4-H Supper Club Chooses Officers

The first meeting of the Ballinafad 4-H Supper Club was held on March 3rd at the home of Mrs. Jamison, who with Mrs. Keir is a club leader. After singing the Queen and repeating the 4-H pledge, officers were elected. They are Louise Snow, president; Diana Snow, vice president; June Given, secretary; Carolyn McEnery, pianist; Irene Keir, press secretary. The girls discussed the importance of good food, working methods, cleanliness and dishwashing. The group work was on how to measure. Roll call was answered by 'What makes a good 4-H member?' Lunch was served to end the meeting.

GLEE CLUB MEMBERS WANTED

LIMEHOUSE Supper Club Girls Elect Officers

The Limehouse 4-H club girls met at the home of Betty Anne and Mary Lou Brown on March 1st. This meeting was held to set the club organized for the project 'The Supper Club'. There were thirteen girls present. The officers were elected as follows:

President, Joy Patterson; vice president, Margaret Arnold; secretary treasurer, Heath Arnold; press reporter, Betty Anne Brown. The girls were given their pamphlets and a place and time was decided for each meeting. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The leaders are Mrs. C. Wilson and Mrs. Ted Brown.

CARRIER SERVICE NOW EXTENDED TO STEWARTTOWN

In line with the Herald's policy in distributing the weekly edition as fast as possible to as many readers as possible, carrier boy delivery will be starting in Stewarttown next week.

WAYNE DENSMORE is your carrier boy and will be soliciting residents as customers.

Readers on his route will be receiving their Herald after four each Thursday, at a cost of 10c per copy.

In order to make this profitable for Wayne, the Herald can no longer sell mail subscriptions in his route area, and effective the end of March, such subscriptions will be discontinued. Refund cheques will be issued to those paid in advance, and statements sent to those with balances owing.

We hope readers will appreciate this new service and give Wayne a cordial reception when he calls.

The Herald will also continue to be on sale at Wilson's Grocery in the village.
