

CURVY CLOWNS SCOFF AT STYLISTS

BURLAP WILL BE very big this year if students Peter Forgrave and Denny Martel pull any weight in fashion circles. Below they pose for Peter Jones in ensembles they modelled at the High School Commencement fashion show. Fortunately the real models looked more like pretty Lyn Crocker at left.

Rebekahs Have Visit From Assembly Leaders

On Tuesday evening, March 20th, the members of Verdus Rebekah Lodge entertained Mrs. Ula Hickey, vice president of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario. Mrs. Louis Clark, past president of the Assembly, Miss Kay Ferris, district deputy president of Centre District, and Mrs. Peggy Woodson, president of the district, were also present. Mrs. Alex Taylor of John Street East, who is the Assembly Conductor, was also present. The honoured guests were escorted into the meeting through a guard of honour comprising the members of the Georgetown Lodge who each held a pink carnation which were then presented to the vice president.

The Ashgrove W.I. meeting for March, entitled "Good Health and Good Humour" was held on Tuesday, March 20th, in the church basement with a pot luck luncheon at 12:30. As each member had brought a pot luck item, the table was set with blue and yellow streamers and flowers (the W.I. colors) also the Institute crest for Home and Country in blue and yellow made by Mrs. C. B. Dick hung on the wall.

Local Shiners at Potentate's Ball

A group of Georgetown members of Home's Temple of the Shrine, Toronto, attended the annual Potentate's Ball with their wives and guests, last Friday. An annual affair, the ball is held each year in honour of the reigning Potentate of West End Temple. This year's Potentate is Eber J. Hall. The affair was held in the Canadian Room of the Royal York Hotel. Mayor Nathan Phillips, himself a guest, was the lead in the parade, as was Mrs. Phillips. Following dinner and entertainment, dancing concluded the evening.

Double Trouble Now Son on Crutches Too

Jon Zuber, 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zuber, owners of the Riviera, is taking this business of following in his father's footsteps altogether too seriously. About a couple of weeks ago he jumped from a tree near the Riviera and broke both ankles so now he is walking on crutches the same as his father who has been on crutches since an airplane accident some time ago.

Dedication Service Opens New Addition

Everyone is busy these days getting things shipshape for the official opening and dedication of the new addition to the United Church next Sunday, April 1st at 2:30 p.m. Rev. J. McDermid of St. Paul's in Brampton is the speaker. Marian Hepburn is the guest soloist. We are all looking forward to hearing Mully again. Everyone is welcome and invited to stay for a cup of tea in the Fellowship room after the service.

Many Glen Students In High School Show

At the Georgetown District high school annual commencement exercises a number of our young folk took part. Something added to the school curriculum this year is the Band under the direction of Dr. C. Wilson of Guelph. Marty Wheeler plays in it. Some of the girls sang in the choir. Receiving honour graduation diplomas were Carol Barth, Dennis Hancock, Marlene Kemshead, John Ottaway. Receiving General Academic Course and Special Commercial Course diplomas were Joan Davies, Catherine Hunter, Wendy Ward.

Show Trip Pictures To Pinegrove Forum

Pinegrove Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harrop on Monday evening, March 19th. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Russell showed slides on their recent trip to Scotland and England and Harold Early, who was also on the trip, assisted in telling about some of the interesting pictures, after which lunch was served.

BRITISH PRIME MINISTER OF NAPLES

Sir John Acton, British sailor-adventurer of the 1700's, first commanded a frigate in the navy of Tuscany. Later he organized the Neapolitan navy, gained command of both the army and navy of Naples and rose to be prime minister of the city-state. Encyclopedia Americana records that the "enmity of revolutionary France twice forced him to flee to Sicily."
