

Peter Jones, Georgetown

FOUNDER OF KIN LIKES LOCAL GROUP

THE FOUNDER OF Kinsmanship, Harold Rogers, O.B.E., of Toronto, was hosted here Tuesday night by the Georgetown Kinsmen and couldn't be happier with the way the local group are living the idea he fostered some 42 years ago...

Council Purchases Land For New Township Hall

Choose Greig Farm Site For Esqueing Building

Five acres of land on the Seventh line between the Check Line, and No. 7 Highway have been purchased by Esqueing township as the site of a new municipal building...

Industrial Rumours Have No Basis

Rumours that an automotive firm has optioned land on Georgetown's outskirts seem to be without foundation...

Sign Service Contracts For Bookkeeping Machines

A yearly charge of close to $250 for servicing bookkeeping machines in the town office was assumed Monday when council endorsed contracts...

Clearing River For Flood Control

The town works staff will clear dead trees from the portion of Silver Creek running through town, and trim overhanging trees on town property along the banks...

Town Employees Seek 15c Hourly Raise

Negotiations on a new contract with the National Union of Public Service Employees will begin on March 20th, when the town council's administrative committee will meet with union representatives...

HINT LAST YEAR FOR NIGHT SCHOOL

Anglican Parishioners Welcome New Rector

Parishioners of St. George's Anglican welcomed a new rector on Sunday morning when Rev. John McMullin after officiating at morning services met his church people at a coffee hour...

Plans Proceed for Red Cross Canvass

The monthly meeting of the Georgetown and District Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society was held at the home of the Secretary, Mrs. S. N. Martin on Monday afternoon...

Dwindling Enrollment Causes Much Concern to Committee

This may have been the last year for Georgetown's Night School. The president of the Night School committee, Miss Jean Riddell, told the Herald this week that unless the public suddenly showed renewed interest in the night classes there will be no more...

Georgetown's Share $9,189. Credit Conservation Costs

Georgetown's share in costs of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority this year will be $9,189. The assessment is based on 89c per person with the town's population taken as 10,325...

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Tables in the area served by the river. The next meeting will take place at the home of the Secretary, Mrs. B. A. Rolfe, 35 McGivray Crescent, on Monday, April 2nd, at 2 p.m.

Ferro Structural Steel Town's Newest Industry

Georgetown's newest industry is a structural steel fabrication plant. Ferro Structural Steel commenced its operations here last week in part of the former Alex Contracting building on Armstrong Avenue last Thursday, however, quarters are temporary and Jim Rundle, the firm's vice president and general manager, told the Herald his company will be building here sometime this year...

Suggests Improved Dog Control Measures

Improvements in Georgetown's dog control will be discussed with the control officer Cecil Robertson, at a forthcoming meeting of council's administrative committee...

WHAT COUNCIL DID

Use of a tranquilizer gun would be helpful to him also, he said, in apprehending dogs at large. An increase in his contract fee was also a point in his brief.

Buffet Luncheon At St. George's

About 130 patrons enjoyed the $1.00 buffet lunch sponsored by the Daughters of the Church on Wednesday, February 28, at the Sunday School rooms at St. George's Anglican Church...

Buffet Supper 89th Birthday

A family party recently honored a former district resident, Mr. F. S. Charles when he celebrated his 89th birthday. Present besides Mr. and Mrs. Charles were their son Kenneth and their daughter Mrs. Charles of R.R. 2, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Willison of St. Catharines and Mrs. B. Percy Toronto. Three other grandchildren were not able to be present at the party...

Family Holds Party For 80th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. William McNally, 22 Market St., entertained on Sunday at a family dinner party for her father, Mr. A. H. Feller, 2 Emery St., who celebrated his eightieth birthday on Monday...

Set Daylight Saving Time

As has been customary for several years, Georgetown will observe Daylight Saving Time for the same period as Toronto this year. Council on Monday decided to adopt fast time from 7:30 a.m. on Sunday, April 29th, to 2:00 a.m. on Sunday, October 28th.

LITTLE CINDY DAY can flip pancakes with the best of them and Tuesday, the best of them were at their flippinest. March 6th was 'Pancake Tuesday' and for this picture Cindy took a break from a skit rehearsal at Park Public School, where she attends kindergarten-primary, to pose for photographer Peter Jones in the United Gas Store. Cindy is one of several little chefs who will take part in Park School's musical, evening on March 27th.