BALLINAFAD

Christmas Services At Three Churches

Special Christmas Sunday services were conducted by Mr. Beaton at all three churches on the charge Sunday morning. At the Ballinafad service Mrs. Shortill and Mrs. Black sang Jean Bambino, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Beaton, who later attended the Melville Church and sang two Christmas solos for the congregation there. In the evening the church at Ballinafad was beautifully decorated with candle lighting for a most impressive carol service when all three congregations participated. The music was all planned by Mrs. Beaton, who had put a lot of thought and enthusiasm into the event and a great big thank you goes to her in appreciation. The service was in three parts: the Advent; the Nativity; the Adoration. The senior choir sang two carols in the first part which were 'A Virgin Most Pure,' and 'Poverty.'

For the Nativity the junior choir sang three carols, 'Song of the Crib,' 'Rocking,' and 'The Flemish Carol.' The final carol in the Adoration were 'Kings in Glory' by the senior choir and both choirs joined in 'Puer Nobis' (Unto Us a Child is Born).

The orchestra from Churchhill church played before the service as well as for the congregational singing of the familiar carols. Rev. James Kirkwood was the reader of the Scripture narrative. The Ballinafad congregation are justly proud of Jim who was once a candidate for the ministry from this charge. He and his wife Marion have offered themselves as missionaries and will be leaving the first week in January for Northern Rhodesia, in central Africa. The prayers and good wishes of the Ballinafad community will go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaton entertained all the choirs and the orchestra on Thursday evening following the final rehearsal for the Special Service. Mrs. Beaton was presented with a Christmas plant on behalf of the junior and senior choirs.

Mr. Tom Mack was in Guelph for Christmas with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Himes spent Christmas with their family in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Beaton and family spent Christmas day in Heidelberg, and this week Mr. Beaton's parents are visiting at the manse.

Ross Shortill who is in training with the RCMP at Regina, spent the holiday week-end at his home.

The CGIT were entertained at the home of June Given on Tuesday night for their annual Christmas party. As the girls did not hold their annual Vesper Service this year, they all participated in a short candle lighting worship service and enjoyed carol singing around the fireplace and Christmas tree. Each girl was given a slip of paper with instructions to sing or say something for Christmas. Lunch was served by the leaders, assisted by Mrs. Given, and the group presented Mrs. Black with a Christmas gift.
