asked us pmeone remarked that the wash. This Nova Scotia town, if he could get us a ginger ale sex, oldest and largest air is not too distant from Canada's "They're free, mam." he said and Toronto, Miss Maynard Her selections were O Perfect and flowered hat, beige gloves lane carrier in the United largest Atlantic port and only His intended hospitality and lived in Georgetown and was a Love and I'll Walk Beside You, and a corsage of pink sweettates Navy was tied up at a a few flaps of a crow's wings my determined resistance had member of St George's Choir ock behind the Nova Scotian from the international bound been quite a tussle. the morning and if I wanted of constant threat to our way my friend admonished me for Rev Kenneth Richardson con. the white tulle gown with chan- Elliot Lake the bride wore a lotel. It was due to sail early ary. Such intrigue in this day go aboard, my informant said of life interested me. I felt I my foothardiness, "Lucky for sucted the funeral service in tilly lace long sleeved bodice black and white sheath cut with the public had been invited would find a story among the you it wasn't a merchant ship" St. George's Church on Tuesday over taffeta with a scalloped puffed sleeves with white lace do, I would have to get a planes parked on the huge she indignantly remarked. I October 17th Pallbearers were neckline trimmed with sequins trim, white hat, gloves and flight deck of the Essex.

THEY'LL JUST PUT THE BLAME ON DE PARENTS AGAIN."

The carrier was lit up like Instead I was gently escorted Christmes tree and, to add to to the fringe of the celebrating only the Essex. It was too loronto, pought shiften, was made front with wide chantilly plies and they will make their session atmosphere. Caba and advised to return to comforting to feel her arm ter Bent and Robert Jepson of the front with wide chantilly plies and they will make their the festive season atmosphere, Gobs and advised to return to linked in mine rather than the Georgetown. Interment was in scalloped lace parted to show home in Norval. hen I arrived at the dock it my hotel. While I took one grip of an eager sailor. Greenwood Cemetery. oked as though a New Year's last look at the gay lights that elebration was also in full outlined the carrier's rigging l ere high. Commander of the sailors speak with a southern rening and some thoughtful whispered in my ear, "Pay no erson, who wanted the sailors tention to him, mam, I'll get The Countess of Strathmore A letter of thanks was read feel welcome in a Canadian you aboard." I was looking at Chapter IODE held their mon- from Miss Hilda Erwin, for the the bride was the matron of Quebec, Guelph, Peterborough, as a sailor not much taller than they meeting on October 16th good wishes expressed by the honour in a street length gown Norval, New Liskeard, Toronto

INLAND INNOCENCE hight be a curiosity. I was wanted to do I assured him Erwin. y grandmotherhood, I had no Scotian Hotel, e was no longer allowed to do home and in a strange port. operation.

I babbled and bragged about his attention to the fact that I had numerous white locks be In Greenwood Cemetery Small red flower neath a state gray rinse, why I In Greenwood Cemetery Small red flower even disclosed the year I was born! All of this seemed to like a paper doll in his strong nard, Arletta Street, died sudwas a familair voice. A friend She was born in Georgetown

RESCUE AT LAST

Russia's first spaceman, was the lady should be an honoured

my four grandchildren, drew Nellie Maynard Buried

Mary Ellen (Nellie) Maynard, Red flare amuse him greatly and I was daughter of Mrs. Mabel May--- denly in Toronto Western Hospital on October 14th in her 46th year. Miss Maynard was I have decided after this es- the daughter of the late Albert' pisode that the Lord looks Maynard and she is survived after foods and grandmothers, by a sister Alberta and her Choir Member and on the staff of the Sunday. The bride given in marriage On the way back to the hotel School as a teacher.

didn't argue I wouldn't have Leonard Lovell and Gordon and seed pearls. The full dou- shoes and a corsage of yellow been interested in any old ship Lovell of Acton; Jack Tyrell, ble tulle skirt over taffeta had orchids. Mr. Smith is employed only the Essex. It was too Toronto; Douglas Mitchell, Wal. a tulle overskirt trimmed at at Halton Co-Operative Sup-whose There were hundreds of felt another hand take hold of IODE Holds Successful Penny Sale centred with Cybeducm orchids bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ida merican Gobs, whose spirits my elbow. Do all American IODE Holds Successful Penny Sale with stephanotis and pinochio Donaldson who was unable to hip had entertained at a re-drawl like a Kentucky colonel Turn Proceeds Over to Hospital aption and dance during the I wondered, as another voice Turn Proceeds Over to Hospital lace and earrings, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ackroyd,

Being an inlander I had no side of the ship. I struggled eight members were present hospital. ay of knowing a woman alone and kept assuring him my des Mrs. John T. Armstrong, 1st. Plans were discussed for the wore a white flower hat, gloves a seaside dock at night ire to board his Alma Mater vice regent, presided in the ab- distribution of Christmas gifts and shoes and carried a bouque; ther thought in mind than to! I had visions of us both being Fund, asking for a donation touickly board the carrier, seur tossed into the brig as he led ward this worthy cause. It was asked for used clothing for the bridesmaids. The gowns a shout its flight deck and me toward the ship. Every moved and seconded that we bales for the Northern school, were similar to that of the matabout its flight deck and me toward the ship. Every moved and seconded that we have for the Normern school, which can be about its flight deck and me toward the ship. Every moved and seconded that we have for the Normern school, which can be a rose about its flight deck and me toward the ship. Every moved and seconded that we have some firm in Mrs. Eric Timms agreed to at ron-of-honours only in a rose eturn to my hotel. Sailor in our way would stop give a donation as was given in tend to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to my hotel.

I walked confidently toward him. There would be a few previous years. Mrs. Dave tend to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to me to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and shade and they carried bouter to the project, packing and they carried bouter to the packing and they ecosted by a tall, skinny jun-would be made for our pro-recent bake sale, in which a Mrs. Sam Penrice, convener roses, stephanotis and pinocho r officer who grasped my gress toward the lit-up opening, substantial sum of money was of the Penny Sale, gave her respons. The flower girls, Janet rm and said, "Where you all By this time my heart was raised toward the Hospital port. Once again a considerable and Joan Coupland were dresstink you goin' mam?". I told pounding. I began to remem Fund. She thanked her com. sum of money was raised to cd and carried flowers similar In I wanted to go oboard the ber all the tales I had ever mittee and members of the ward the Hospital Fund. Mrs. to the matron of honour's. errier and he replied the pub. heard about sailors away from chapter for their help and co. Penrice thanked her committee. George Smith, Norval, bro-mong several hundred sailors was now quite cold. All I sence of the regent, Miss Hilda; to the adopted school in Hali of pink sweetheart roses, step-. burton, which the Chapter has hanotis and pinocho poms. Miss ifely cloaked, I believed, in was to return to the Nove The Secretary read a letter taken care of for so many years. Crystal Louth, cousin of the from The Georgetown Poppy A committee was formed to bride and Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, > for their help and support, and ther of the groom, was groomsalso to the members for their efforts in selling tickets and in ing the annual Valentine Dance Mark All Saints Day to raise funds, but it was de- On All Saints Day, November cided to leave these projects 1st, the men of St. George's

Mrs. Edwin Hall read a most Holy Communion at 6 p.m. interesting and informative then proceed to the banquet paper on Empire World Af- room of the Corner Cupboard fairs, mainly about the Repub for a turkey dinner. lic of Brazil, a country of 28 Reverend Stuart Brownlee, million people, where the migh- former rector of St. George's ty Amazon flows, where no rae Guelph and now executive asial segration exists, but where sistant to the Principal of Hurdisease and poverty go hand ren College, will be the after

After the roll call, a delic- be Divinity Training. fous lunch was served by the At the same meeting the hostess Mrs. James Evans, as slate of officers will be presentsisted by the following ladies, ed for the coming year, Mrs. Gordon Kidney, Mrs. Don Wingrove, Mrs. A. W. Gilmer. Mrs. Garfield McGilvray and Mrs. Cecil Davidson.

Mrs. Denney Charles very gra-lights mentioned in the Book of ciously thanked the hostess for Knowledge is the record set the hospitality of her home and in 1958 by John de Salis and also to the co-hostesses for serv- Patrick Lowe in making a par- SAVE up to 20 ling the lunch.

the groom completed the cos- grandparents, and Mr. Bob Donward a small opening in the Evans, 2 Guelph Street. Twenty- Chapter during her stay in of organiza over taffetta with and Huttonville.

look after this. Members were sister-in-law of the bride were making the sale such a success. Plans were discussed regard- Anglican Churchmen over until the next meeting. Anglican Church will celebrate dinner speaker, his topic will

STUPENDOUS JUMP

Amongst the aviation highachute jump of 56,000 feet.

Something New for Fall & Winter

An Excellent Selection of Quality

TOPCOATS

SILVER'S

Nobody, but nobody, 1 the entire district, carries a larger selection of fine clothing than Silver's Georgetown. This fall's selection of topcoats makes us exceptionally proud.

Come in and see the latest styles in split-raglans, balmaccans, and set-ins. Fabrics, include velours, coverts, tweeds and laminates. Priced from $29.95

THE POPPY

ton and hip flask decade,

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD Thursday, October 26th, 1961

PAGE 11

Have you ever wondered what would happen if you told the boss what you thought of him? Well, if you want to see the consequences of telling the plain, unvern-Ished truth come to Wrigglesworth auditorium November 3rd and 4th, to see a sparkling farce "Nothing but

Set in the twenties, the play shows the unexpected and hilarious results of a $10,000 bet that nothing but the truth can be told for

Friends become enemies, and romance is fouled up, as our here strives manfully

In the movie "Nothing but the Truth," a few years back

Bob Hope played the miser-

Little Theatre Group, the cast includes Mike Peleschak.

Brian Sprack, Mary Goebel. Vera Macdonald, Florence

Cowan, Ron Hill, Paul Baker, Elaine Robinson, Norma O'-

Shee, Sheile Lambert, and

A plea for props of the Gord Hunt.

Presently the Georgetown

ably honest leading man.

NOTHING BUT

THE TRUTH

the Truth.

twenty four hours.

to collect the wager.

Of Remembrance Day . . .

We proudly wear Symbol of Sacrifice. Mark you our Heroes graves Far from familiar fields . . . Blood Red

With crosses White. WHILE WE REMEMBER

Norval United Church enny - Penny I expected the I was disappointed for I had of mine had gone to the hotel and attended Chapel Street Scene of Recent Wedding by to fall any moment. This never seen such a mammoth thinking I might join her in a Public School and Georgetown Scene of Recent Wedding was decorated with standards of coisage was of yellow sweet gladioli. Mrs. Elaine Craw heart roses. Mrs. Smith assist-ford was the organist and Miss ed her in a champagne beige by her father wore a floor leng. For their honeymoon trip to the tulle underskirt which was. Following the reception the - trimmed with rose lace appli- wedding party went to Milton ques. Her wedding bouquet was Centennial Manor to see the poms. A cultured pearl neck- attend. Honoured guests were three quarter sleeves. She

For Distinctive PRINTING

call the Georgetown Herald TRiangle 7-2201

PROCLAMATION!

The Municipality of Georgetown WILL RETURN TO

Juliuaiu illic

1.00 a.m. Sunday, October 29th

Turn Your Clock BACK 1 Hour

THIS PROCLAMATON HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY THE GEORGETOWN TOWN COUNCIL

> E. T. HYDE, MAYOR

dehydrated heating oil? Water condensate and impurities accumulate in all stored oil. Pumped into your tank in this water and impurities in the oil will cause tank corrosion and system fouling. To eliminate the risk of messy and costly tank leakage, and to aid in the dependable performance of your heating system, every one of our trucks is equipped with the exclusive HY-TEST 303 DEHYDRATOR & FILTER. Every delivery of HY-TEST 303 passes through this dehydrator and filter on its way to your tank, assuring you of the purest, most water-free dil ever condition, without treatment, the aldson a brother of the bride.

Other guests were from Bramp-

What's

Result: Smooth, troublefree performance and infinitely longer tank life. Lots of peace of mind for you.

W. H. KENTNER & SON

45 Queen St. - Georgetown TRiangle 7-2851

the Punch It's time to get your car set for winter. We'll completely winterize and put in the proper anti-freeze. Be safe, not sorry. Stop in soon. Prepare now for safe driving all winter.

TOP GRADE

ANTI-FREEZE INSTALLED

NORVAL

TR. 7-4091