Gudgeon's Guys Get Group But Bow To Best "B" Bantams

The 1962 International Bantam hockey tournament is pistory, but don't wager the odd cheer isn't still rattling around in the empty four corners of Georgetown Memorial Arena. A real playoff crowd witnessed the Grand Championship tilt and added vocal assistance to the thrifter that would have done the Chicago Black Hawk backers up proud. eneaking of the windy city, excepters even had to contend with the odd raw omelette and papers during the height 'of a lead to hand Peris a 3-2 win Yvenspertation, and behveltting the frenty.

An overtime goal by Wakeford at the 5.28 mark snared from the Milton Juvenile tour-It for the Galt Club after Popell had tallied in the third period neyof the big game to pull Georgelown Bentams'even and force the extra period. In a way it was as fifting a climax as could be drafted out in a script. The local crew proved they were, every bit as resilient as the best of them by dumping the class winning Marlboros' in the semi finals, and the Tourn ament itself may have suffered slightly had the host team
