$4.00 per year; Single Copy Price: Yes Can

E 14.

-- Peter Jones, Georgetown

ANOTHER $1,000 TO MARCH OF DIMES

KINSMEN PRESIDENT Jack Spence hands over a cheque for $1,000 to John Myers of Toronto who accepted it Monday night on behalf of the March of Dinies. The cheque represents the funds raised in a recent door to door canvass.

THREATENS RESIGNATION

Won't Pass Accounts Till Checked: Harrison

What is usually a quiet period at a town council meeting! "Carbon copies blew into a storm on Monday when road chairman fred which I can't read." answered Harrison relused to okey any of the read accounts on the Cr. Harrison payment agenda.

The meeting was the first at which a new account pass-Ing procedure was being used. This year it has been de i ded to supply each committee chairman with a falter of "purchase orders and accounts a week before the minimit I was available all day Saturday." Accounts are not reviewed at the meeting but are passed if and Sunday and couldn't get to-10tal by motion.

here and I ran across a couple too," he threatened "S me of to do?" but I won't," said Cr. Harrison, right, but I want a meeting to who claimed he had been unable to discuss them with the discuss them "

He then asked for a special cil was not questioning the of committee meeting rather than herency of the road chairman. reviewing them in open coun-

"If you have no confidence thate order copies last week?"

In me as chairman I'll resign as he asked.

Reminded by the mayor that he had a week to review them,

Cr. Harrison replied: "I can't live on the $20.00 a week we voted ourselves as councillors. gether with the work superinthat look ridiculous. If council these accounts don't make sen. Mayer Sargent said the town take a stand on the matter. wants to authorize them, okey, se. I'm not saying they're not staff had wirked on Saturday. themselves available on Sunday, council, works superintendent during Trying to sooth ruffled feel. "I don't know what happened, ings. Mayor Sargent said count but we can't expect our staff. to give up their Sundays for enecking accounts," he said. "Ur Cock is next on the road "Didn't you receive your purcommittee. If he wants to okay the accounts he can," replied

> Ce Harrison. Deputy Recyc Hunter entered. the discussion here, saving that for a week.

that's your misfortune and you he said. should have another committeeman check accounts," he said. "That's the paint I' tried to quite right to check an account upset." estening to write out his resign the union.

nation, Mayor Sargent said; councillors should have faith in the town staff too. "I'm not saying the accounts are wrong or right, only that I want a meeting to discuss them" replied Cr. Harrison. "If a meeting will clear up the - matter, all right, but think we are getting alarmed about nothing," said the Mayor. "$6,000 in accounts is noth-

members agreed to a Saturday afternoon committee meeting. | ment were not opened at the urer Russell Stephens told coun- review these at a committee cil that failing to pass the road meeting on Saturday. accounts would mean none of he night's bills could be paid other departments. With Cr. Brown suggesting that the accounts he passed, and if errors were found they would give no advice. Mayor could be rectified by charge Sargent said the matter would the association, he said. Bernice Gowland, ATCM.

MUSIC EXAMS

Wants Esquesing Share Arena Operations Cost

Okay $1500 Allowance May Establish

Formation of the 1962 Georgetown Industrial Commis sion is expected within the next tew weeks after a conjusion of ideas which finally resulted in the town council askingi the Chamber of Commerce to guide industrial destinies this

Recently, council decided on an 11-man commission, with four Chamber members, one Jaycee, four men from the town at large and three councillors, the mayor, reeve.

Discretion Chamber of Commerce directors, at a meeting last week, said they would take on the job with two stipulations --$1500 fund grant and that the number of appointments be subject to Chamber discretion Disgussing this at council meeting Monday, a council ma jority felt this a good plan, al though there was some confus ion about the Chambers in

and deputy.

Mayor Sargent said he had talked to the Chamber presid ent and told him he thought council would have no object tion to adding more than elev en men to the group

No Objection

want to be told they had to Sargent.

appoint any certain councillors Cr Fred Harrison thought before further action is taken that the Chamber should clarify its position

Reeve Elliott wondered ab out the legably of a Commission which would not have confirmation by a council mot

Crs Cock and McNeilly mo ved that the Coumber administer the Commission as it sees! fit, subject to council having three representatives and with, a $1500 grant guaranteed.

Recorded Vote The motion was favoured by every councillor except. Cr. Harrison, who asked a record led vote and opposed the mot

Deputy Reeve Hunter, a C. The deputy reeve, while vot of C member, said he had atten ing for the motion, expressed ded the directors' meeting and concern that more than an 11 it is his impression that the man board would be unwields Chamber, if it forms a Commis "We've asked the Chamber sion, wants a full say in all to do a job and I am confident: board appointments. While he they won't hamper Commission felt there was no objection to activities. To the contrary they the council appointments, he are a group interested in Georthought the Chamber did not getown's luture," said Mayor

No Stand

Town Action on Union

But Council Says It's County Matter

Strongly protesting county council action which it claims denies employees the right to join a union of their choice, "I have $6500 In accounts chairman and from council lendent. What am I supposed Oakville and District Labour Council, in a letter read at Monday's town council meeting, asked Georgetown council to

The Labour Council says the union in question is not a but that the superintendent and member of their group but is recognized by the Labour Reladeputy. Treasurer, had made nons Act and should have similar recognition by the county

Reeve John Elliott said he had not been present at the last council meeting but understood self under a section of the lab that employees had been given our act which precludes a untwo opportunities to join the ion, but does allow a delegation 28th. union and had rejected it both type, of representation,

"Now I understand that the county employees will have a chairmen had had their folders delegation to represent them tion. similar to the one which Hal-"If you're away somewhere ton Manor employees have"

Mayor Sargent explained that the matter had started a year ago when he was a counmake," said the mayor. "It's ty council member. The works staff had asked for union cerif there is doubt, but I don't tification, but later opposed like to see our whole procedure this. A vote had been taken by the Labour Relations Board With Cr. Harrison again thr. which confirmed opposition to

A contract for excavating and backfilling for 500 feet f watermain on Armstrong Ave. was awarded Monday to Lyn-Dale Contracting. company's tender of $285 was the lowest of three submitted.

ing?" replied Cr. Harrison asi . Tenders asked for supply of a variety of rental equip-At this point, Deputy Treas- meeting, council deciding to A request to the Labour Relations board for a rulas road accounts interlaced into ing on a disputed back salary payment claimed by Robert Letts was turned back to council when the board answered it backs, Cr. Harrison agreed and be reconsidered in committee.

· Cr. Rex Cock, who is industrial, and town planning Curol, daughter of Mr. and chairman, reported briefly on a Militia Unit Major G. V. Glemfeldt, C.

Company, the Lorne Scots, are underway to establish a company of the Lorne Scots in Streetsville Preliminary with the Council on the pas sible use of the old High School as an armoury and a recent inspection of the property has been carried out meets to establish suitability

He stressed that a great deat has yet to be done in accking army headquarters approval but that he would like to see a unit in Streets ville trained in national disaster aid techniques

is located in Georgetown

Family Party Honours tribute a share of expenses Mr. Saxe on Birthday

Mr and Mrs Percy Save and sons Stewart and Robert were in Toronto on Saturday to attend a birthday celebration for Mr Morris Saxe.

family dinner took place at spent. the home of his daughter Mrs. M. Fleischman. Alsa her husband, and family this year a protective barrier produce some of the arena rev-His daughter, Mrs. Fichman of New-Yarle City was unable to attend, but phoned her good wishes during the day.

Miss Ethel Bridger had baked an attractive birthday cake for the occasion. Mr. Saxe operated the Georgetown Creamery in town for many years. He has made his home in the city since re-

POST OFFICE TENDERS CALLED

tiring a few years ago

The federal governmest has called for tenders for construct Building here, which will house post office and custom facili-

Now the county has put it will be received by the Dept. in Brampton on Monday.

matter to county council and of Maple Ave. and Guelph St. in the Corner Cupboard Halt, vited to attend the Llons meetto take no stand on the ques which was purchased by the Six finalists vied for the hon-ing. government last fail.

Harrison Thinks Town Tax Share Too Heavy

A routine request on Monday for allocation of one mill in taxes to the Board of Parks was delayed pending a which operates the municipal arena.

Cr. fred Harrison asked that the administration commitdiscussions have taken place the consider the request before council makes its decision. He claimed that when a plebiscite vote several years ago had favoured the one mill grant at that time amounted to about $3,200. In 1961 one mill equalled $14,000. "The board of parks was or- Cr Jim Brown, who has been by the Royal Canadian Eng. ilpinally set up to take advantiproposing building of a second tage of a $5,000 government arena in the eastern part of grant, but this only lasted a town is worried that passing a year and we haven't been get- one mill grant now might inter-ting any government help since fere with this idea. then" he said. "We still have "The board has been very the tame building and we seem cooperative in discussing an to run short of hours because extension of activities to cover of the large number of people my portion of town and I Lorne Scots 'C' Company , using the facilities."

arena is used by a large num | now," he said. ber of Esquesing residents and that the township should con seems for the whole town," also present a budget of its require. As for Esquesing sharing ments and tell council how the costs, the mayor said there is money is to be spent. tion calls for the board to sub the township contributes to the friends Mr. and Mrs. M. Fich- is planned to avoid damage to enue? They aren't all from a neighbouring house such as town" answered the mayor. occurred recently in a snowfloor under the main ice surface is also being considered with a view to making the are-wouldn't want them to be ham-Cr. Harrison feels that the strung by passing this grant

The former Georgetown mit its financial requirements town in many ways" he added. businessman was marking his but does not require an esti- "Do you mean by that, that $3rd birthday that day and a mate of how money is to be if I buy a loaf of bread in a Coment Floor Cr. Don Barrager said he son.

The board administers the served Mayer Sargent. "Any Finance chairman Bob Mc building program would cortain Neilly thinks the hoard should by have to be by debanture."

some justification for consider-Mayor Sargent said legisla ing this - "but don't forget town store I am entitled to use the arena?" asked Cr. Harripresent was another daught had been talking to a parks "How about some of the playter Mrs. Sam Ginsburg and | board member who said that ers on our hockey teams which > Mayor Sargant's suggestion slide off the roof. A cement that a joint meeting might close up some misunderstandings ou both sides found favour with na useful other than in the win. councillors and such a meeting will be arranged.

Choose

Represent Lions In

ing the proposed new Federal Brampton On Monday and Douglas Latimer.

An ad in this Issue of the the Georgetown Lions in the The speakers taking part in Herald inviting bids states they Sub-Zone public speaking finals the final were selected through our and were judged by a panel (Continued on Back Page)

|comprising Park Public School Principal, Harold Catling, and local lawyers Tom Van Siekler

Runners up were Pat Four-Yolanda Goudeketting and nier, Mike Baker, Jean Kovaca. Marty Wheeler will represent and Kathy Aspden.

en elimination public speaking of Public Works until March. The high school pair were centest which has been going judged top speakers in a local on at the high school since The building will be con-final held Tuesday night at the early January. . Parents and Council decided to leave the structed on land at the corner regular meeting of the Lions friends of the speakers were in

- Peter Jones, Georgetown

Georgetown Junior Chamber of Commerce which was one recent Conservatory of Music been requested by that group. WEEKEND SNOW FALLS which caused chaos for motorists brought literally heaps of fun for local youngsters who had year old recently. The Jaycees were chartered in the Legion examinations. She is a pupils of Further talks are planned with a ball in the precipitation. Digging in a snow bank on Delrex Blvd. Mitchell and Anthony Zamojc of McGilvray Cresc., came across one of the hundreds of cars stranded by! the blizzard. They weren't allowed to take it home.

- Peter Jones, Georgetown the discussion ended.

IT IS NOT THE biggest birthday cake in the world, but It Mrs. Jack Lawson, R.R. 4. committee meeting with represserves the purpose for Junior Chamber of Commerce Presi- Acton, passed her Grade 6 piano entatives of North Halton Builddent Mike Armstrong, symbolizing all local members of the exams and Grade 1 theory in ers Association, which had

Hall a year ago.