Quarter Century Club Members Attend Dinner

Eagerly anticipated each year by members, the annual dinner of the Quarter Century Club of Provincial Paper, Ltd. was held in the Legion auditorium on Friday. This year entertainment was supplied by Vince Mountford, always a favourite with local audiences. Mr. Mountford exceeded a snappy show which included vocalists Helen Bruce and acrobatic dancer Mary May, with Harry Rich as pianist. Miss Bruce was joined in one number by club member Harry Hale in a duet.

Wakefield Ford, club president this year, was dinner chairman and introduced plant manager Ross Duncan and John Buss, head office representative at the dinner. Mr. Duncan read a message from D. W. Ambridge, president of the Abitibi company, in which he spoke his appreciation of the faithful service embodied by men and women whose service entitled them to membership. "We are not in a depression now in boom times, and the best efforts of every employee are required to successfully operate a business today," he said.

CLUB MIDTOWN
About those lights? Why? "to stop trouble before it starts" the boss said. When "Now and henceforth" said the director "We feel self-conscious" . . . "No fun with lights" said some of the Midtowners. I agree. So they'll be off, next week! O.K.? The dance will be Friday night this week in the Rose Room. Possibly a surprise band, we're never sure! With the record hit this week is "Walkin' With My Angel" by Buddy Holly. It's the flip of "Run to Him". One more great "The Last Waltz" by Gene Pitney. This has a fine sound, a great and slowness of the beat. Also Mal Donners "Please Don't Go is Climbing High". Point of interest: In 1950 Mike Williamson fans. Uncle Mike will be at the club as he has done so much work for it. It's a long time, but for the past 3 years, this Friday night for another big Record hop! This will be Mike's farewell appearance as he is taking the advice of that great philosopher Dar Tosi, when he said: "Go West, Young Mike, Go West." Mike Williamson, the club's car enthusiast, racing (car) fan, coffee man, and all-arounder and bum is heading out to the unknown pastures of coffee to the lions. Farewell, Mike, and good luck!
