MEMORIALS

ELLISON - In loving memory of a dear son William Donald who passed away one year ago May 6th, 1961. We think of you today dear Don as we have done so often. And feel once more the sudden blow that does not seem to soften. You wished no one a last farewell. Nor even said goodbye. You had gone before we knew. And only God knows why. It takes only a little space to write how much we miss you. But it will take the rest of our lives. To forget the day we lost you. We miss you dear Don. Always remembered by Mother and Dad.

ELLISON - In loving memory of a dear brother William Donald who passed away one year ago, May 6th, 1961. Who loved you, and miss you in our lonely hours of thinking. Thoughts of you are ever near. Always remembered by brother Jim.

ELLISON - In loving memory of my dear brother Don who passed away May 6th, 1961. Always smiling, happy and content. Loved by my brother, where ever he went. To a beautiful life a sudden end. He died too soon, everyone's friend. Lovingly remembered by sister Lyla, brother-in-law Bob and family.

FORD - In memory of Cecil Charles Ford, who passed away May 2, 1961. Beside your grave I often stand. With heart both crushed and sore. God knows how much I miss you. He counts the tears I shed, and he whispers "He only sleeps" your loved one is not dead. And when I am sad and lonely. And when everything goes wrong. I seem to hear you say "Cheer up Mum" carry on. Each time I see your photo, you seem to smile and say, "I'll be at the Gates Mum. To guide you all the way." Cherished memories by his wife Louise.

FORD - In loving memory of a dear father Cecil Charles who passed away May 2nd, 1961. You cannot say, you must not say. That he is dead. He is just away. With a cheery smile and wave of the hand. Dad has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair. His needs must be, since he lingers there. So think of him faring on, as dear. In the love of there and the love of here. Think of him still as the same, and say. Dad is not dead, he is just away. Sadly missed and every remembered by sons and daughters, Tom, Gwen, Jack, Laurie, Steven, Bonnie and Larry Lalonde.

FORD - In loving memory of Cecil Charles Ford who passed away May 2nd, 1961. The golden gate stood open, one year ago today. With fervently left unspoken. Our dear dad slipped away. He suffered much in silence, His spirit did not bend. He faced the pain with courage. Until the very end. Always remembered by daughter Joanne, son-in-law Lucien, grand-daughter Leona.

FORD - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Cecil Charles Ford who passed away May 2nd, 1961. We think of our Dad. As a down to earth guy. Just plain, like the sun. The wind and the sky. We think, and we know. He has gone from our side. But we think of our Dad. With the utmost of pride. Sadly missed and always remembered by Herbert, June and granddaughter Debbie.

WYLLIE - In loving memory of my dear mother, Mary Wyllie, who passed away May 8, 1958. As angels keep their watch up there, Please God, just let her know. That we down here do not forget. We love and miss her so. Always remembered by Sarah.
