

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson Crookola was played, followed by lunch and dancing to records.

Winter is really here! This past weekend is a sample of what we will be getting in the weeks to come. The older folks say as the days get longer, the cold gets stronger, but cheer between Christmas and up everyone. Spring has always the New Year, at the home of course.

Wilson Continues Board Chairman

Name Committees Public Schools

A member of the original public school board, formed in 1950 when the old board of education was dissolved, E. W. Wilson was named chairman of Georgetown Public School Board last Wednesday.

Wilson's eight trustees, two more than in previous years, were sworn into office at the inaugural meeting in Harrison Public School.

Twelve Years

In his twelve years with the board, Mr. Wilson has held the chairman's position eight times from 1953 through 1959, and again from 1960. Only two other members of the present board sat on the board in 1950, Harry Shorthill and Stan Friday, and all three, plus newcomer William Carr, will serve two year terms on the expanded body.

Served single terms are Don Power, John Marten, Roger Wade and Roy Mooney.

Committees

Standing committees were formed as follows with the first name in each case the chairman:

FINANCE - Sunday and Martin

PROPERTIES - Shorthill and Carr

PLANNING - Carr and Mooney

MANAGEMENT - Powers and Wade

The secretaries treasurer and business administrator is James F. Evans. Don Powers, the Management committee chairman, is the fourth trustee with a family current event.

The Rev. J. E. Maxwell, rector of St. John's Church, Stewart was conductor of the funeral service at the Harold C. McLean service at the end of the year was 1960.
