Acton Women's Institute Gives Variety Program

By Muriel Thompson

An organization that has provided many evenings of enjoyable entertainment over the years came again to the Manor to present a program of sacred and secular numbers on Tuesday evening, November 21st. The organization in question was the Acton Women's Institute and a large number of its members were present. The president of the Institute, Mrs. Hargrave presided and announced the program.

After the Institute Ode and Mary Stuart Collect, a moment's silence was observed in memory of two former members who have passed on, Mrs. Annie Parnell and Miss Alice Hume.

Mrs. Hargrave extended greetings to the Institute to the residents and asked the audience to join in the singing of a hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross." She then called on Rev. James Rudd, pastor of Acton Baptist Church to conduct a devotional period. Mr. Rudd's remarks proved to be very appropriate to the occasion and very comforting to his elderly audience.

The portion of the program that followed consisted of musical numbers, readings and Scottish dancing. Readings were given by Miss Isobel Anderson and Mrs. Robert Parker. Two enjoyable Highland dances were performed by little Margaret Slavin. Vocal duets were sung by Mrs. Veldhuis and Miss D. Simmons and by Messrs. Vic Bristow and Les Duby. A trio of three young men, Bill Patterson of Acton and Bob Longstreet and Jeff Barry of Erin played several instrumental numbers on two guitars and a banjo. Mr. Charles Landsborough played two cornet selections.

Talents

At the conclusion of this varied program, to which so many persons so generously contributed their talents, delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, confectionery, tea and coffee were served by the ladies of the Institute, and the residents had once again the pleasure of talking with these faithful and generous friends from Acton.

On Wednesday evening, November 22nd, the residents spent a very enjoyable hour in the auditorium with Rev. D. A. Powell, rector of Grace Anglican Church in Milton who had come to the Manor to show coloured slides and conduct a sing-song.

The coloured slides, which were both attractive and instructive, had been taken last summer when Mr. Powell was conducting services at a church in Scott City, a town of some 2500 inhabitants in western Kansas, near the Colorado border. Mr. Powell gave an interesting commentary while he was showing the slides. The among them "Innocent" and "The Thin Red Line." Popular music was represented by "Tea for Two" and a medley from the Broadway musical show "Take Me Along." The songs "La Comparita" and "A Minute by Mozart" represented dance music. Semi-classical numbers by Rubinstein, Schumann and Tchaikovsky and a chorale by Bach rounded out a fine program.

Refreshments of tea, coffee, doughnuts and cookies were served by Mrs. S. Allen assisted by several ladies from St. Paul's United Church. The doughnuts had been donated by the Kum Doble Club.

Mrs. Ted Quackenbush IGA Popularity Winner

The shoppers too, had a chance to win. A name was drawn from the ballots for Mrs. Quackenbush, entitling the winner to $15 worth of groceries. The lucky winner was Mrs. L. Bydevaate, 30 John St.

A twenty five dollar cheque and a free hair styling were the prizes donated to Mrs. Quackenbush by owner Bob Caldwell.

New Nomination Meeting Is Called for Oakville

The Oakville - Trafalgar nomination meeting of November 20th was ruled invalid last week by the Ontario Municipal Board.

Although Trafalgar Township hall was jammed and overflowing with ratepayers the night of the nominations, the O.M.B. ruled the meeting was invalid because it was improperly advertised in two Oakville weekly newspapers published November 9th.

Did It Right

Evidence submitted to the O.M.B. showed the advertisement had been properly placed in the Canadian Champion, in Milton, and The Spectator, Hamilton, however the board ruled the Oakville citizens had not received notification as required by the statutes. In the case of the two Oakville newspapers, the meeting date had been left out.

The Board ruled another nomination meeting must be advertised and this is to be held December 7 from 7 to 8.30 p.m. The date of the election has been postponed to December 16th with an advance poll on Dec. 16th.

The whole question arose when Oakville councillor William Card appealed the disqualification of his nomination as a majority candidate, because he failed to sign his oath of allegiance. When he consulted a lawyer the missing date was noticed and it was brought to the O.M.B.'s attention.

Cost $500

Township Clerk S. A. Featherstone, who is returning officer for the election, said that $500 would cover the cost of forms and re-advertising for the new nomination and election.

HIGH TALES

Remembrance Service For Student Casualties

At 1.30 on November 10th, the High School held its annual service to commemorate the death of former students in the World Wars and in Korea. A full assembly was called in the usual manner except that the choir was on the stage.

Mr. Lambert opened by reminding us of that for which we were assembled. He also reminded us that the Honour Roll of the school is in essence that of the town, most of the town's dead having been former pupils at the high school.

Adrienne Nurse, our head girl read the opening words. This was followed by the Lord's prayer and an appropriate passage from the Old Testament. Brian Lewis read the Honour Roll for the first and second World Wars and for the Korean war. Our trumpeter played "The Last Post." This was followed by the traditional two minutes of silence. We were roused again by reville and the service closed with "God Save the Queen."

This was our Remembrance Day service. It was a tribute to those of one generation who fought so that the next might be free. It is a truly appropriate reminder in our present troubled times when men seem bent on having another round of war.

Rebels End Season With Win Over Acton

The Rebels finished up their season in a way that left no doubts as to who the league champions were, when they rolled over Acton 20-0 on October 25th in a brilliant control game.

Sparky McGill quarterbacked the Rebels to the Acton 15-yard line and from there he rolled over left on a keep play to go over for the touchdown in the second quarter of the game. Stew Bottomley made the convert good to put the Rebels out in front 7-0 at the half. In the 3rd quarter McGill connected with Bill Aiken in the end zone for the second Rebel touchdown of the game. The catch that Aiken made was one of the outstanding plays of the game, as the ball was well over his head and was a terrific diving catch. Bottomley converted to make the score 14-0 at the end of the third quarter.

Due to the fine defensive play of our defensive line, Acton was unable to even progress out of their own end, as they were kept to short gains. The Rebels marched down the field in quick powerful plays to the Acton 4 yard line where McGill went over on a keep draw play. The outstanding player of the day was Gord Lee who ran over Acton for good gains almost at will. Lee carried the ball for gains of 15 and 20 yds on off tackle plays throughout the game.

The convert was blocked on the last touchdown as the game ended 20-0 for the Rebels. Also outstanding in the game were Bill Aiken, Sparky McGill, Stew Bottomley, George Smith and Dennis Martel.

Bow to St. John's In CWOSSA Football

Roger Carey

Georgetown, after winning the League Championship for Halton County suffered their first loss of the season on November 6 against St. John's of Brantford in the CWOSSA semi-finals at Guelph 28-6. The scoring started early in the first quarter with St. John's taking a bad kick by John Pennock on Georgetown's 30 yard line. With a fine running attack St. John's moved the ball to the five yard line from where they ran an end run for the first score of the game.

Clawed by St. John's quick scoring ability, Ron Lavell took the kickoff on the next play of the game, and ran it back through the entire St. John's team for the first Rebel score. The run showed the fine blocking ability of the Rebels to open the holes through which Lavell scampered for the touchdown. The kick was blocked and the half ended 7-6 for St. John's.

In the second half St. John's swept our ends on two fine reverse plays, giving them a 19-6 edge at the end of the third quarter, the Rebels battled unsuccessfully to overcome St. John's lead, until a long pass of McGill's was picked off by St. John's and run for the final touchdown. St. John's coach praised the Rebels highly for fine playing and good defensive work. St. John's went on to beat Preston 43-0 for the CWOSSA championship. Outstanding in the game were: Ron Lavell, George Smith and con-Sparky McGill.

Maple Street needs another Volkswagen.

When you own a Volkswagen, you can expect company after a snow storm. Inquisitive company. They'll want to know why your car got through the drifts, and theirs didn't.

There's no trick to it. A Volkswagen has its engine in the rear where it does the most good. The extra weight over the drive wheels provides an amazing amount of traction, even on icy hills. When you want to stop safely, but in a hurry, the VW's traction keeps you out of trouble.

Another blessing in cold weather is the VW's air-cooled engine. There's no water, so there's no need for anti-freeze. You don't even need a garage. (If your Volkswagen won't start in sub-zero weather, check the gas gauge.)

Look underneath a conventional car and you'll find wires and rods and whatnot. In deep snow they can be a drag, and they can be damaged.

The underside of a Volkswagen is completely covered with a smooth sheet of metal. There's nothing to hold you back but your own caution. So, if clearing a snow-filled driveway is not for you, make friends with a Volkswagen owner. Or, better still, a Volkswagen dealer.
