

THEY PLAY IT — CHESS FOR FUN

OTHER THAN IN the high school Georgetown's 'chess nuts' are becoming as rare as a good TV program. Once organized as Georgetown Chess Club the members now get together only occasionally for the fun of it. Some of the ardent enthusiasts even make a weekly trip to Brampton to play there. Captured in this picture are four of the scarce Night Blooming Check-Mates, Dick Mayberry, of 63 Delrex Blvd., Don Parker, 39 Shelley St., E. Dennis, 75 Norton Crest, and H. Bryant, 73 Norton Crest.

LEGION NOTES

by Andy A. St. Laurent

There will be a general meeting on Feb. 22nd and all members are kindly urged to attend as our entertainment chairman Ralph Hawes certainly has gone out of his way to try and make these meetings more colourful and enjoyable.

If you remember last week, Ralph said he would have a surprise for us for that particular evening, well here is a preview of it. There will be three short running films shown.

CAR RACING FANS
Come and see the fabulous Sterling Moss in action during the running of the U.S. endurance race.

ATTENTION DUFFERERS!
Those of you who prefer to go out on the golf links and bat a little white ball around, (a 150 strokes or so) hey, Gob! The Seagram's Gold Cup tournament will be shown where you'll see Pat Fletcher, professional at Royal Montreal Golf Club win this championship.

FOR THE YOUNG
Fishermen, we have a must for you, set in the scenic beauty of the Canadian north woods country that will make you wish summer was here so you could pick up your rod and reel and join in.

These three fine films are all in technical and something everyone should see.

Also added to the program will be our good friend, Sam Yanaky, owner of the 'Corner Cupboard' restaurant on Main St. Sam has come forward and said he will take over the duties of chef cook, and bottle waiter, relieving our regular cooks who usually look after us so willingly. Sam will do a solo job as it is all quite 'Confidential and Top Secret.'

Sam's stew will be the featured main dish and from what I hear, you've never had a good stew until you've tasted Sam's. Unfortunately the recipe is a trade secret and Sam absolutely refuses to divulge any information about this famous stew, thus the reason why he'll go it alone!

So folks, that's it. Doesn't it sound like a wonderful evening. Well, I guarantee you that it will be, so let's all be there on Feb. 22nd and show our appreciation.

Results of 80-50 draw Feb. 10, 1962; Lucky winner, Bud Ticket seller, Perc Dillon.

Mrs. Gordon Lee, with Mrs. Hughes Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of Burlington, motored to Florida for a two week vacation.

Prize drove the tractor for the evening. The sleigh riders returned to the church hall where they enjoyed scenic slides of Alaska and several sound home pictures shown by Bertha Greston and Arthur Housheld.

Home baked beans, bread and hot chocolate was served for lunch by Elva Howden and Ruth Housheld.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beenes and Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Rowan were chaperones for the Teen Club dance on Saturday night. The Miltonaires supplied the music. A first contest was held and Ervin Ouwendyke and his partner won the prize.

Chips and date loaf were served for lunch.

NOTICE
