MEMORIANS

EMMERSON — In loving memory of a dear husband and father William Wade Emmerson who passed away December 27th, 1957.
We often think of bygone days,
When we were all together
The family chain is broken now
But memories will live forever
—Loved and remembered by wife Mary Hannah and son Bill

EMMERSON — In loving memory of a dear father William Wade Emmerson who passed away December 27th, 1957
In our hearts your memory lingers
Always tender, fond and true
There is not a day dear father We do not think of you
—Remembered always by daughter Lorraine, son-in-law Stuart and grandchildren

GLEN WILLIAMS

Coloured Lights Made Glen Gay for Holiday

The homes in the village have been most beautifully decorated with colored lights and inside and outside trees. The Hepburn tree on the main street which could be seen all over the village again this year delighted everyone. Driving through the village toward the Tenth Line, across the river ran be seen the Weaver tree, brilliantly lit complete with Santa, reindeer and sleigh, all lit up too. All the village shares in the beauty of these beautiful trees.

St. Alban's Carol service was held Sunday evening, December 17. Despite the bad weather a good number were present to hear the newly-formed junior choir under the leadership of Mr. Crimes with Mrs. R. Williams at the organ. The Rector in his address, connected Advent and the Christmas theme "Let every heart prepare Him room." The lessons were read by W. Korzack, P. Norton, F. Wallace and C. Crimes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Forsythe, Toronto spent Christmas Eve with the McGowans and attended the Candlelight Carol service Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank de Boer of Georgetown spent Christmas day with the Hansdales.

The Schenk family living in the Vicomte gathered for Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Schenk as well as Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Crosby and family from Nassagaweya and Mr. and Mrs. I. Wood and family of Hamilton. Greetings were received by telephone from their daughter Mrs. W. Hughes of Grand Falls, Newfoundland.

Candlelight Carol Service was held Christmas Eve in the United Church. The choir entered singing "O Come all ye Faithful," all carrying a lit candle. The church was lit by candles placed with two Christmas trees at the front. In this atmosphere the lessons were read by Rev. I. Finch, interspersed with carols by the congregation. Miss Nancy Hunter sang as a solo an Old French Carol and Marilyn and Carol Barth sang a duet "The Christ Child." After the sermon the choir led in the recessional "The First Noel." As the choir filed out, down the aisle carrying the light with them each one felt it had been good to be there to enjoy the old old story in such a beautiful setting.

Get well wishes are sent to Mrs. Wayne Everson, who has been hospitalized recently.

Young people who were home for Christmas were:
Pte. Walter Luenberger, stationed at Kingston.
Dennis Babcock from University of Toronto.
Marlene Kemshead, from McMaster University, Hamilton.
Christine Earl from Branksome Hall, Toronto.
Carol Barth from Toronto Western Hospital.
Bill Wheeler from J. R. Robertson Technical School, Guelph.
Tim and Laddie Haines from Appleby College, Oakville.

With Christmas and the New Year past, the next public holiday will be Good Friday.
