Friends Have Showers For Marilyn Murray
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Ottaway, the former Marilyn Murray, who were married Friday evening in St. John's Anglican Church, at Stewarttown. Prior to her marriage Marilyn was entertained at three showers. The previous week Miss Carol McClean entertained, and Monday of this past week Miss Norma Murray, cousin of the bride, entertained for her at a miscellaneous shower, at her parent's home in Norval. On Wednesday evening, Miss Adrienne Nurse, Marilyn's bridesmaid, entertained at another miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse, Ashgrove. Marilyn received many useful and beautiful gifts on each of these occasions.

Two district couples were spotted dancing on television as Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Briggs attended the Mari Kenney Rance square dance on Friday evening. Mr. Murray Morrison, brother of Mrs. T. H. Briggs, was the guest caller for the occasion.

Members of St. John's Church Guild have made their final plans for their Annual Bazaar next Saturday afternoon in the church basement hall. Many attractions have been planned for those attending.

Mrs. Dorothy Heath of Clarkson spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. J. Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ingram and daughters, Connie and Karen, of Kleinberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Morrison of Woodbridge visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Briggs on Sunday.

We regret to report that Mr. John Harris is still in Georgetown and District Hospital after suffering a crushed hip in an accident a couple of weeks ago. His friends and neighbours wish him a speedy recovery.

Add Snackette To Smoke Shop

Another Main Street store is having its face lifted. This time Hutch's Smoke Shop is being completely remodelled, and even renamed. It will be known as "The Snackette". The name comes from a twelve stool gold and black snack bar fitted with gleaming steel kitchen facilities. Mrs. Hutchinson, who will run the snack bar, hopes to specialize in home cooked foods only. Lunches and snacks will be served but no dinners. The billiard room, too, has been completely renovated, with a paint job, mahogany plywood panelling, and a new table. An additional washroom has also been installed. The official opening date will be announced in next week's paper. The remodelling is being done by Hamilton Construction, the plumbing by Nash and McDowell, and the wiring by Dave Williams.

Costume Party Little Helpers

The annual Little Helpers children's party was held on Saturday afternoon at the St. Stephen's Anglican Church. All those in costume paraded in a grand march. Mrs. Weller and Mrs. Ernest Price were the judges and the prizes were given to the four best costumes. Each child received a prize. Games were played and the children handed in their mite boxes. The money from these is for the missionaries. Lunch was served.
