

CARRY RED AND BLUE INTO CWOSSA — Peter Jones Photo

FOR YEARS THE DOOR mat in inter-school track and field competition, Georgetown High School has regained its vantage point atop the District 6 heap and by Saturday's performance they have ideas about staying there. The GHS athletes duplicated their fine winning effort last year by outpointing Milton, Acton, and Erin schools at Gueph OAC. Sharing in the local honours were (back row) Dave McLeod, Kathy Aspden, Pat McKinnon, Betty Quackenbush, Caroline Norton, and Jennifer Mills, (front row) Mike Cummins, Bob Wigglesworth and Gord Lee. Missing from the picture is Pam Currie. They'll be carrying the red and blue in the CWOSSA meet this weekend.

Chamberlain-Schenk Duo Best in Ladies' Opener

Mrs. J. H. Chamberlain and Mrs. Bill Schenk were top much of a golfing competition for the rest of the ladies who took part in North Hutton Golf and Country Club ladies section opening day Saturday.

Maple Leaf Trainer Speaker at Banquet

Hockey Trophies are Presented All-Stars

The trainer for the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey club, Bob Huggart may have been looking at some future Maple Leaf material Saturday.

He was the guest speaker at a presentation banquet held for the five teams backed by the Georgetown All-Star Support Group, in the Evening Hall, Stewarttown. He was introduced by Jim Blair and after addressing the young players held a question and answer period which drew some leading inquiries. For his trouble, Jack Kerzhead made a presentation to him on behalf of the Group.

A parade of other presenters was led off by the secretary of the Ladies' Association, Susan Lewis, who handed out Lady Byng Trophies to Jennifer Mills, Midget Rod Preswood, Hamilton, Allister Blair, Peewee Ned McParlane and Kenzie Bruce Davies. The Lady Byng is awarded players who best combine hockey ability with good sportsmanship. A Pulver Association trophy was presented by Cst. Harley

Low to the outstanding juvenile, Bill Campbell, and a gift was presented Mrs. Sam Walker of the Ladies' Group by the treasurer Mrs. Phyllis Lloyd, for her hard work and the use of her home for all the meetings. The Ladies' Group chairman, Mrs. Tom Peavoy, presented OMHA treats to the members of the Eastern and Peewee teams which was their group. Bill Carney proposed the

The Ladies' Group took advantage of the affair for their lucky draw. First prize went to C. Martin of North Creek, $25.7 and 2nd prize, $10, to Pat Vance, Churchill Creek. The balance of the program was taken up with Players Bob Hyde, Mike Cummins and Marty Wheeler spoke thanking the Groups for their work with the teams through the season. The balance of the program was taken up with the showing of films.

Baseball Day June 23

Conflicting dates for two major town attractions have been amicably solved.

Last week it was learned that the Lions Club rodeo and a big day for the baseball season had both been planned for June 16th.

The ball club has switched its date to June 23rd to accommodate the Lions whose plans had gone past the point where a change could be made.

Glen Will Compete in Rural Fastball

Chas Williams will have a team in the Rural Fastball League again this summer.

At a meeting of the league held last Wednesday, it was learned the Glen will compete against two teams from Leavelle, two teams from Orange, and teams from Paloma and Horeby. The Glen team won the championship last year.

The league coaches the Glen club, Tom Peavoy and John Hobbie handle the pitching and Max Stafford, Junior Bassment, Bud Wilson, Tony Zille, Bob Webster, Pete Peavoy, Ron Ritchie, and Doug Ward will supply the power of the plate. The first league game is on May 22nd.

Ladies Bowling League Splits to Two Groups

The largest local bowling club, the Afternoon Ladies Bowling League, has split.

At the annual banquet Thursday in the Legion Hall a paper ballot to move the league from Lucky Strike Lanes to Georgetown Bowl was successful but those opposed have formed their own executive and will operate as a separate league next season.

The executive elected at the meeting to govern the league Lucky Strike Lanes will be governed by Mrs. Perc Chaplin, Mrs. Laura Treble, president; Mrs. M. Tost, vice; Mrs. D. Lamont, vice president; Mrs. Harry Shortill, dent; Mrs. Tom Trouton, secretary; Mrs. Jack Saunders, tary; Mrs. A. Hutchison, treasurer; and Mrs. Erwin Lewis, urer; and Mrs. Roy Rutledge and Mrs. Jack Runham, auditors.

Plan Two Performances In This Year's Rodeo

It's time to get out the oil barrel and practice your bow legged routine again.

Georgetown Lions have put their Rodeo Day preparations into high gear and advance word is that the wild affair will be even wilder than last year (which of course was wilder than the year before that). The chairman of the Rodeo promotions committee, Jim Jones, told the Herald this week that the eastern stampede, inaugurated in 1960, has become a real obsession with the local club who will pull out all the stops to make each successive shindig a notch better than the one before.

Double the Impact

The Lions have set June 16th as the date for Rodeo Day in Georgetown, which will climax a week of hoop-la in which the townsfolk and merchants have taken part in past years. But this time the windup will have double the impact. To accommodate the expected sellout crowd, the Rodeo will be held twice, once as a matinee at 1.30, and again in the evening beginning at 7.30. Of course, a giant Rodeo Day parade will serpentine through town to the park in the morning.

Barbequed beef on a bun, a draw for a pony, saddle and bridle, and possibly a Miss Rodeo contest will be among the many attractions. Of course, bronc riding, calf roping, bull dogging and all the western events on the Rodeo program will be the major attractions.

Drum Up Interest

The Lions will get their first chance to drum up interest Sunday, May 27th when their entry in the District A convention parade will consist of a chuckwagon, stagecoach, and 40 outriders as well as the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band. The committee supervising the Rodeo project is Bob Brick, George Hewson is chairman of the parade, Wilf Brisbois and Fred Zorge, grounds committee; Ernie Bodnar, concessions, and Jim Jones, advertising and publicity.
