On their arrival the honoured guests received a white, corsage, while members of Esquering W. I. wore a single carnation corsage.

The hall and tables were beautifully decorated with the Institute's colours, Royal blue and gold. The head table was also decorated with flowers given by Mrs. C. A. Grant in memory of her grandmother, Mrs. John Applebe and her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Applebe, former members of Esquering W. I. The flowers were later taken to St. John's Church where they were placed on the Altar for the special W.I. service on Sunday evening.

The side tables were decorated with individual mums in small rose bowls and blue and yellow candles decorated all the tables.

Suitable serviettes and gold programs were placed at each setting.

The grace was sung, with Mrs. Reg. Williams as pianist. A delicious cold plate, with turkey salads and all the trimmings, was served by members of Ashgrove W. I. Pie and ice cream with strawberries topped—the main course.

Next came the three-tiered birthday cake, made by Mrs. Herb Reid and decorated by Mrs. C. A. Grant. Miss May Thompson, only charter member living, cut the cake. Each person received a generous piece, along with the punch.

Mrs. C. A. Grant, the president, welcomed the guests and

The peace of God's love to you. May they blow to the North your troubles, May they blow to the South your fears, From East and West bring all that is best, With faith for coming years.

At the close of the ceremony Mrs. L. de Vries sang "Memories" as a solo with the group joining in the chorus.

The program continued with Mrs. Betty Clements of Milton as soloist, who sang Blue Birds of Happiness and Bless This House.

Miss Jacqueline Barclay of Stewarttown favoured with piano selections and Mrs. Ballantine of Guelph as vocal soloist, delighted her audience with two recitations.

The audience, joined in the rhythm when Mrs. Herb Reid played selections on her piano.

A skill by members of Ashgrove W.I. was thoroughly enjoyed. The ladies arrived in old fashioned costumes to one of the early Institute meetings. Most of them arrived by horse and buggy and were alarmed at the speed of the new automobile, which frightened the horses. Mrs. Vern Pickett, at whose home the meeting was held, read the minutes of the Organization Meeting of Esquering branch.

The meeting opened with members singing "The Maple Leaf." Underneath the display could be seen the faces of Mrs. Clayton Wilson, who presided, Mrs. Frank Ruddle, who as secretary read minutes taken from Esquering W. I. early minute books. Mrs. John Belloddy read a paper on "Women Suffrage" and Mrs. James

Native Returns

"Mr. Hancock is home after 35 years" announced the Western Daily Press in England recently. They were referring to the return of a Somerset native, Abraham Hancock, now a resident of R.R. 4, Georgetown. Mr. Hancock is staying with a cousin, Mrs. Beale Wide, of Tracadema, West Huntspill while he re-acquaints himself with the countryside which he has not seen for more than half a century. He left his homeland as a very young man, and celebrated his 17th birthday aboard ship bound for Canada. He sailed west again, this time with a wife, Anna Salvidge of Watchfield.

In 1913 he took over a 70 acre farm in the Georgetown district, specializing in Holstein Friesian cattle. He returned in 1958.

After his wife died, he decided to take to the air for a holiday at home. He had a difficult placing the familiar landmarks and farm lands around his old home. But the houses in the district are new to him, as is the traffic on the roads. When Mr. Hancock left England, there were only two cars in the district.

Mr. Hancock is the father of Herb and Charles Hancock of Glen William. His other children are Joe, Tom, Mrs. Helen Stayer, Mrs. W. McCutcheon and Mrs. Geo. Gilmer all of Toronto. He also has 23 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
