

Georgetown RAIDER

MOE THE MOVER

LATE COMER to Raider hockey club, Moe Galand, is making his presence felt in a scoring way and is one of the reasons the locals are riding near the top of the COHL. In just 11 games the former members of the 1952 Canadian Olympic hockey team which lost out to the Russians in the finals, has amassed 15 goals (topped only Junior Beaumont), and 14 assists, and is currently tied with Bob Demerise and Blake Inglis in the Raiders' individual scoring race.
