

KID HOCKEY

Bennett, one, Hill, one, and Andrews, an assist, for the losers.

For the losers it was Harris (1-1), Cunningham (1-0), Fendley (1-0) and Andrews (0-1).

Goal getters were Fendley, two goals, with Foster and McBrayde getting assists for St. Kite, and Phillips and Rutledge scoring for Peter.

Buffalo after winning a bye into the semi-finals showed that they did not sit still and get rusty as they fought hard and held Hershey to a two-one win. Scoring for Hershey was Hall (1-1), Lewis (1-0), Knwright (0-1). For Buffalo it was Little from Carter. Providence proved getting up at six a.m. and playing a game before breakfast and back for a noon hour game with Pittsburgh was what they needed as they won 4-0. Scorers were Hart (2-0), Nagorsan (1-0), Clarke (1-0), Dreniers (0-1).

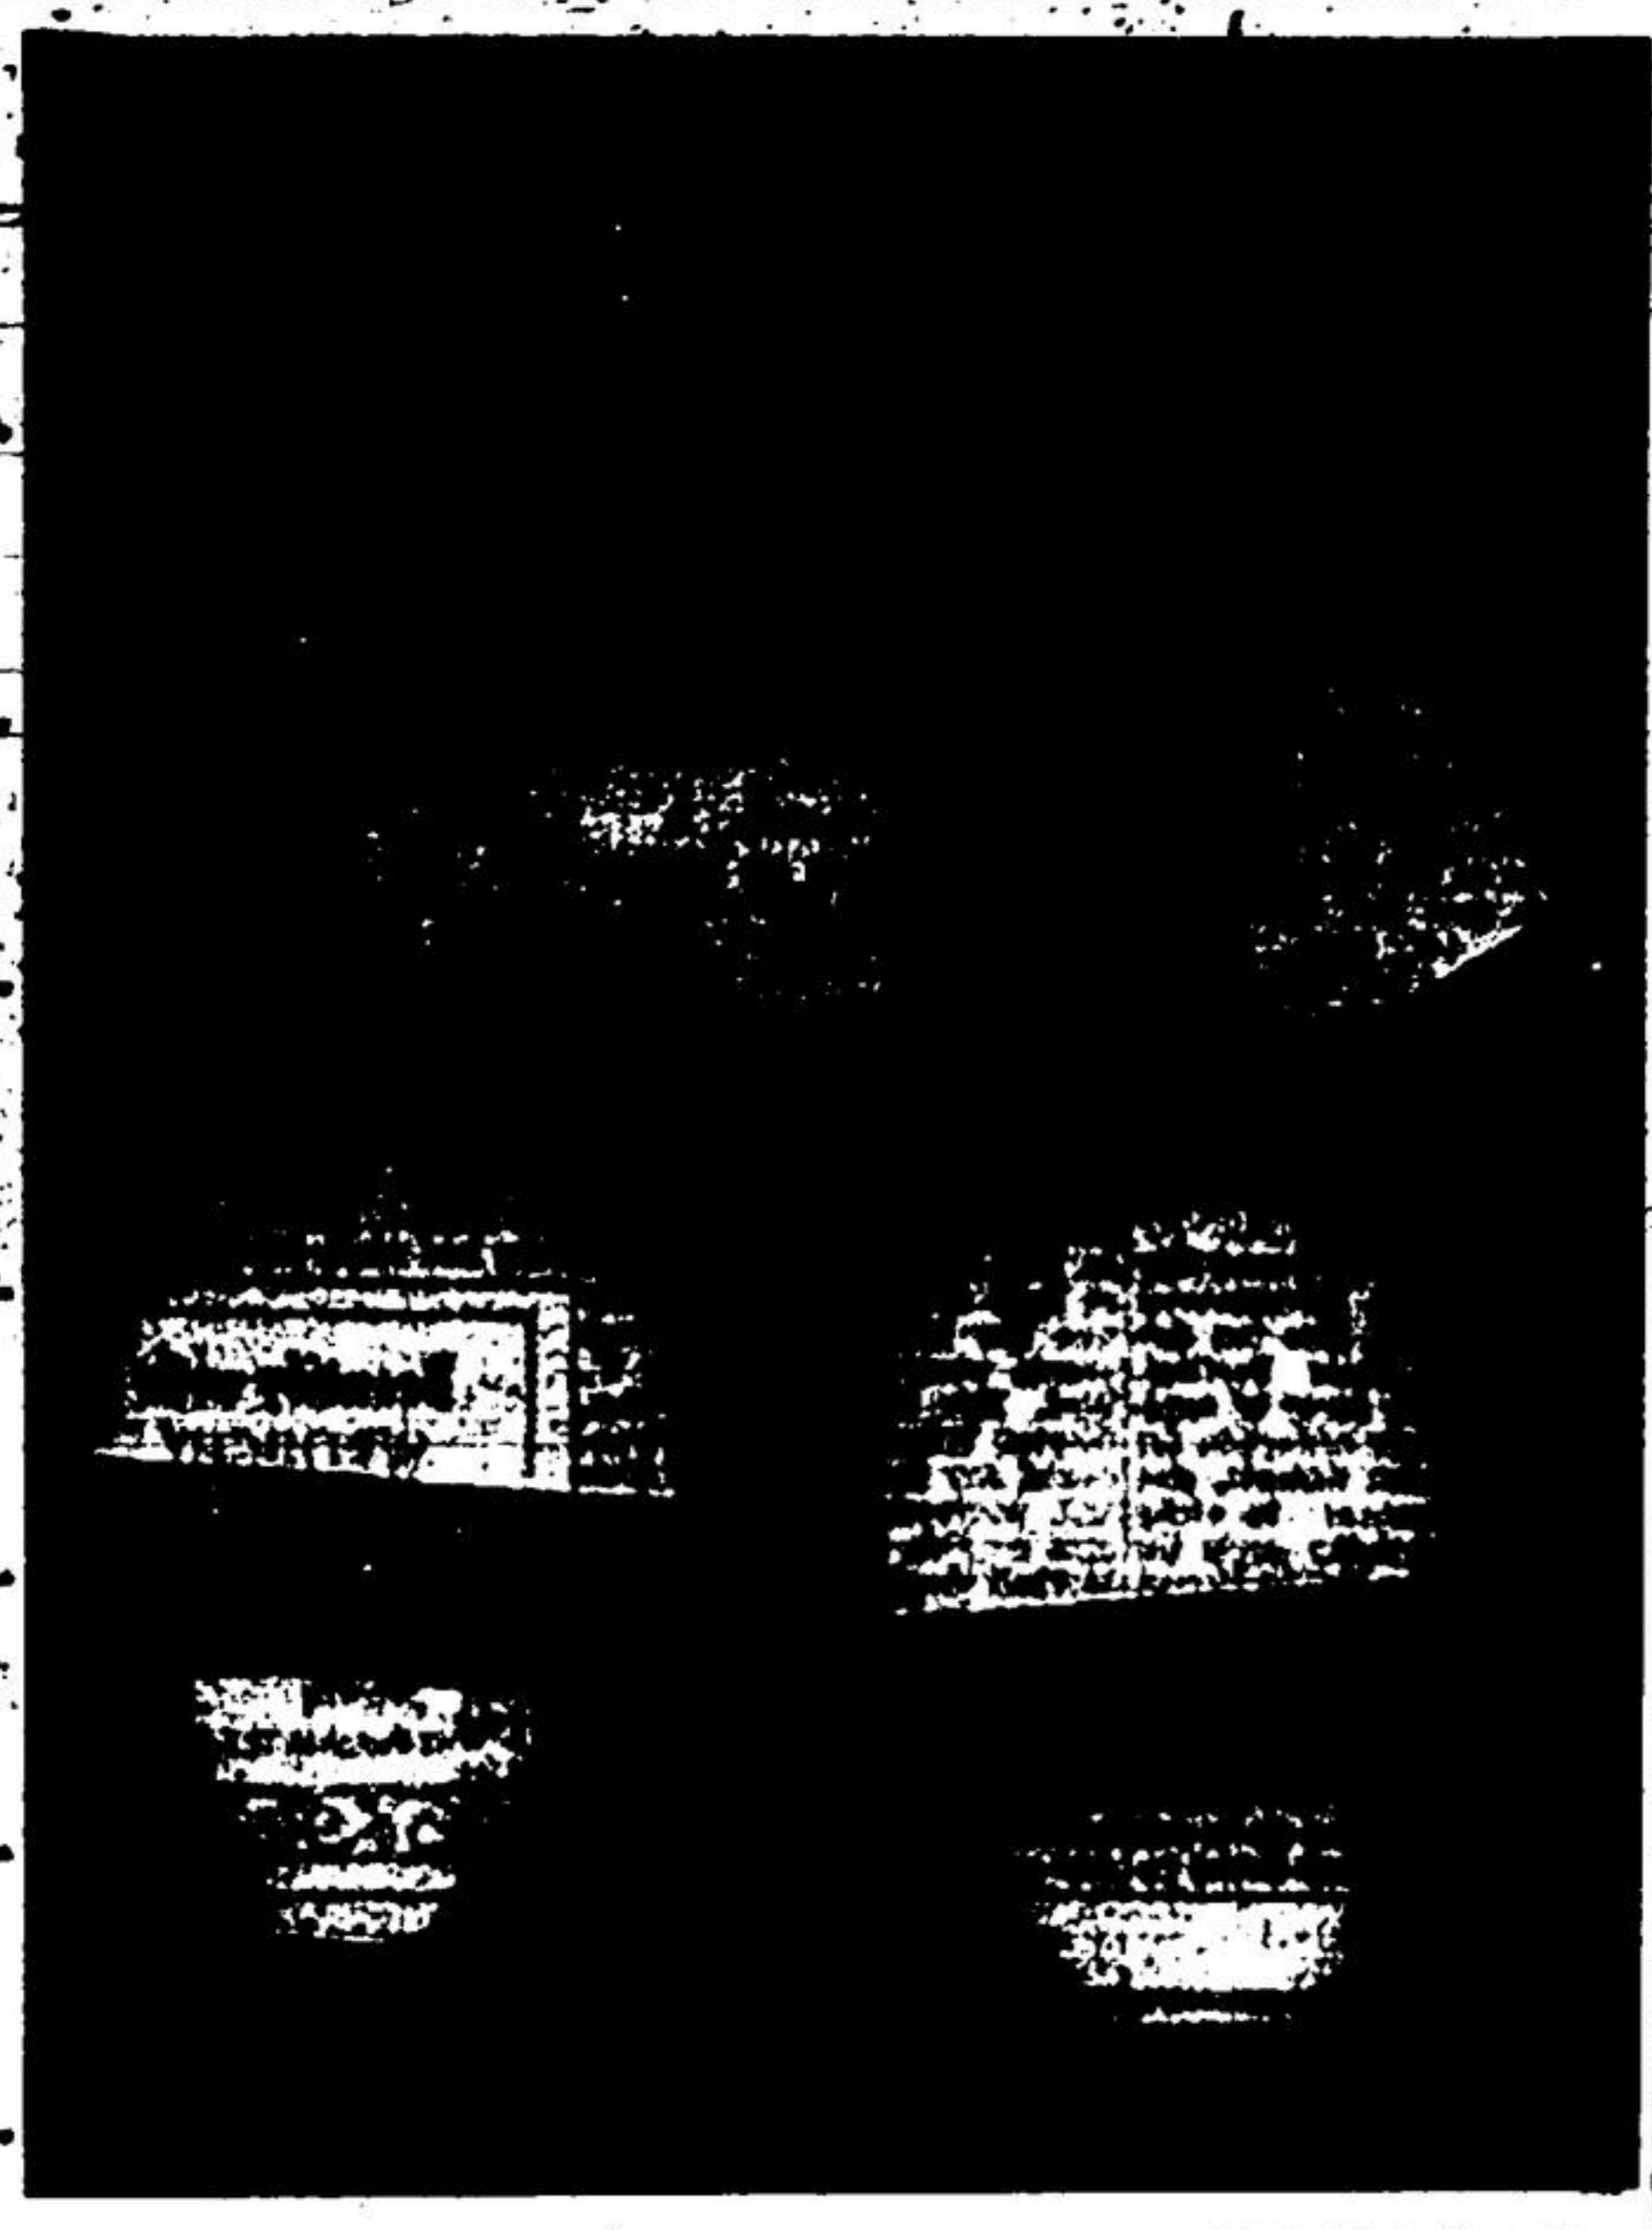

Montreal proved a little too strong for Chicago as they won 2-0. Goal getters were Kling and Kynnersley and MacKenzie and Bally assisted. Boston playing their second game of the morning held New York to a 3 all tie. Goal getters for N.Y. were Dwyer (2-0), Ryall (1-2), and Brunster (0-1). For Boston, Allen (2-1), Madden (1-2) Van Wyck (0-1), MacKinnon (0-1) and Cann (0-1).

AROUND THE BOARDS — A very good turnout for such a bad morning. Some parents brought their boys from out-of-town and were able to make it for their respective games to prove if interested, it can be done. Any final games in the semi-finals and final round that are tied on the round, will play a ten minute overtime period. If still tied, sudden death until a goal is scored. The three teams that are playing in the four town tournament seem to be getting pretty well in shape, so we can hope for something to fill our trophy case besides dust for the next year. Don't forget the dance on March 30. Admission by ticket only, with a limited number of tickets only on a first come, first serve basis. Tickets will be on sale at the Arena Saturday, March 10 in the morning. All Trophy winners will be announced in the near future, so watch this column for the results.

LIKE A HUSBAND
 The Ontario Safety League quotes this from an article on driving instruction in the Star Weekly Magazine: "After so much talk about cars as status symbols, power symbols, sex symbols, it was refreshing to hear someone talk of a car as a means of transportation, potentially lethal, but susceptible to control."

BOWLING KINGPINS

GEORGE BARBER and Don Wilkes of Georgetown's Inter-County league team are having more than a little success solving in two major tournaments. George Barber (left) is third among 250 bowlers remaining in the Mammoth Sportsman's Show elimination, while Don Wilkes occupies second spot in the Guelph division of the East-West Canada tournament for bowlers throughout the country. Action resumes for both local bowling kingpins next week.

Juveniles Win, Lose In Exhibition Hockey

The Georgetown Juveniles are presently marking time until the upcoming Juvenile tournament in Milton on Easter week-end. Manager Bill Richmond is filling their spare time with exhibition games against top-rated clubs. Last Wednesday night Georgetown played host to Port Credit Juveniles and beat them 3-1. The play got off to a riotous start in the first period amid calls of 'Foul' by Port Credit and 'Fake' by the locals.

See-Saw Game
 The game settled down to a see-saw battle during the first and second period with play sweeping from one end to the other. Georgetown had a couple of anxious moments when they were less than two men at the same time twice. Hyde went off for charging followed closely by Marchand for spearing in the first period and Robson had no sooner gone to the sin bin for interference in the second period than Hyde followed him in for elbowing.

Morrow scored from a scramble early in the third period from Campbell and Marchand on a power play, Port Credit having MacIhouse off for hooking. Marchand denied the twine only 33 seconds later to complete a nice passing pattern from Marchand and Morrow. Bill Campbell took a pass from Harvey and stickhandled his way through the Port Credit team right past the goalie and deposited the puck in the empty net. Ernie Pearce's shut-out was lost when he stopped a routine high shot on the net and it went off his glove down his back into the goal.

On Thursday night Georgetown journeyed to Oakville. The Oakville crew got off to a flying start both outskating and outscoring Georgetown in the first period. Oakville took a fast three goal lead with only one marker for Georgetown. Bill Carney making one of his rink-long dashes in the dying minutes of the first period and making no mistake.

The local crew looked badly out of place in the first period. Half way through the second period Bob Hyde went to the penalty box. With Oakville pressing their power play, Glen Cooper stole the puck got a clean breakaway and sunk a nice goal. Seconds later E. White deflected Marchand's shot for the tying goal. The play was very close with each team making repeated assaults on the goalies. In the final minutes of the game Oakville rapped in two unanswered goals to win the game.

Hamilton Police
 Georgetown had to pass up a chance to play in the Hamilton Forum against the high-flying Hamilton Police Juveniles because of a prior commitment. The invitation was a welcome surprise from the Hamilton club as they had earlier visited Georgetown, and enjoyed their game with the locals, in which Georgetown held their own.
