

PLAN THREE PERFORMANCES

The Georgetown Little Theatre Group are again busy rehearsing, this time for the presentation of a comedy entitled 'The Blue Goose.'

Encouraged by the success of their last production, this one will be a three night stand, March 15th, 16th and 17th. Despite the proximity of St. Patrick's day, they don't plan to change the title to the 'Green Goose.'

The story centres around a zany family, each involved in separate activities.

Featured in the cast are Margaret Paul, Paul Baker, Edith Baumgartner, Marie and Bill Barratt, Vera Macdonald, Mike Peleschak, Mary Goebel and Bruce Mackison. Producer is Ron Hill.

BALLINAFAD

Dinner Party For Church Associations

On Tuesday evening of last week the members of the W.A. enjoyed a dinner party in the Church basement when their husbands and families were guests as well as some former members of the group. Mrs. C. McNery, Mrs. Robert McNery and Mrs. F. W. Shortill were presented with gifts as they were charter members of the group and had served faithfully in various offices for over thirty years. Mrs. D. Russell, who was the first president was also honoured and she expressed her thanks in a very fitting reply. A new United Church Women's group is presently being organized which will include all the women associated with the Church and it will be their purpose to carry on all the activities and responsibilities formerly looked after by the three groups known as the Woman's Association, W.M.S., Afternoon and Evening Groups. The Given sisters entertained with their singing and Mrs. J. W. Snow conducted some amusing games in which everyone participated.

The Young People's group of the Ballinafad charge met in the church on Sunday evening for their annual meeting and election of officers for the coming year. Several projects were discussed and an executive was appointed as follows: President, Jim Gilpin; vice president, Delia Linstead; secretaries, Donna Ledger and Joyce Kenward; treasurer, Fred Thompson.

Two boys were invested into the Cub Pack on Wednesday night last week. They were Johnny Snow and Robert Kiar.

The C.G.I.T. held their regular meeting on Monday night.
