

HOWLS IN THE HALL HAILED HALLOWE'EN

ONE HUNDRED TEENAGERS from points as far as Hillsburgh and Brampton, hooped it for Halloween in St. Paul's Baptist Church last week at a Masquerade Party hosted by local young people. Rev. Pinkerton and Rev. Whan conducted the party attended by photographer Charles Trutt who told the Herald: "These teenagers are certainly no problem. I was invited to take pictures and enjoyed the company so much I stayed until the end." This group is of teenagers from in and around town.

Noted Speakers At Mission Conference

Maple Baptists Give $350 To World Work

Establishing a new hospital in an area where 40,000 people live without a resident doctor was the main purpose of the conference. Other speakers brought reports from Europe, South America, Africa and Canadian home missions. Rev. Ivor Green, who is from Peru, addressed the conference in the Rotunda of the church. After his address, Rev. Greenslade hurried over to Maple Avenue Baptist Church just in time to address a congregation that was waiting to hear him speak on "Albert Schweitzer." Dr. Foster's address was Wednesday and he was followed by Rev. R. D. Guthrie of Rhodesia. The first building of the hospital is to be a two-roomed shack which was the temporary hospital world and that "we have much to do for our fellow-Canadians." The conference proved to be a success and will be an annual event in the calendar of the church. When Dr. Foster returns to Africa he will be
