

HUSKY "WAITRESSES" FLAWLESS FORM FOR ELDERS

SHOWING OFF for the Senior Citizens the sponsoring Rotarians followed Emily Post to the letter in serving the guests at the annual Senior Citizens' dinner in Knox church hall, and if the guests had been marking report cards they would, no doubt, have been unanimous in assessing their hosts with straight 'A's'. The men served, stacked dishes and cleared tables like experts, and where could one get better service than this, six Rotarians: John Gunn, Ken Robertson, John Ord, Ernest Ball, John Wolfe, and Bill Hamilton, waiting on four guests, Mrs. Cliff Sacey, Mrs. Sam Tennant, Mrs. C. Sargent, and Mrs. John Kemshead.

Fete Breslau Couple On Silver Anniversary

A silver wedding anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Mark Collier of Waterloo was held at the IOOF Hall, Georgetown, on Saturday night, December 9th. The evening was spent by playing cards and darts after which a salad plate was served along with ice cream, fancy cookies, and a tiered wedding cake.

Chest of Silver
The families presented them with a chest of silver for 12 and their friends presented them with a sterling silver pen and carrying set to Mrs. Collier and a sterling silver tie clip and cuff links to Mr. Collier.

Guest of honour was Mrs. Collier's mother, Mrs. Alice Collier of Milton. Other guests were their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sprung of Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Garner, and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, Harner of Breslau, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mills, Carol and Lawrence of Milton and Mr. Jim Mills of Weston.
