Blazer Award For Golf Club Champ

An award which in future years will be looked on as a traditional affair was inaugurated at Georgetown Golf and Country Club at the closing banquet and presentation night there Saturday when 1961 club champion Ted Worrall donned a green blazer emblematic of club title. A white and gold braided crest inscribed Georgetown Golf and Country Club 1961 Club Champion complements the significant jacket. Receiving awards were the following: Two Ball Foursome: Paul Lewis and George Inch; Most Improved Golfer: Bill Mair; Hole In One: Jack Sunnucks; Runner Up: Jack Sunnucks; Junior Champion: Tommy Haines; Runner Up: Bob Kennedy; Ladies 9 Hole: Mrs. Elmer Hill, Runner Up: Mrs. W. Rigg; Ladies Handicap: Mrs. Norm Marchmont, Runner Up: Mrs. Jim Burton; Men's Handicap: Geo. Inch, Runner Up: Norm Marchmont; Ladies' Champion: Mrs. Norm Marchmont, Runner Up: Mrs. Ray Wilson; Club Champion: Ted Worrall; Runner Up: Dave Morgan. Mr. Worrall and Mrs. Norm Marchmont who is the 1961 Ladies Section Champion, are also presidents of their respective sections. Mrs. Marchmont was presented with the Ladies' Championship Trophy by Jim Burton, Georgetown Golf Professional, who chaired the evening. The presentations were made following dinner in the club dining room. Members and guests were entertained by an interlude of popular organ music by Wayne Preston prior to the programme. Mr. Worrall and Mrs. Norm Marchmont were the medical work in hospitals. By request Mrs. Black sang a solo "The World is Waiting for a Little Bit of Love" in keeping with the devotion Mrs. Shortill read a short article on temperance. Miss Young, a former member was present and also two associate members. Following the closing hymn and prayer the ladies enjoyed a social time and a cup of tea served by the hostess. IF

College Speaker At Youth Meeting

The third annual youth banquet was sponsored on Friday night of last week by the young people of the Ballinafad charge. The guest speaker was Mr. Jim Skilton, a student out from Emmanuel College, who last summer for three months was a member of the "Operation Crossroads Africa" a group of 250 Canadian and American students chosen to live among the African people on an educational project. Mr. F. W. Shortill, a member of the session answered the toast to the church and following the dinner, prayers of Africa were shown by the speaker. IF

Juveniles Will Open Season Wednesday

Georgetown juveniles open their schedule here on November 8th when Brampton provides their first real opposition. Ernie Bodnar is coaching the locals this season and Bill Richmond is manager. Georgetown is grouped in an eight team loop with Brampton, Arrprior, Milton, Orangeville, Preston, Hespler and Oakville. Club officials are more than a little apprehensive of their own chances in this campaign, talk on missionary work being mainly because of costly losses to higher clubs. Kitchener took hill while Glen Cooper may go to Tillsonburg and Murray Marchmont and Gary Tester are still nursing football injuries. Any youths under 18 as of August 1st interested in trying for a spot on the juveniles should get in touch with Bill Richmond at TR. 7-4378. IF

The Silhouettes will reappear in the Rose Room this week. They tell us they have rearranged their show. So they've dropped the R & B and say they come forth with Rock & Roll for the first part of the show and slowing it down later on. Any change could be an improvement! This Friday the Silhouettes! Look for Little Caesar and the Consuls as a regular monthly feature of Club Midtown. Their next appearance is on Nov. 26 probably. The Consuls will also be the entertainment for our Christmas Dance on Saturday, December 23. By popular demand the Twilights will return on Nov. 10th, one week from this Friday. About the Sadie Hawkins Dance this Saturday night in the GHS auditorium, I'm not supposed to mention it. IF
