

MEN OF THE CLOTH COACHING MITES OF THE ICE

ALWAYS INTERESTING are the local Kid Hockey Junior A clashes between Ottawa and Hamilton and for the reason for that extra 'oomph' displayed by both clubs when they meet, look to the benches. Guiding their teams in the friendly rivalry again this season are members of the local clergy, Rev. Ewart Madden (at left with some of his wings) of St. Andrew's United, and Rev. Lloyd Whan (at right schooling his net-minder) of First Baptist.

Bantams Win, Tie In Week-End Hockey

Saturday, November 11th
Georgetown 3 — Brampton 2

The first game against a strong Brampton team saw the local Bantams come out with a 3 to 2 win.

This was a team effort with every boy carrying his share of the load. A fast hard hitting game with Brampton serving 9 penalties and the local boys sticking to hockey with only 3 penalties. The bigger Brampton team tried using their weight to slow up Georgetown but this only made the boys dig that much harder.

Brampton opened the scoring at the 12 minute mark of the first period. Morens from Murdoch, Georgetown tied the score at the 7 minute mark of the second period. Paul Robinson from Terry Hay, Brampton came back and scored again making 2 to 1 at the end of the second period. Black from Archdekin. In the 3rd period Terry Hay scored his first goal in a Georgetown uniform tying the score. Hay's goal was from Paul Robinson and Simon Llewellyn. Dave Shepherd scored the winning goal at the 6 minute mark of the third period. From Marty Wheeler and Ron Lane.

Sunday, November 12th
Georgetown 4 — Oakville 4

Sunday saw Georgetown moving a little slower against a good Oakville team. Possibly the game against Brampton tired the local boys out, as they seemed to lack the punch they had then. Georgetown had most of the play and with a little luck around the net could have come out with a win.

Terry Hay scored another goal in this game and coach Fred Harrison hopes this new-comer to Georgetown (moving here in July from Fort Francis) keeps putting the puck in the net. Terry seems to fit in well with the team and is a welcome addition. Brent Telford played an exceptional game and was out over the eye early in the second period but took only enough time out to have it patched up and was back at it again to play solid hockey.

Mid-December Opening Planned for "Riviera"

If the landscape looks a little different to you as you cross the Norval bridge on No. 7 Highway, don't think you're seeing things — the landscape has changed.

There's a lake, with two large trees sitting up little islands, where a day or two ago there was overgrown brushland. This is the lake which will shimmer with the reflection of the new Riviera dance hall, come December 15th, the estimated opening date.

At the moment, huge lumbering earth machines and bulldozers chase each other around making molehills out of mountains. A hillside has been cut away to fill the proposed parking area. The land carved out to form the lake has raised the level of the dance hall eight feet above the river bank. Despite all this activity the trees have been left undisturbed in their natural beauty.

The roof beams are being erected now, and it is hoped the roof will be on in another week.

A steady stream of cars on Sundays attests to the curiosity aroused by this new venture.

KID Hockey

by R. A.

I would like to apologize at this time for the lack of news and highlights in this column so far this season. We have had a big chore in checking players cards, balancing teams, finding jobs for new volunteers and what have you. However, I believe the situation is now in hand and hope everyone is happy. The co-operation from coaches, managers and the boys themselves has been terrific so far, keep up the good work fellows. The spectator crowd was much better last Saturday. Glad to see you folks coming out.

A very grateful thank you for the cooperation on Saturday, November 11th in helping us observe our two minute silence in Remembrance of the comrades who laid down their lives for a cause in which they believed.

Over the Blue Line — Some like one of our referees has been taking skating lessons, he didn't fall on Saturday.

NEW ALLEY OPENS DOORS NEXT WEEK — Peter Jones, Georgetown

PRETTY CHRISTINE Melanson is a little early (and a little over the foul line) but Georgetown's latest haven for bowlers, Georgetown Bowl, goes operational next week and makes it official on the 23rd with a grand opening centred around Channel 13 personally Gordie Tapo. Here Christine complements the decorous Brunswick shield which hides the intricate automatic pinsetting mechanism. The automatic setters were installed last week.
