BIG PRODUCTION

in all timber...

Out in B.C., where the big trees grow, the Canadian 270 has been developed. There's no nonsense about it... It's a down-to-earth working tool, built to make big production easy! Heart of the Canadian 270 is an engine that's all chain-saw. It gives plenty of power, easy killing, less down-time. And the controls on the 270 are right at your fingertips, for fast response. Maintenance? You can take the whole saw apart and put it back together without special tools. If you want real value for your money, get the Canadian 270.

Bus Service Links Town and Bramalea

A new bus service linking Malton, Bramalea, Brampton, Miltonville, Norval and Georgetown starts on Feb. 5. Operated by the Georgetown Transportation Co. Ltd., the new service is designed primarily to serve both the industrial and residential sections of Bramalea.

The area has a transportation need that must be filled, said Art Scott, owner of the bus company. "The schedule has been designed to coincide with shift hours of industry but there is also adequate service during the day, that will meet the needs of shoppers."

"For the time being the service will operate on Mondays to Fridays only. We realize it does not cover the needs of everyone but we had to start somewhere," Mr. Scott said. "If there is any demand for a six day service it will be introduced later."

One bus will be based at Georgetown and will make three round trips a day. The last trip will leave Georgetown at 11 p.m., arriving at Malton at 11:50 p.m. It then returns to Georgetown, arriving at 1:20 a.m.

While refreshments of tea, coffee and sandwiches were being enjoyed, Mrs. Butt and the singers mingled with the residents and a very enjoyable social time was spent by the residents in becoming acquainted with these singers and their charming and expert accompaniment.

Mrs. S. Allen and several volunteers from the Ladies' Auxiliaries served the refreshments and their kindness and help in this respect were greatly appreciated.

Successful Year Is Norval Church Report

Following a dinner in the Sunday School, the Norval Presbyterian congregation held their annual meeting on January 18th. A good turnout on hand for the business meeting, which was opened by the Rev. Duncanson with a passage of Scripture followed by prayer.

The session reported nine baptisms during the year. Those removed from the roll by death were Miss Elizabeth Clark, Mr. Elmer Patterson, Miss Mac McClure and Mr. Frank Fendley.

The congregation was pleased with the joint summer services and wishes to continue them this year.

During the past year there has been considerable remodeling and redecorating done at the manse.

The following five new managers were appointed: Fred Lindner, Craig Reid, Wilmer Little, Robert Crawford and Clarence Archuleta. Meeting closed with Rev. Duncanson pronouncing the benediction.

got a hard-to-heat room? building a rec' room? work shop? attic room?

MAKE YOUR HOME COMPLETE WITH ELECTRIC HEAT

ECONOMICAL INSTALLATION

With flameless electric heating units, you don't have to extend or strain your present heating system. No duct work or expensive structural changes are required to provide maximum heating comfort in the added living space you're planning, because electric heating units operate entirely independently. Your qualified electric heating contractor can install them anywhere, at any time, quickly and inexpensively.

CAREFREE COMFORT

Flameless electric heating units provide the ultimate in heating comfort. With an individual thermostat in each electrically-heated room, you control both comfort and cost. Just set the exact heat you want, when you want it... turn it down when the room is not in use. Heat is provided almost instantly... no need to wait for heat to build up in a central system. Electric heat is as clean as light, produces no dust, no fumes, no products of combustion. The air is more healthful and drapes, rugs, walls stay clean longer.

LOOK AT THESE ADVANTAGES

With flameless electric heat no heat is wasted up a chimney. With individual thermostats there's no need to overheat the whole house to make one room comfortable. Weather and wind direction won't affect your comfort. It's the ideal answer for hard-to-heat areas in your present home... that cold bedroom, a draughty bathroom. Electric heating units can be installed anywhere, anytime, quickly, easily and inexpensively in a size and capacity exactly suited to your particular need.

SAVE MAN'S LIFE

THREE MEN, well known locally have been credited with saving the life of a fellow Ontario Hydro worker. By their quick action and knowledge of resuscitation the trio saved the life of construction worker, Pasquale Fianza, after an unusual electrical accident. The first Hydro lineman to apply manual resuscitation was Ben Simpson, who was honoured for his part by the Canadian Electric Association when he was presented with the association's medal and certificate at a dinner meeting January 24th. Mr. Simpson is shown at left with Al Campbell, centre, and Don Newman, right, both of whom received honourable mention.

Bingo, Movies Brighten Halton Manor January

By Muriel Thompson

was one of a series being presented by the Oakville Kiwanis since Sunday, December 31st until the 8th Sunday of the month, the service in the Chapel was conducted by the Christian Men's Committee of Oakville. Mr. John Reimer was in charge of the service, Mrs. John Nicol was the organist and Harold Routledge led the singing. Mr. Routledge sang two enjoyable solos, "I Know Who Holds Tomorrow" and "Loved with Everlasting Love". The Scripture lesson, read by Mr. Reimer, was part of Chapter 1 of St. John's Gospel. Mr. Reimer delivered an earnest sermon on verse 2 of the above chapter. He impressed upon his listeners the fact that Jesus came to earth to save sinners and that God does not condemn us but rather calls us to go forward upon the way of life.

Mr. Jake Olfert offered the concluding prayer.

Suprise Treat

At supper-time on this same Sunday the residents found a treat of candy on every table in the various dining rooms of the Manor. The candy was a donation from the Angela Bruce Chapter of the I.O.O.F. which is the Oakville Chapter. The candy had been placed in the special sea-shell dishes donated by the Chapter some time ago. Mrs. Eric Smith of Oakville brought the candy.

The service in the Chapel Sunday afternoon, January 7th, featured the spirited singing of several familiar hymns and three musical numbers by thirteen little girls. The little girls were members of the Junior Choir of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Milton and they had come with their pastor, Mr. Clayton Cole, and their organist and choir leader, Mr. R. Brock to sing for the residents.

Deluge

After reading part of Chapter I of the Epistle of James, beginning with verse 12, Mr. Colas delivered an impressive sermon on the general topic of a Sin and Temptation. It is all ways of special interest to the residents to hear Mr. Colas illustrate his sermon with references to his boyhood in South Africa and on this occasion he described the sudden deluge of water that used to fill the dihed-up river channels near his home after a storm. He compared the deluge of Sin and Temptation to this deluge of water.

At various stages in the service the little girls sang three very appealing choral numbers, "We Would See Jesus," "I Am So Glad" and "Singing Glory". Their singing was a delight and an inspiration to the congregation.

Three adults, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robbins and Mr. Norman Hare were present also.

In addition to playing the organ and directing the girls' choir, Mr. Brock offered an eloquent prayer. He also played Handel's "Largo" as a postlude after the service.

Kiwanis

On Monday evening, January 5th, the Kiwanis Club of Oakville sent a bus to the Manor to take a group of men and women residents to the Catholic Centre auditorium at 8:30 p.m. to see the coloured motion picture travelogue "Around the World by Sea-Going Jeep." The residents enjoyed this film with its fascinating story and lovely coloured photography very much. The film

Handle Bars

Ornamented with large hand- le-bar mustaches, four gentlemen formed a quartet in order to present several barber-shop melodies. These gentlemen were S. Bagnell, H. McGill, G. Wilson and F. Woodham. They sang several favourite ballads such as "Daisy" and "Little Annie Rooney" and then led the audience in a singing of more ballads and folk songs, among them the very appropriate song "The More We Get Together." The programmes ended with the singing by the Glee Club of the song "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

While refreshments of tea, coffee and sandwiches were being enjoyed, Mrs. Butt and the singers mingled with the residents and a very enjoyable social time was spent by the residents in becoming acquainted with these singers and their charming and expert accompaniment.

Mrs. S. Allen and several volunteers from the Ladies' Auxiliaries served the refreshments and their kindness and help in this respect were greatly appreciated.

Resolutions

Rev. J. K. L. McGown, minister of Knox Presbyterian Church in Milton, conducted the church service on Sunday afternoon, January 14th. He was assisted by Mrs. S. Lockie who played the organ and Miss Elsie Jagt who sang a very appealing solo, "Dear Little Stranger."

Mr. McGown read Psalms 121 and then chose verse 7 of Chapter 7 of Micah as the text of a very interesting and timely sermon. He pointed out that this text from Micah falls into three parts, each of which contains a Resolution of Patience, and a Resolution of Communion with God.

Hobby Class

A very pleasant "Get Acquainted Meeting" was attended by nearly thirty men and women residents on Wednesday afternoon, January 17th. The meeting, which was held in the auditorium, had as its purpose the bringing together of the ladies who make up the Handicraft Committee in the new Halton Manor Ladies' Auxiliary.

The residents who enjoyed handicrafts, Mrs. S. Allen, the president of the Auxiliary, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Allen introduced the members of the Handicraft Committee who were able to be present. They were the convener, Mrs. M. Gunby, the co-convener, Mrs. John Ridgeway, Mrs. Cliff Hill, Mrs. J. Adam and K. Teasel.

Coffee, tea and doughnuts were served and this social hour was spent in discussing the handicrafts best suited to individual residents.

During a brief business period at the end of the meeting, a sum of money which was part of the old-Hobby Class funds was voted upon to be used for the purchase of dishes, a kettle and other items needed in the auditorium kitchen.

Bingo

An eagerly anticipated bingo was held in the auditorium on Thursday night, January 18th, when a number of the Civi- nettes of Oakville paid a very welcome return visit to the Manor. Some ladies of this organization had conducted a delightful bingo at the Manor last fall and this second one proved to be equally enjoyable. Mrs. C. Partridge who is the president of the Civinettes and who also acted as convener, was present at the bingo, as were Mrs. E. R. Turnbull, Mrs. G. Bruce, Mrs. Stan Allsup, Mrs. W. Carmichael, Mrs. G. Coombs and Mr. R. Murdoch. The Civinettes are the feminine counterpart of the Oakville Civitan Club and several gentlemen who belong to the Civitan Club were also present. They were the Civitan president Mr. E. R. Turnbull, and Messrs. G. Bruce and S. Allsup. Mr. Bruce called the numbers in the witty and capable fashion, as he had done at the first bingo last fall.

Twelve games were played, the last one being for a full card. A special prize, a hair brush, was given for the last game and it was won by Mrs. E. Flatsman. Mrs. Flatsman had won another prize for one of the regular games. Mrs. L. Player won two prizes also. One prize was won by each of the following: Mrs. M. Smythe, Mrs. W. Mathias, Mrs. L. Brown, Mrs. L. Everdell, Mrs. A. Cunniff, Mrs. A. Reid, Miss B. Richardson, and James Bagley and Frank Vatak. All the prizes were donated by the Civinettes.

An Oakville firm, Stoddart Drugs sent a tiny sample bottle of lovely perfume for each woman resident.

The Oakville ladies served cookies, which they had donated and tea and coffee as a delicious lunch, and David Martin, in charge of the refreshment hour.

It was indeed good news to hear that the Civinettes intend to come again soon to conduct another bingo, for the one just described had been greatly enjoyed.
