300 Local Telephones Were Added in 1961

The expansion of telephone facilities in Georgetown during 1961 was typical of the situation across the territory served by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada. It was revealed in that company's 82nd annual report issued this week. Expenditures to extend, improve and mechanize service totalled $192,600,000, the report states. Telephones in service at the end of 1961 totalled 3,495,107, an increase of 180,100 during the year.

On the local scene, some 300 telephones were added, L. G. Denby, Bell manager for this region said, bringing the total to 4,700 as of December 31st.

According to the report, net residence main telephones, income totalled $37,690,521, or per cent of telephones in service last year equivalent to $2.50 per share, or a return of six per cent on invested capital.

Operating revenues for 1961 were 7.1 per cent higher than in 1960. The report states this reflects an intensified marketing effort and an upturn in business conditions in the second half of the year.

Taxes totalled $73,482,000, or $8,752,000 more than in 1960.

Shareholders numbered 178,226 at the end of 1961, an increase of 6,836 in 12 months. They received $907,620 in dividends at the rate of $2.20 per share.

At the end of 1961, the company had 34,302 employees, 20,500 managers and salaries totalled $161,800,420. A wage increase four per cent went into effect at the end of Nov. 1st.

Telephone telephones in home lunch were served during October, following collection. Jim Morrison received a prize program and called on Mrs. Wm. Bellhouse for the most tickets sold.
