MEMORIALS

EMMERSON — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, William Emerson, who passed away December 27th, 1957.

A silent thought, a secret tear keeps his memory ever dear. Time takes away the edge of grief but memory turns back every year.

Sadly missed and always remembered by son Jim, daughter-in-law Janet and grandchildren, Dennis and Jane Anne.

WALKER — In memory of a dear father, Sam Walker who passed away December 27th, 1957.

There is a link death cannot sever. Love and remembrance last forever.

—Always remembered by daughter Hazel and son-in-law Ted Arnold.

MEMORIALS

WALKER — In memory of a dear father, Sam Walker, who died December 27th, 1957. Nothing can ever take away the love a heart holds dear. Fond memories linger every day. Remembrance keeps his near.

Parishioners Read Christmas Story

St. John's Church was beautifully decorated for the annual Sunday School Christmas Carol service Sunday morning.

Members of the Sunday School joined the congregation at the regular 9:30 a.m. service.

Carols sung were 'O Come All Ye Faithful', 'Hark the Herald Angels Sing', 'O Little Town of Bethlehem', 'Silent Night! Holy Night!', 'Away in a Manger', 'While Shepherds Watch Their Flocks by Night', 'Come Upon a Midnight Clear', 'Good King Wenceslas' and 'The First Nowell'.

Between each carol a part of the Christmas story was read from the Scriptures. Those taking reading parts were: Mr. Howard Briggs, David Smith, Mr. C. G. English, Kenneth Grant, Mr. Thomas Barnes and the Rev. J. E. Maxwell.

Robert Armstrong and Gary Briggs, were the sidesmen, and David Smith cross bearer.

At the close of the service, a film of the birth of Christ was shown, followed by the distribution of gifts to the S.S. children, from the beautiful decorated tree, and all children present received a bag of candies.

Flowers on the altar were in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smeltzer.

Family Bereavements Bring Holiday Sadness

Christmas is a happy time for most families, but it brought sadness to some local folk who suffered bereavements.

A family party on Christmas day at the Hillsburgh farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marks, had a tragic aftermath when Mrs. Marks' mother, Mrs. Odie Stookes collapsed and died of a heart attack. Another daughter, Mrs. Frank Wallace is a town resident.
