

AT THE MANOR SUMMER MEANS SITTING OUT

NOBODY APPRECIATES the change to pleasant weather more than the residents of Halton Centennial Manor on No. 25 Highway near Milton when the warmer weather means a chance to sit outside and enjoy the manor's well cared for grounds. Here a group of Georgetown people soak in some of that wonderful summer sunshine. Left to right are A. G. McDonald, Miss Mary McLean, Mrs. Given, Mrs. Joe Hoare, and the Manor's correspondent to The Herald, Miss Muriel Thompson.

CADETS INSPECTED

Becomes Cadet Captain After Receiving Award

Runners Regimented In Local Track Club

"Eyes right" was the order of the evening, as the members of the Georgetown High School Cadet Corps turned heads smartly toward inspecting officer Major E. F. Lance during the annual inspection in the park last Thursday night. Both Major Lance and Lt. Darwin of Oakville H.Q. were impressed by the steadiness of the corps on parade and the smooth operation of the demonstrations which followed.

The demonstrations included a precision drill with rifles led by Lt. Leslie Markham; a Bren gun demonstration conducted by Captain Tom Quinn; signal demonstration under Lt. Stewart Saxe and examples of fieldcraft directed by Lt. Leonard Hulme.

The inspection itself was directed by cadet officers Lt. A. Teeter, Lt. M. Peleschak and Lt. G. B. Armstrong. Inspecting party and assistant officers were Lt. Darwin of Oakville H.Q., Lt. Maclean of the Lorne Scots and Captain Bruce, chief instructor of the cadet corps.

Cadet awards were presented by Major Linc, Col. Barber's Trophy for the best cadet of the year was won by Lt. Adjutant Stewart Saxe. Honourable mention medals went to Major David Kentner, Capt. Tom Quinn and Sgt. Major J. Bowman, while Sgt. Michael Pratt, Cpl. Richard Parry and Lt. Leslie Markham received Honourable Mention crests.

The best first year cadet was Sgt. Michael Baker, who was awarded a trophy. An honourable mention medal went to Cpl. Raymond Ellis.

"Standard" signals certificates were given to Cpl. Peter McNamara, Sgt. Michael Baker, Cpl. Richard Parry and Cpl. R. Tomlins.

"Advanced" signal certificates were presented to Sgt. M. Baker, Cpl. R. Tomlins and Cpl. R. Parry.

The Best Platoon award, the Lorne Scot Trophy, was won

Milton Nonagenarian Was County Warden

The Milton Canadian Champion paid tribute to one of that district's respected citizens when Charles Readhead celebrated his 90th birthday.

"He has spent the biggest part of his life working to help other people," was the high praise given the Milton district resident.

He was a Nelson Township councillor for 18 years, including terms as deputy and reeve; was county warden in 1917 and spent 14 years on Nelson school area board. He was on the board which built Lawrence's Fairview School and was for 21 years a director of Halton Mutual Fire Insurance Co. After retiring from farming 20 years ago he worked with the Veterans' Land Act board. He was assessor for Nelson at one time and served as treasurer of Lowville United Church. Twice married, Mr. Readhead has one daughter Mrs. Velma Norris and a stepson Vernon McCarthy. There are seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

DON BARRAGER

Wife - What do you think of the hat I found downtown dear?
Husband - Good thing you found it. Only an idiot would pay for a thing like that!
There's no doubt about it. Husbands just DON'T understand style - but they do understand a sparkling white shirt. Rawle's pressed and cleaned that brings back the newness to suits. That's the kind of work we turn out. Want you give us a try?

ARE YOU CONFUSED BY USED CAR PRICES?

Then Mister, You'd Better Read This

YOU wouldn't buy a new car from a "fly-by-night" so it stands to reason, first of all, to buy your used car from a legitimate new car franchise. He has to do right by you because his new car franchise and reputation depend on it.

He'll charge you what the car is worth, or what he thinks he can get, depending on make, year, model, extra equipment and general condition. You offer him what you think the car is worth or at least what you feel you are prepared to pay. Here is where the horse trading starts. Somewhere in between the two figures you and the dealer can usually arrive at a price that suits you both. Don't forget this - the price tag on a car is also governed by the existing market conditions in general, in other words, time of year, how great the demand, etc.

INCIDENTALLY, I BOUGHT MY LAST TWO CARS AT STONEHOUSE SALES. THEY WERE BOTH SOLD UNDER WARRANTY. THE PRICE WAS RIGHT AND I HAVE NO COMPLAINTS ABOUT EITHER OF THEM. I FOUND THEM GOOD PEOPLE TO DEAL WITH. IF YOU ARE THINKING ABOUT ANOTHER CAR, NEW OR USED, WHY NOT DROP-IN FOR A TALK?
