Enthusiasts Find Few Trout in Credit

A good number of fishing enthusiasts took advantage of the opening of the trout season and the lovely weather to take off for their favourite stream, pond or lake this past week-end. There were many fish to be seen. A few years ago the Credit River was the favourite spot for many trout fishermen, but each year that passes, the trout get scarcer and it is now necessary to go farther and farther from home to find good trout fishing. Trout like good clean water so until all the pollution is eliminated from the Credit we can't expect the trout to be plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guthrie motored to Montreal with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Middleton of Dunnville, to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Morley for the Easter weekend. While there they renewed acquaintances with several former air force friends, and enjoyed sight seeing around Montreal.

Also spending the Easter weekend in Montreal were Joan Crawford, Donna Dolson, Marjorie Rider and Sharon McCandless. They stayed at the Laurentian Hotel and enjoyed seeing the spots of interest in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Shea and Lynda with Mr. and Mrs. A. Noble had an enjoyable trip to Florida for the holidays. Mrs. Noble is principal of Norval Public School.

Michael Todd spent the holidays at Sudbury.

Barbara Youmans enjoyed the holidays with her grandmother at Simcoe.

Many Easter Activities For Residents of Manor

By Muriel Thompson

Several more instructors and helpers are needed for the Handicraft Class at the Manor. The Class meets once a week, Thursday afternoons, but if new helpers could come even only once in two weeks it would help. No special training is needed - only a desire and willingness to help is necessary. For anyone willing to come, the phone number to call is Mrs. John Ridgeway, YTriangle 8-6175.

SIMPLICITY
An eloquent sermon by Rev. D. A. Powell lent reverence and inspiration to the service in the Chapel on Palm Sunday afternoon, April 15th. Before delivering his sermon, Mr. Powell read two Scripture lessons, Psalm 34 and the first eleven verses of Chapter 11 of St. Mark.

Mr. Powell said that Christ's life was a life of simplicity and so, on the first Palm Sunday he entered Jerusalem seated on a colt. Although he was the King of Kings, his throne was a cross, his crown a crown of thorns and his grave a simple tomb.

Christ has need of simple things from his followers today, such as every little talent that they possess and every little deed that they can perform. He needs their help in order to bring in the Kingdom of God and this should be our thought in Holy Week.

HAWAII
On Sunday night, April 15th thirty boys and girls who are students of the Ontario Conservatory of Music at Oakville paid a very welcome return visit to the Manor. They had presented several concerts at the Manor on previous occasions and every concert had been greatly enjoyed. As had been the case on these previous occasions, Mrs. Una Van Horne acted as the very expert Mistress of Ceremonies. One of the teachers, Mrs. S. Marcotte came with the students and played some of the accompaniment.

The boys and girls played guitars and accordions and a wide variety of selections was presented. Several Hawaiian melodies and popular songs, among them "Paper Roses," and "Jealous Heart." Two young girls demonstrated the new dance, The Twist, to the accompaniment of the electric guitar played by Mrs. Marcotte and the Hawaiian guitar, played by Mrs. Van Horne. Sandra Barker played very expertly three hymns from a hymn-book dated 1905, belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. E. Flaxman, who is a resident at the Manor.

OVERTONES
A group of students playing two electric guitars, one guitar, one accordion and the drums played "Cool Water." The Overtones, a group of instrumentalists from Hamilton, played two selections, one of which was "Sentimental Journey." They too played guitars, an accordion and the drums.

An appropriate song, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," sung by all those taking part in the program, brought this very enjoyable program to a close.

Mrs. Eva Dixon who is both a member of the staff and a member of the Halton Manor Auxiliary, supervised a social hour in which cold drinks and cookies were served to the visitors and the residents. The boys and girls assisted with the serving and this strengthened the friendships existing between these young students on the one hand and the residents on the other.

INFORMALITY
An evening of entertainment that was outstanding in its gaiety, friendliness and informality was presented in the auditorium on Monday, April 16th, by twenty-five young men and women who are members of the Young Adult Group of St. Paul's United Church in Long Branch.

The group has two presidents Mr. and Mrs. John Cohoon, but only Mrs. Cohoon was able to come. Mrs. Joyce Hutcheson was the talented music director. Mr. Charles Cates looked after the lighting and Mr. Albert Gates supervised the scenery and props in expert fashion.

The variety show that the group presented had been assembled last fall under the name Autumn Freeze and with the coming of spring had been renamed Spring Frolic.

FARM HANDS
From the opening number, "Hey, Look Us Over" to the concluding selection, "Look for the Silver Lining," the entire program was a very bright and entertaining one. Several skits were presented, each one containing choral and solo numbers. For instance, a skit entitled "A Farm Scene" was made up of the song "How Are You Gonna Keep 'Em Down On 'Em Farm," sung by nine young men dressed as farmhands, a square dance performed by a set of eight young men and women, the song "Friendship" sung by the group and a solo "Swagon Wheels" sung by Bill Sawell. Two similar skits "In Old New York" and "By the Sea" were also presented. Special attention should be given to the skit called "The Roaring Twenties" which was made up of the songs, "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and "Johnny," and the dancing of the Charleston by four "boppers" dressed in the costumes of the twenties.

Glenda Roscraft sang two solos, "Whistly a Happy Tune" and "Getting to Know You." Glenda Roscraft and Bill Sawell sang "Side by Side" as a duet and Jack Robinson did a pantomime imitation of Al Jolson to the Jolson records, "I'm Sitting on Top of the World" and "When the Red, Red Robin."

HOME-MADE
The hearty appetites that were the outcome of listening to this excellent program were appeased in very delicious fashion when the visitors served many kinds of home made pies, which they themselves baked along with tea and coffee. It was a very happy and appreciative crowd of residents that left the auditorium that evening having enjoyed such a very entertaining program and such delicious refreshments with their good friends from Long Branch.

The ladies from St. Paul's United Church in Long Branch and the young girls from St. Paul's United Church in Milton were in charge of the refreshment hour.

BIRTHDAY
The April birthday party held on Thursday night, April 19th, was an occasion of great pleasure not only for those whose birthdays come in the month of April, but also for those whose birthdays occur in other months. This April party was sponsored by the Limehouse and Silverwood Women's Institutes of Esqueping Township who were represented by thirty-five of their members, along with their two presidents, Mrs. E. Houghley of the Limehouse W.I. and Mrs. Clare Wilson of the Silverwood W.I.

Hall Cracks At Liberal Opponents

Hallon MPP Stanley L. Hall, who has represented Halton county in the Provincial Parliament for 18 years, took a long swing at the Liberal opposition's "political ship of state that has floundered on the rocks of frustration" in a recent speech in the House on the budget.

Explaining you've got to spend money to save the rapid population boom with highways, schools, hospitals and public buildings, he claimed the opposition's charge that "Conservative government was thrusting the country farther into debt was 'far from the truth.' The budget, he said, "was more than a balanced budget when you consider the assets that have been created by this government."

List of Assets
He listed the schools, hospitals, homes for the aged and other assets whose values cannot be counted in dollars and cents, then swung back in history to the laying of the C.P.R., the Ontario Northland Railway, the Ontario Hydro (all established under a Conservative government) and other accomplishments.

New members to the opposition had his sympathy, the MPP said. "It is a shame to see such bright, intelligent young men joining the crew of a Political ship of state that has floundered on the rocks of frustration - there is no hope left - the crew has joined the Order of Doom, Gloom, and Despair."

The perils of this ship are so barnacle infested that the crew can see no distance into the future, even the Hon. member for York Centre, the self-appointed King Fish and his Mystic Knights of the Sea are providing little assistance to their captain."

Hits at NDP
Turning to the New Democrats, he recalled how they once referred to the Conservatives as "nothing but the dogs." I would say those dogs were very potent for that political party in the last 18 years has given the Province of Ontario the best government it has enjoyed since Confederation. It is much different with this political party that has recently changed its name. There are no dogs left - just the froth. I am sure that little bit of froth cannot last long against the blast of hot air we have to listen from that section of this Assembly."

Rotarian's Wife Describes Japan
The Annual Daffodil Luncheon was held in the Church on Wednesday, April 25th. It was a warm, sunny day and one hundred ladies came and at 12:30 sat down to beautifully decorated tables in the basement. After the grand luncheon was partaken of, Mrs. C. B. Dick, president of the United Church Women presided for the program, welcomed the gathering and called on Miss Barbara Evans of Georgetown for two lovely solos.

Then Mrs. Frank Wilson introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Glenn Grace from Cooksville. She showed beautiful colored pictures of the seventeen day trip of the Rotary convention to Tokyo, Japan, she and her husband took last May. They left Buffalo on the 17th May, with one hundred and ten persons on a Constellation plane. They stopped at Edmonton, Alaska, down to Shemya (a small island) across the Pacific ocean and landed in Tokyo, Japan.

The pictures showed the people and their way of life and makes us realize how other countries struggle to survive with large populations and over-crowding. Mrs. Bob Cunningham thanked the soloist and the speaker and presented them with small gifts and the afternoon closed with The Queen.

Special thanks goes to the lunch committee: Mrs. Frank Riddell, Mrs. Fred Nurse and Mrs. Vera Pickett and the Program Committee: Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. Bob Cunningham, who worked and planned to have everything such a success.
