MAKING "WATERFALLS" A YEAR ROUND PLAYGROUND

SWAM IN IT in summer, now they skate on it — the pond at Waterfalls Playground, which is becoming a winterland to skaters who go for natural ice. A light skirt of snow on the weekend didn't deter them either as this group of local people will testify. The large surface makes it possible for experienced skaters, beginners, and key players to have their own individual areas.

Set Hospital Board Elections for March

This year every effort is being made to stimulate interest in the annual election for the Hospital Board, and the annual meeting.

Though there is some work to be done on the outside grounds, the interior is veryiful and well worth a visit. A steady stream of curious and interested people visited the on Saturday and Sunday were favourably impressed one of the local youngagers who were enjoying skating on the small lake Saturday afternoon were led when they were all in to hear the Al Harris Orchestra from Toronto practice. This orchestra has engaged for Friday night. It will be special for teen-agers and young adults. They rock and roll, swing, Latin American, and all types of music that especially appeal to young at heart. They rated class with those who heard them.

sea dances will be well-organized, and no teenagers need in jeans or slim jeans be allowed in. Mr. Zuber used the fact that they be in "Sunday dress" and surely no drinking.

We have a nice group of young people in the district and are sure they can set an example for others to follow make these Friday nights a looked forward to event.

Indoor lighting for the Christmas season is becoming more popular every year and many homes looked very prettily with coloured lights, decorations, trees and houses.

The village by She's Garage was quite a gay sight.

Christmas lights. We congratulate the home owners a lovely Christmas display.

10 YEARS AGO

A disastrous fire destroyed the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEnery at Ballinsfad on Sunday afternoon. When snow-on-the-house-and-formed a bucket brigade, others released stock in the barn 200 yards away. Mr. and Mrs. McEnery and their son David were at Toronto.

The Georgetown Raiders have lost their best defenseman, Pete Ward, who joined the club this season. At a hockey practice Friday, Pete fell in a scramble and a team mate's stick pierced his face and broke his upper jaw. He also lost his teeth in the accident.

William Hyde is Georgetown's new fire chief. He will replace Harry Savings, who has resigned after serving in the position for several years.

25 YEARS AGO

A couple of our local golf enthusiasts had an enjoyable round of golf here on New Year's Day. They reported the fairways and greens in good shape.

The inaugural meeting of Georgetown council was held on Monday with Mayor Joseph Gibbons in the chair and Reeve Davis and councillors A. Be-Barr, Jos. Hall, A. E. Potts, Thomas Lyons, and James Costigan, present.

At the Gregory Theatre: "Sworn Enemy," Robert Young and Florence Rice; "Half Angel," starring Francis, Dean and Brian Levy and "Nine Days a Queen," starring Nova Pilbeam.

DISTRICT NEWS — AT A GLANCE —

BRAMPTON

The manufacture of hydraulic aerial platforms sold in 43 countries throughout the world and soon become Brampton's newest industry. Brampton's members of the equipment will be on a two-year site on Davidson Rd. in Brampton.

ERIN

Three business places in Erin and Haliburton were hit by burglars over the holiday weekend. The thieves made off with a vast variety of stolen silverware, cartons of 22 phonograph records, telephones, superstitions, a radio and $100 in cash.

ORANGEVILLE

Fire swept through the home of W. P. Lyle of Lyle's, now known as Christmas meeting along Nanton Avenue. The building was completely demolished and the thousand turkeys doled out among the spectators.

BURLINGTON

A huge new development of stores, offices and apartments on the industrial strip east on Broad St. and Lakeshore Blvd. When completed, the super market portion of the project, now under construction, will be the largest in the city.

NORVAL

Television viewers on New Year's Eve saw a local resident on the Close-Up show telecast over the CBC network.

Rod Coneybear, a Charles St. resident, made his TV debut on a year-end show which salaried aspects of the Canadian year with Pierre Burton as commentator.

Mr. Coneybear, portrayed a maker of old movies for the late show, and in his interview explained the technique of filming "old movies" to fill the demand.

"No worries about wide screen, colour or high salary performers," was his tongue-in-cheek comment. "But we have to use a special attachment on the camera to blur the image somewhat to conform with the tastes of viewers."

Norval Cottage is Destroyed by Fire

The Expressing Fire truck had moon and night. The older boys' second trip to Norval with got lots of healthy exercise in a week when a small cottage burning every day, and now at the home of Harten Land, was back to school for the kids completely destroyed by fire on and the sad job of departmental Evening, December 29th, on the gayly decorated Christ. The Volunteer Firemen were free for Mom and Dad as able to confine the fire to the another year gets underway one small building although the Happy New Year to all.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fishburn on Tuesday, December 26th were Mr. Fishburn's mother, Mrs. C. Fishburn of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Art Meadows, of Caledonia; Miss Adele Starr of Toronto; and Miss Carol Mann of Georgetown.

Miss Joyce McErlane spent the New Year weekend at Prince Edward, Ont.

Congratulations on the opening of the "Riviera" on New Year's Eve. A good crowd enjoyed the "spectacular" floor show followed by dancing and a gay evening of the New Year after midnight.

The Club looked beautiful night with red and green lights, lighting and reflecting the outside of the Japanese style building.

We wish the club continued success in all plans and expectations for the future.

Mrs. Bill Cunningham's grandfather John Graff of Hamilton died on Tuesday, December 26th at the age of 100 years. He celebrated his 100th birthday on December 7th and was quite active up until shortly before his death.

The children have enjoyed the holidays with the weather being excellent for all winter sports. The hills around the village were popular spots for sleighs, toboggans and skis. The ponds were safe for skating and the young folk took full advantage of them, morning and evening.

16 August Holiday

P.O. Staff

Biggest exhale after the Christmas hustle no doubt emitted from the local post office just before the big day itself.

Postmaster Harold Marshall told the Herald this week that the annual Christmas card exchange began to swell on about the 11th of December and the flood of cards and parcels continued until approximately the 23rd.

To the regular staff, Jim Collier, Mrs. Andy Crichton, Blake Inglis, Del. French, Miss Fanny Weaver, Miss Jean Hancock, Gord Hallith, Frank Nicholson, and carriers Jim Williams, Gord Ingles, Jim Bradley, Ed Scott, Ted Quackenbush, Earl Clements, Les Dickenson and Ray Ollivier were added 16 helpers.

The temporary staffers were Mrs. G. Hamilton, Mrs. Ray Harley, Mrs. O. Dunn, Mrs. G. Osborne, Mrs. E. Horan, Mrs. J. J. McCollagh, Mrs. A. Bonney, Miss J. Carter, Miss C. Bonelli, Miss V. Mountstevens, Miss B. Reid, Mrs. M. Raiss, Mrs. H. Townsend, and Mrs. A. McIntosh, Inside, and James Barkley and Charles Ivy on—the routes.
