Evening Store Hours Start Monday

Georgetown stores will be allowed to stay open Monday evenings until 9 p.m., if a by-law amendment is passed as expected by council next Monday.

At this week's meeting council was unanimous in acceding to a request presented by Ed Wiener on behalf of merchants that Christmas opening hours be lengthened. At present the by-law allows such opening from Dec. 15th.

Food Stores Won't

Mr. Wiener also presented a number of petitions from various merchant groups, to conform with the by-law. Only group which does not seek a change are the food and meat stores. Only two stores in this class would like the Dec. 4th date. More than one-third of a group must petition in order to legalize a change.
