Report Active Year For Limehouse W.I.

On Thursday afternoon, April 13, Limehouse W.I. held their annual meeting in the Memorial Hall.

Commencing with a pot luck luncheon at 1 p.m., the meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. Moulden in the chair, opened with the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect.

The roll call was payment of dues. Following the business, a report was given of the district directors' meeting, also the yearly report of each standing convenor and then the president's report as follows for 1961-62.

"Many times we are discouraged and feel because of our small numbers we are not accomplishing much — but as I reviewed the past year of Institute work, I feel we can be proud of the part we do take in the life of this community. We started the new year paying $100.00 for a wheel chair for the Georgetown & District Hospital.

"At the end of June we gave books as prizes for regular attendance and punctuality to pupils of S.S. No. 9. In June we had a clean up bee at the hall and Paul Turner was engaged to cut the lawn as needed.

We catered for two banquets. A committee planned a special event to celebrate our 40th anniversary. Other Institutes were invited and it was a most successful event.

In July we had the piano tuned, as we prepared to have the hall used for church services from Limehouse Presbyterian Church, while the building program was being carried out at the church.

Nine 411 Club girls were presented with salad forks from the Institute for completing 411 courses in the year. The girls provided the program for the June meeting, an event we always enjoy.

In August the executive presented a cup and saucer to a member who was moving away. The W.M.S. were allowed to use the hall to celebrate their 75th anniversary, another milestone in the community.

Two members took a course at Milton, "Sew to Save Dollars and Make Sense," passed on their information to members and non-members; took a display of brass bound articles to the summary day at Milton.

We were busy catering for three banquets in December and postponed our euchre, apron and baking sale; until January. Two members took on the sale of Christmas cards. A lot of hard work but helped our funds considerably.

Seven shut-ins were remembered at Christmas time by appropriate gift parcels. Also through the year a flower and fruit fund provides cheer for the sick and comfort for those who have lost dear ones.

Our club leaders have taken two courses in Milton in the year. We know the young girls of the district cannot help but benefit now and in the future by the training sponsored by the W.I.

The Limehouse Memorial Hall is used for many community affairs. School concerts, music night, showers, etc. We make financial contributions to the Milton Music Festival, Scott Mission, Retarded Children, Care Hospitals, etc. etc.

Perhaps I have missed many things that have been done but I believe we can all take a sense of pride in what has been accomplished and the part we play in this community.

Mrs. Noble took the chair

Shortill on bringing the honour of winning the trophy for union choirs to the Blue Mountain School. A gold medal was won by Billy Oudney in his class and Larry White won the silver medal. Others who were entered in solo classes were Shelley Roy and Marion Kiepp. Congratulations to Mrs. Kiepp also, who is the music-teacher for this area.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Pollock was presented with a Life Membership Certificate and Pin, by Mrs. Gordon King in the absence of Mrs. A. Reader, the president of the U.C.W. It was given to Mrs. Pollock by her son in honour of his mother's birthday.

This was the first presentation since the new organization "United Church Women" has been formed in St. John's United Church.

Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. G. Urquhart and Mrs. A. Vannatter. A social time was enjoyed.

CONGRATULATION

In an item in last week's issue reporting the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Freestone, the number of years married was in error as the result of a typographical mistake. Mr. and Mrs. Freestone have been married 58 years.

Riviera Dancers Will Aid All-Star Hockey

People who attend a dance at the Riviera next Thursday, April 19th will not only be enjoying an evening at one of Ontario's finest night clubs, they will be helping a most worthy local group which spends some $2,000 each year for hockey activities for a number of young athletes.

Originated in 1959, The Minor Support Group had its origin at a meeting on Feb. 15th, 1959 which was called at the home of Gordon Lane to discuss lending a Paw team to a tournament in Goderich. Fathers of the players attended the meeting and an organization was formed with Bruce Cummer as president, Herb Robinson secretary and Roy Norton Sr. treasurer.

Among those attending were Herb Koshier, Herb Arnold, Jim Blair, Jack Presswood, Don Livingstone, Cliff Davison, Gerry Perkins, Ned Assatine, Jack Gudgeon and the late Jack Harlow.

Teams Added

Enthusiasm spread and novice and hantam teams were added to the "All-Star" promotion of the group — and this year, a midget team was taken on too.

Harold Seckington, Jim Ford and Jim Blair have been succeeding presidents with Herb Robinson and Roy Norton continuing in their posts. Hag, Lingham is this year's vice-president.

Brought Laurels

Teams have brought laurels to town playing in such centres as Hoppley, Guelph, Goderich, Sault Ste. Marie and many surrounding towns. But more important, the support group feels, is the double purpose accomplished in promoting competition for the cream of the hockey crop, and by siphoning these boys from the Saturday morning Legion league, allowing other boys on those teams to develop further.

Managers and coaches this season include George Dixon, Ron Jackson, Sid Alcorn, Harold Seckington, Jack Gudgeon, Fred Harrison, Jim Beaumont, Bill Richmond, Dal Bud and Bill James.

Stretched to Limit

So far, private donations, augmented by tag days and lucky draws have provided enough money, but the support group has found their budget stretched past the limit with addition of a fourth team. Thursday's dance, they hope, will give the extra cash needed to end the season in the black.

BALLINAPAD

Family Party For 25th Anniversary

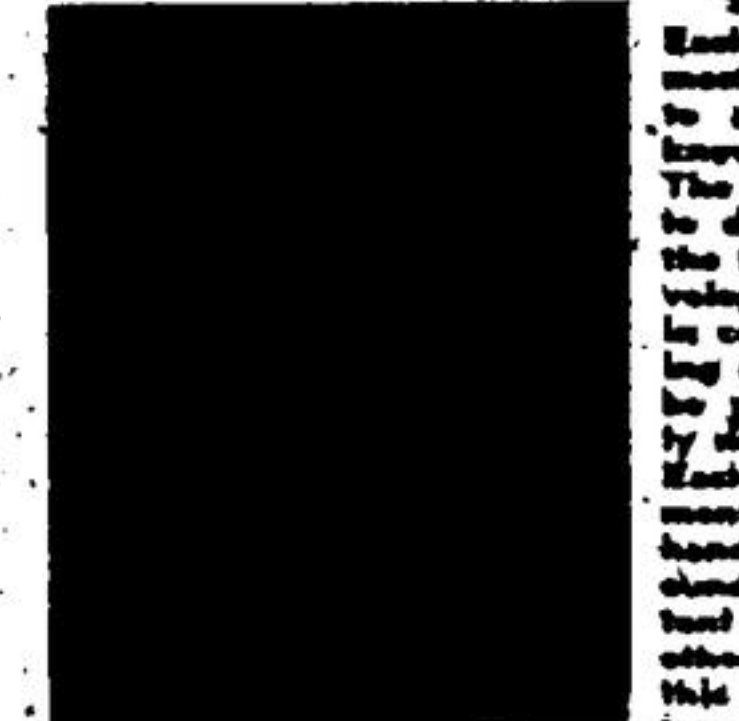

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Bertrand, the proprietors of the Cedar Springs Motel were given a happy surprise by Saturday evening last week when all their family visited with them on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Their six fire supper was brought in and the gift of the family to their parents on the happy occasion was a complete silver tea service, including several extra serving dishes. Several neighbours were also invited in and a happy time was enjoyed by all.

The young people of the Ballinapad charge met for their regular meeting on Sunday evening when they tried part of their exams with the St. John Ambulance course which they have been taking for the past eight weeks, the remaining tests to be taken this week-end. Their last project which they are undertaking is an Easter Car wash at Plouffe's service station on the Saturday before Easter.

Going businessmen often feel that if they shoot above par they are neglecting their golf; and if they shoot below par they are neglecting their business.

"Miss Vanard, one of our operators in Brampton, is in the mood for spring with her bright new Easter bonnet."

Each year of this time most of us feel victim to a strange malady known as Spring Fever. The symptoms are many. The most common of the lot are usually developing a keen interest in colourful type clothing and can generally be seen sporting loosely draped creations called Easter bonnets. The menfolk, on the other hand, just sit around and dream of distant lands and dream of the joys of spring. Another strange effect of this disease might be termed: "A reawakening of the best-building 'urge' — an intense desire to improve and beautify the home. And that's exactly what a lot of folks in Georgetown are concerned with these days.

How do we know? Well, we've noticed a greater interest in our coloured extension phones. As a matter of fact, there's a decided increase in the number of orders we've received in recent weeks. I guess that's proof enough. So, if you're suffering from spring fever, just relax and enjoy it. Remember, you're in good company.

Now is the time of year when a homemaker's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of spring cleaning. At any time now, we can expect to see old paint being scraped away in preparation for a new, fresh coat. Walls must be washed, hardwood floors need cleaning, and a multitude of small repair jobs are waiting to be done around the house. Bob Bonfield, our Vice Chief in Georgetown would like to suggest while the spirit is upon us, that we eliminate the fire hazards around our homes. We are urged to make a thorough inspection of basements and garages with an eye for old newspapers, oily rags or anything that could be a menace to our homes and families. A little extra effort now is the best safeguard against a terrible tragedy later on.
