MEMORIALS

DITCHFIELD — In loving memory of Richard Ditchfield who passed away January 30th, 1961.
 The blow was great, the shock severe.
 We little thought the end was near.
 And only those who have lost can tell
 The pain of parting without farewell.
 More each day we miss you father,
 Friends may think the wound is healed,
 But they little know the sorrow
 That lies within our hearts concealed.
 — Sadly missed and fondly remembered by daughter Elsie and son-in-law Albert Kenahaw.

MEMORIALS

 We mourn for him in silence,
 No eyes can see us weep,
 But many a silent tear is shed
 While others are asleep.
 — Remembered by Edith, Ernie and Bobby Alcott.

MEMORIALS

HARLOW — In memory of Jack Harlow who died February 1st, 1962.
 — Always remembered by brother Tom, Peg and children.

HARLOW — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Jack Harlow, who passed away February 7th, 1960.
 Remembrance is a golden chain
 Death tries to break, but all in vain;
 To have, to love, and then to part,

 The years may wipe out many things,
 But this they wipe out never—
 The memory of those happy days
 When we were all together.
 — Always remembered by wife Margaret and children.

Dies Month After Mill Retirement

Scarcely a month after retiring on pension from Provincial Paper, Ltd., death came suddenly to Floyd Varey, 66, on February 1st.

Mr. Varey collapsed and died following a heart attack at his home, 28 John Street West. He had returned shortly before from inspecting his trapping lines — a hobby, with fishing, which filled his spare time leisurely.

Played Hockey
 A first war veteran, Mr. Varey was one of the stalwarts of intermediate hockey teams in his day. Like his son Bud, who plays with today's Raiders, he was a wingman.

He was a first war veteran, serving overseas with the 164th Battalion, later transferring to the 31st Battalion. He was wounded while serving in France.
