

BINGO PAYS OFF

MRS. JIM FORD, 12 Wesleyan St., has good reasons for the smile. One is in her left hand, a $50 from the Lions Club, first prize in their newspaper Bingo which she won. Another is on her right, 2 1/2 year old daughter Geraldine, who appears just as happy with 'mommy's' good fortune. As in the first series the winning card was purchased from a Herald carrier.

ported, but from then on the rush of changing returns was exceeded only by the tide of queries.

The interest in the election results carried over to Tuesday morning when the calls were almost as heavy, as people were seeking the final figures as late as 9:30 Tuesday night.

The returns were relayed from the municipal office as soon as they had been double checked for accuracy and the were undoubtedly the busiest telephones in town. Herald staff candidates for the three top offices, council and school board 10 o'clock on they didn't even bother hanging up. A light tap on the cradle button immediately admitted another inquirer.

Judging by the way some callers received nothing informative until about 9:45 when need to erect a sign reading: "If it's to be had, we had it."

Policing Polls? Council Lukewarm

A complaint that time in one polling booth was not synchronized and it had closed five minutes early was aired in council Tuesday.

Mayor Hyde thought that next year council might consider special men to police the polls. Such an official could rule on the tricky question of whether, when a poll is crowded at the last minute, voters who cannot crowd into the polling location and are lined up outside are entitled to vote.

Cr. Hunter thought this a matter for a reputable returning officer to decide.

Ask Senior Citizens Choose Snow Princess

When the Senior Citizens finish dining in Knox Presbyterian Church Hall Monday evening their Rotarian hosts have got some work cut out for them.

The pleasing problem confronting the elder residents will be to select one of four contestants to be the Rotary Club's Snow Princess for 1961.

Seeking the title are Christine Melanson, R R 3, Georgetown; Edith Baumgartner, Park Ave.; Joyce McLean, Norval, and Tricia Heywood, 2 Gray Gate.

The winners will ride in an open convertible in the Santa Claus parade on the 16th.
