

Wet Weather Moves Barbecue Indoors

The closing meeting of the Councils of Sixteenth Chapter I.O.E.F. was held on Monday, June 11, in the form of a barbecue and dinner at 10 Valleyview Road, were the hostesses.

The attendance of members was smaller than anticipated, due to the fact it was such a wet evening. A delicious meal of barbecue turkey, tossed green salad and scalloped potatoes, was served indoors buffet style.

The Regent, Mrs. J. T. Armstrong, presided over the short business meeting which followed. The Secretary Miss Helen MacDonald read the minutes of the last meeting. The Treasurer Mrs. Cecil Davidson gave a report, it was very gratifying to know that the Chapter's financial pledge has almost been accomplished, only a very small balance remains to be met.

No Penny Sale

It was decided that the Annual Sale would be dispensed with this year, and instead a draw would be made in the Fall, the prize being a bridge table and four chairs. Mrs. Sam Parvica and Mrs. E. Wilson distributed the tickets to the members present and these will be sold during the summer months.

Brief reports were given by Mrs. John Elliott, Clinic Convener and Mrs. Oliver Hunter, representative Local Council of Women.

Mrs. Keith Barber was welcomed into the Chapter as a member.

The business being concluded an Auction Sale was held. Mrs. Cecil Davidson made a very capable auctioneer, helped by Mrs. Claude Keintner as clerk, the proceeds helping to swell the general funds.

Resumes In Fall

Miss Hilda Erwin very graciously thanked the hostesses for their hospitality and also to the members of the committee who assisted them, Mrs. Oliver Hunter, Mrs. Tom Ruth, Mrs. Sam Parvica, Mrs. Claude Keintner and Mrs. David Godden.

The regular meetings will resume in the fall.

SHOWED WITH GOOD WISHES BY FORMER STUDENTS

A VETERAN of thirty-two years as language teacher at GHS, Miss Florence Luke, (front centre row) is surrounded by some of the head table guests who gathered to honour her at a dinner in Knox Church Hall, Wednesday, June 20th. Standing are, Parc Saxe, Mrs. Walter Biehn, Jim Evans, Mrs. Doug Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lambert and Doug Lalimer. Seated are, Mayor Doug Sargent, Miss Luke, Gordon Alcott, and Mrs. Margaret Bowdhe, a sister of the guest of honour.

Happy Occasion When Former Students Meet

Mr. Lambert said that teachers are prone to be nicknamed by their students and suggested that "The Dorkens" would be a fitting title to remember the school's veteran staff member, who is going to a new position as head of the modern department at Bayview Collegiate.

Mayor Douglas Sargent said the gathering that night showed how an old home week might be popular for town, and added his tribute to Miss Luke's successful teaching record. She numbers every profession in her list of former students.

A witty address by Toronto insurance man Gordon Alcott bathed the elder members of the group in nostalgia as he recalled incidents of his own school days.

Mr. Alcott, who returned to complete his high school education after working for several years was humorously introduced as the high school's "old-time living graduate" by the chairman. He ended his remarks with a salutation in French to Miss Luke, with Mrs. James F. Evans presenting her with a handsome necklace and carrying set. It was announced that a surplus in the gift fund would be donated in Miss Luke's name to the local hospital.

Miss Luke expressed her thanks for the tribute paid and said she would have warm memories of her years in Georgetown.

Thomas Forgrave said grace at dinner and Percy Saxe thanked the church ladies who catered for dinner.

Head table guests included Miss Luke's sisters, Mrs. Margaret Bowden and Mrs. Violet Mosher of Toronto; Mayor and Mrs. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, Mr. Alcott, Mr. Lattimer, Mr. Saxe, Mrs. Walter Biehn and James F. Evans.

The dinner was planned by a committee composed of Percy Saxe, Mrs. Walter Biehn, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Evans, Mrs. Fred Arnold, Mrs. Bruce Harding, Thomas Forgrave and Douglas Lalimer.

ASHGROVE New Owners For Joe Drake Business

It was with a tinge of sadness we learned that Mr. and Mrs. Joe Drake had sold their business at Ashgrove corner. It has always been such a pleasure to go down to the store for something and farmers on Saturday evenings came to buy and stay for a chat about crops and the weather. Mrs. Drake always was so interested in our happenings and was ready with sympathy, or was glad with us as the occasion might be. We are going to miss this fine couple.

On Wednesday morning, June 20th, thirty Institute members and ten visitors boarded a bus at Ashgrove corner for a day's outing in Toronto. The first stop was at High Park where they saw different kinds of animals, beautiful peacocks and most gorgeous colors of roses and other flowers. The bus then went down town where the ladies called shop and have lunch at their leisure until two o'clock when they boarded the bus for the O'Keefe Centre at Yonge and Front Streets and saw the play "Guys and Dolls," a musical fable of Broadway which portrays night life in New York City. From there they went to the West Point Restaurant on the Lakeshore Rd. for a lovely dinner and then home. A very big thank you to the committee, Mrs. Wilbert Cleave, Mrs. John McNabb and Mrs. Len Cox for planning such a perfect and enjoyable day.

Happy birthday to Mrs. M. Leslie on the Eighth Line who was 92 last Thursday.

Jeffrey Nurse and his courtin, Kent Graham, of Orangeville spent the weekend up north.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher were guests at the wedding of Miss Leone Bussell to Harry Kennedy of St. Catharines in Moor Street United Church at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Critchell and their family to our midst and hope they'll be happy here. They have purchased the Drake business.

Mrs. Maurice Dixon of Kapuskasing is visiting this week with her mother, Mrs. R. J. relatives.

Delmar Chapple, Brampton, received his 17th award, while others were honoured for varying periods of one to twelve years.

Included in the group were Carlo Ingebarson, O. L. Dickhout, CLJ, James Henderson, Harold Long, William Hodgson, Paul Mitchell, Carman McCreey, D. N. McLeod, William Kung, Leonard Swain, H. A. Kaspar, Brampton; Norman Greensides, CLU, Newmarket; Stewart Lockie, William Cairns, Milton; Sydney Lowe, CLU, J. A. Murphy, Oakville; Robert Hunter, Streetsville; Robert Pague, Dixie; John Lloyd, Port Credit and Elwood Madill of Orangeville.

The national quality awards gives tangible recognition to underwriters who show persistence, permanency, stability and quality in their work and was established in Canada in 1946.

Graham and sister Mrs. Fred Nurse and family and other relatives.

NATIONAL QUALITY AWARDS TWO LOCAL INSURANCEMEN

Two Georgetown life underwriters were included in a group which received 1962 national quality awards at a function at North Halton Golf Club last Wednesday.

Arnold Rathbun, who received his tenth award and Jack Runham, whose award was his fourth, were two of 23 members of the Life Underwriters Association of Brampton who received these from John T. Armstrong, C.I.U., at a dinner which followed the association's annual sports day.
