P.M. O.K. - BUT M.P. ??

THE LAWYER (right) made it by an uncomfortable margin, and the Scientist (left) presently holds a slim lead with the service vote still to be counted. But the smiles on Prime Minister John Diefenbaker could be more for the failure of the Liberal swing than for their own personal farings.

Kidnap Threats For Best Children

Call Mounties

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police are investigating a series of kidnap threats made to Halton's Progressive Conservative candidate during the two weeks preceding Monday's election.

An added strain during the campaign for Mr. and Mrs. Best was a number of telephone calls received by Mrs. Best suggesting their children Charlie, 3 and Alexander, 15 months, were in danger of kidnapping.

"It started the day after the coffee party which Hon. George with P.C. headquarters and it was to attend." Mrs. Best was decided to take no official action during the campaign. However, the children were sent away for safekeeping from the Best's farm home near Georgetown.

Hectic Morning

To add to this unwanted excitement, Mrs. Best also detailed a hectic morning when she answered almost 70 phone calls of a different nature.

"From then on I received at least three calls a day, the last reflections on Mr. Best's ability Sunday at 8:00 a.m." said in parliament with such phrases as "He's running on his father's name" — "Inaulin."

won't get Best elected" and such.

And to top it off, Tuesday morning Mrs. Best was again the recipient of five callers, each of whom said, "Why the hell don't you concede the election to Harley?"

The Herald is Georgetown's "big circulation" weekly paper. That's why more local advertisers use it than any other medium.

The Queen Mother had special words of sympathy for Mrs. Gerry, who lost her husband and brother in World War I. Mrs. Gerry was wearing a Silver Cross and is President of the Silver Cross Widows and Mothers of the Great War and a life member of past Toronto Regent of the LODE.

Mrs. Elsie Gerry of Toronto mother of Mrs. D. Kild, Georgetown, was among the guests invited by the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario and Mrs. Keiller Mackay to the luncheon for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother.

Georgetown voters exceeded the national average when they went to the polls Monday.

Of 5419 eligible to vote, a total of 4406 ballots were cast for a total of 81.3%.

In 1958 there were 3307 votes of a possible 4074, for a total of 81.1%.

The town had a sharp reversal in its political leanings when it gave a 683 majority to Liberal Dr. Harry Harley over P.C. Sandy Best, who has represented Halton for the last two parlaments.

Over a thousand more voters went to the polls in town than they did in 1958. But despite the extra voters, the Conservatives dropped almost 400. The Liberals gained over 800; the NDPs 600. A fourth Social Credit candidate tallied only 33 votes.

For the record here is a local comparison:

P.C.	LIB.	NDP
1720	1216	371
1350	2038	970

GRITS JUBILANT OVER TOWN VOTE

AT LIBERAL HEADQUARTERS in Georgetown, Mrs. R. J. Little, Garfield McIlvray, Mrs. Jack Nieuwolff, and Maurice Manderson can't hide their elation over the success of Dr. Harry Harley's campaign in Georgetown. Their candidate was the voters' choice here, but lost out in the south of the county.

Kinsmen to Assist Orphaned Family

At a meeting of the executive of Kinsmen Club Monday night three trustees were appointed to handle the fund for the children of Mr. and Mrs. Reg Higham left orphaned when their parents were killed in a car bus crash near Queen City last week.

Permanent trustees are George Baker, 33 Weber Dr. and Sid Alcorn, 21 Mackenzie Dr. The sitting president will be the third member. The trust fund was set up to handle money that has already come in from Mr. Higham's union and the firm he worked for as well as money from various other sources. An account has been opened at the Royal Bank.

The club is not soliciting donations but should anyone care to contribute, money can be handed in at the Royal Bank. The fund and the trustees board are set up to help with the immediate and near future needs of the children.

COMES OF AGE

Rodeo—Buckin'est, Noisiest Wooliest, Ridin'est Show Around

Also Rootin'est and Tootin'est

Georgetown Lions will remain over summer 1962 as the year their shadowing of past efforts which baby reached maturity — and themselves have been shaped at the tender age of three.

Because this is the year "their baby" the annual Wild West Rodeo, made the transition from "local extravaganza" to "the biggest western show this side of the Manitoba border." That's the tagline on it by CBC newsmen and they won't get any argument from the hordes that flocked here from all over this part

The performers, human and equine, appeared to have an unclouded contest going on among themselves, each trying to eclipse the others' exhibition with a more scintillating effort.

There were arts and events that the regular Rodeo goers hadn't seen before. A calf seamball during the matinee in which young fans raced from one end of the arena to the other, picked out the nearest piece of veal on four legs and steered it across the finish line, won a beagle for a Waterdown boy, David Hamilton.

"I see now why they call it 'Little Calgary,'" nodded one out-of-town spectator, soon to be dropped to drop a "Little" Unsolicited accolades like that one, were typical.

Whether Halton's federal member of parliament is PC Sandy Best or Liberal Dr. Harry Harley remains in doubt until armed services votes are received.

In one of the closest elections in county history, sitting member Best emerged with a 61 majority in a recount of Returning Officers' figures Tuesday night in Burlington.

An estimated 500 servicemen in Canada and Europe also were eligible to vote and until these results are completed the issue will be in doubt.

According to chief returning officer Dick West of Burlington, the armed service vote will be added to the totals.
