Georgetown Wins 12-9
In High Scoring Duel

The battle of the Barrys, Smith and Bailly, respectively of the two for the Raiders and Milton Merchants developed into a wholesale bombing in the county town Sunday.

The bitter rivalry, which at times approaches the vicious point, between Milton and Georgetown, was epitomized in this one, a strictly offensive session in which the locals punched 6 third period goals behind Bailey to quiet a noisy Milton crowd 12 to 9.

The win added points 5 and 4 of a profitable week which started with a 4 point win over Guelph here Friday.

But by comparison the Guelph game was a practice.

Some 600 customers, a large helping from here, passed the turnstiles to see Milton's baptism into Sunday commercial sport, and the numbers were boosted considerably by the probability of a cat and dog type of tangle. In that respect Milton fans weren't disappointed.

Raiders fired two goals before the game was three minutes old and opened a 3-2 edge at the end of the first round. Milton rode into the final period on an 8-6 cushion.

The explosives weren't all registered on the score sheet.

School Curlers to Enter Junior CWOSSA

Georgetown will enter one boys' rink and one girls' rink in the Junior CWOSSA bonspiel scheduled for the North Halton Curling Club on Saturday.

Because of the number of entrants in the popular sport, there will probably be two draws with each game lasting six ends. One draw will be entirely for the boys and the other for girls.

This year—the high school junior curlers have started with a majority of newcomers. Their first set of games is over, but at a recent meeting the executive decided to run through the schedule again. Now that the teams are more experienced and used to curling together, they hope to make a better showing for themselves.

Attendance this year has been exceptional. A fee of $2.00 was charged for a trophy and prizes on completion of the schedule and according to one member of the executive, good humour and team spirit this year have been outstanding.

Here are the team standings by skips as of Feb. 5th:

Ross Blairstow 50 54

Dave McNally 50 54

Harry Matthews 45 45

Ian McLaren 45 45

Gail Malcolm 34

Gary McAra 33 33

Max Harris 20 22

JOE AUGER

Bill Hezlett, Milton defenseman Ed Hackett, blazed Raider Dave Erons and got the slash back with interest, in front of the Milton net in the second period. Milton fans, who have an affinity for throwing paper on the ice, cheered loudly when Irons slipped on a wrapper and crashed into the corner boards. He was out for the rest of the game with a twisted knee.

Gord Thompson drew a game misanthropist for first delaying a penalty shot awarded green-shirt Larry Shuker and then converting his stick into tooth picks over the penalty box door. At 10:40 of the second frame Junior Beaudoin rapped the sweater off Vic Roster after Victor tapped the Beaudoin cranium with his stick, and though nothing developed, Doug Richardson and Jackie Price annoyed each other throughout the contest.

Both clubs had their stick-

In the hockey league operated by the Georgetown Christian Reformed Church, Smith and Stone beat Georgetown Captels 10-5 Thursday and on Saturday Georgetown Comets downed Guelph YPS 7-1.

Elmer Fendley scored three times to lead the scorers for Smith and Stone, and Peter Meyer notched four goals in pacing Georgetown to their win over Guelph.

Milk Shippers Gather Here For Bonspiel

The Toronto Milk Producers Association held their annual bonspiel at the North Halton Golf & Country Club last Friday. These are the men who ship milk to the Toronto dairies. The bonspiel was conducted by J. W. Pauley of the head office staff. The winner of the challenge trophy, supplied by the Babson Co. of Toronto, was the rink skipped by Ern Curry, of the local club with Bert Weeks, Hillsburgh, John Armstrong of Brampton and Len McAnish, Guelph, on the front end. These were all suppliers from District 12 of the producers.

Two game winners in the 9 o'clock draw was a local rink skipped by Wray Bessey with Vern Archer, Wm. Hunter and Tom McGee on the front end. They were the winners of the travelling clocks. One game winners were the team skipped by J. W. Pauley with H. Cooper, F. Todd and W. McCordquodale. They were all from the head office staff and were the winners of the footstools.

In the 11 o'clock draw the three game winners were Bob Green, Lambert Wilson, Clarence Noble and Bill Lalson. They, like the Curry rink, won the sport shirts.

Two game winners were Sberwin Moore, Paul Bryan, R. J. Smith and Lloyd Lillian.

Of course all rinks that curled were winners, because there were prizes for everyone and a package of milk filters was presented to all taking part in the spiel.

Rinks took part in the spiel from Lindsay, Hastings, Port Perry, Woodstock, Norwich, Club for this, their annual spiel.

CURLING CHATTER

Bob MacArthur from the

North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

The recent distribution of the Ontario Curling Association annual to club members provided a wealth of information to the curlers. It lists all the names of the affiliated clubs and their members. Many an hour has been spent going over this volume.

Here is a poem from the annual that sure calls the turn:

THE PERFECT SKIP

There are curling things done at the curling club. By skips who know their stuff. They play the shots that should never be played. Just to make the grand game tough.

They ask for a raise or a wick and roll.

When the thing to do is to draw. They lie one shot and call for a guard.

When the second should be a law. Yet there are skips who never can err.

They come in a specialized class. They play all the shots that should be played; They're the skips behind the glass.

—W. J. R. Bennett, Woodstock

Curlers and friends of that hardy farmer-quarryman, Ben McLaugh, were pleased to see that he has recovered sufficiently from his steer dogging episode to visit the club and help with the behind the glass skipping.

Pitty the poor farmers—On checking the parking lot on Friday, while the Toronto Milk Producers were curling, the cars they were driving compared very favorably with any group of cars assembled in the parking lots. But then they deserve the best, for who works longer hours or harder with no holidays than the farmers. One contestant, from this district, had to get up at 4:30 to do his chores before he could come to the rink for the bonspiel.

Glad to report that the popular Juss Kelly has undergone his operation and is making favorable progress and will soon be back on his feet. At the week-end he was still in hospital, but it is expected that he will be able to return home soon.
