Sixteen Youngsters Have Memorable Trip to Soo

Win Second Place in Novice Tourney

Georgetown's Novice All-Stars presented the only threat to Soo. Fourteen local boys, who last week donned the mantle of Georgetown's hockey ambassadors to Sault Ste. Marie, were practically unbeatable in the annual Novice tournament at the lake last week. They were topped only by the host city, which has a population of 60,000.

Harold Seckington and Paul Barber who managed and coached the local youngsters were generous in their praise. "They've a real credit to the town," Mr. Seckington told the Herald.

The Georgetown team outlasted all other opposition and at North Channel, Brampton and Soo, Michigan (twice) to win the runner-up spot. They also won the Novice tourney in Soo, Ontario, their first long train trip had a lot to do with their initial loss, a squeaker. Georgetown outlasted them for 2 periods but in their second game in three, the host club shadowed the sixteen youngsters.

On Friday, when the same night the boys and a turkey meal met again in the big banquet hall, the host club shadowed the sixteen youngsters. The boys visited the Abitibi Club and hand-cuffed one of Georgetown's best scoring threats, the Soo and Kitchener Waterbury team covered Beavers, which the Soo team themselves with glory during 32 Paul Barber and himself a series but standouts were will vouch that the boys were ahead, Inglis, Wiles, Tom at all times well mannered and Dreenters, McNally, Davies, left a good name.

Blair in the nets who led only 10 goals in 6 game trip were Jack Kemshead, Ray Inglis, Doug Wiles, Carl Tomlin, eight of the total were seen by the champions, his regulars, Frank Dreenters, John Me...

Luckless Sailors are Downed by Raiders

Spaanshaded by Fraser Dunn's hat trick, Georgetown's Intermediate A Raiders indulged in a little carpet-bombing in Port Credit last Wednesday night and improved their win-loss record to an impressive 9-4.

Missing the last place Sailors for the second time this campaign the Raiders whopped the league doormats 9-0, scoring once in the first period and then bombing the home club with four goals in each of the second and third frames.

It was the Sailors' 13th setback in 14 games.

WALLY MAGDY

Barry Smith, of the goaltending Smiths, chalked up the shutout, and had to be sharp to do it, but if there was such a thing as an assist for white washes, one would have to go to Raider rearguard Wally Magdy who got in the way of almost as many shots as Smith Port Credit's best threats however, a pair of clean cut breakaways, were dashed by the ex-Guelph Billmore goalie.

Dave Irons' marker at 12:21 from Doug Richardson and Wayne Thompson stood up for the rest of the period as Raiders managed a shakey one goal advantage going into the middle stanza.

Fraser Dunn punched in the first of his trio from Demers at 19:30 and 38 seconds had gone by in the second period, and with the game half gone, Doug Richardson completed a three cornered play involving Junior Beaumont and Blake Inglis, when he pulled the Port Credit goalie to the front of his crease and dumped in the Raiders' third counter. Blake Inglis added to the rapidly inflating bulge with a solo effort with a shot from directly in front of the net which found an open corner, and Max Galand needed no assistance on his tally from close in, less than a minute later.

Smith's shutout became more and more the Raider goal in the third session but the red-carbed marksman didn't let up in their shelling of the P.C. cage. Joe Auger fed defenseman Gord Thompson with the pass that resulted in Georgetown's fifth score at the 1:30 mark, and Galand and Demers clicked at the 5 minutes even with Galand on the scoring end.

Then Dunn exploded for his second and third goals to cap the scoring. The first of the pair was a long, low one that fooled the Sailor goalie, at 10:30 and the second was from in close. The puck skipped from Demers to Blake Inglis to 4:50 Dunn, and the ex-Bradford sniper coasted right in goal before triggering the bullet.

Georgetown outshot the port town 51 to 36.
