

Alert Returning Officer Fall Election Possible

Cut Subdivisions To Only 300 Names

Richard West, Halton Riding Returning Officer, has been warned by Ottawa that on July 16 he should start preparing for another federal election some time after September 15.

Chief Electoral Officer N. Castonguay said in a letter to returning officers that because the Progressive Conservative Government does not have a working majority in the House of Commons, he wants to be ready for an election on 24 August or after September 15.

Meanwhile, Dr. Harry Harley, Liberal, became member of parliament for Halton officially last week when Sandy Hunt, Progressive Conservative, announced he was withdrawing his request for a full judicial recount of ballots cast in the recent election.

Mr. Hunt intended the election before the job could be completed, with the pressure of other court work. Re-counting started at 9:00 a.m. June 30th, and Mr. Elliott's statement came after rejected ballots were checked and a random sampling had been made of ballot boxes returned mostly from northern subdivisions.

Extremely Pleased
"We are extremely pleased with the results and we were sure there would be no change after the random samplings of the ballots were made by Judge Elliott," Dr. Harley said.

"I intend to go down to Ottawa and do the very best not only for Halton County, but for Canada," he said.

Mr. West said his letter to Mr. Castonguay stated that he would resign if he were not allowed to resign on July 15 except by medical certificate. First shipments of new election materials will start on about that date, he said.

Wishes Set Up
The returning officer said his wish would be to see the results of the riding subdivision set up. The letter from Mr. Castonguay suggested that polling subdivisions be cut to 300 names, a reduction from the 350 names of the last election.

Next Mr. Best conceded the election to Dr. Harley, a formidable task of counting some 50,000 votes faced Judge Elliott and he estimated it would have been the middle of July.

Finally, educators and school boards, next time you get off your leather covered easy chair in your mahogany paneled ivory lower, come down and give a little thought to the taxpayer who has to pay back what you borrow.

Eaton Firm Didn't Start Glen Business
July 4th, 1962

Editor, Georgetown Herald,
Dear Sir:
In the issue of your paper of June 14th I noted a statement under the heading of Glen Williams about the recent article on the Eaton family in Chateaufort. I thought you would wish to know that our founder, Timothy Eaton, did not start a business in Glen Williams. He worked in the building now owned by Wheelers, as a clerk. His first place of business (started by him and his brother) was in Kirkton, Ontario. His first real dry-goods store was in St. Marys, Ontario. It, therefore, would not be correct to state that the T. Eaton Company started in the Glen.

We have visited the Glen Williams and Georgetown area to do research on the members of the Eaton family who settled here and we are very grateful to the cooperation and assistance we have received from the citizens in the locale. Mr. Wheeler, in particular, was very kind.

We thank you for your interest, and know that you will appreciate this small correction.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) K. Fells
Archivist.

SHE LIKES CHILDREN!
MRS. JIM BILLSBORROW believes in a busman's holiday. Fresh from her public school teaching chores, she took on a job for the new YMCA as director of a day camp at Terra Colla Conservation Area this week. The camp, where children have been taught crafts including swimming and nature hikes and ends tomorrow. Old Station Landmark Falls Prey To Progress
The old railway station at the CPR crossing on the Seventh Lane is being torn down. If nothing else, it has been a well known landmark, although it hasn't been in use for several years. The only time a passenger train has stopped is once a year to pick up the local deer hunters in the fall.

"Enjoy outdoor living . . . with an outdoor phone"

EVERY YEAR AT THIS TIME we remind our readers about the benefits of outdoor telephones . . . and every year more and more customers find out for themselves how right we are. But then, it's inevitable I guess. The growing trend to outdoor living during the summer months coupled with the increasing tendency to keep in touch by telephone will bound to create a demand for this type of service. With an outdoor phone you can receive and make calls right there in your own backyard, whether you're busy putting the barbecue cooking over your barbecue, or just relaxing on your patio or in your favourite garden spot. It will save the wear and tear of having to run outside on hot summer days to answer the phone. And besides, you'll get much more out of those friendly telephone calls if they're made from the quiet relaxed atmosphere of your garden. Why not call us at 877-2523 and ask about our portable telephones with options for patio or garden? They're easy for us to install and you'll find the price is low.

WHEREVER YOU GO this summer, chances are that you'll be near a public telephone, whether it's an outdoor beach, or the familiar outdoor booth, or the handy new Walk-Up or Drive-Up variety. When you're travelling you can use them to call ahead to make sure of accommodation, or warn the folks at your destination if you're a little off schedule, or greet friends along the way. You'll find public telephones a great convenience wherever you are. Use them often. Remember, it's your "phone away from home."

Chief Roy Haley Says . . .
HAVE FUN on your vacation this year but please remember to be "water-wise." The Canadian Red Cross tells us that nearly 1,000 people in this country are destined to die by drowning this summer unless every individual learns and practices water safety. They suggest a few important tips to keep in mind during the summer months. Never dive into unknown waters. You might strike a dangerous object like a submerged rock or log. Never swim after dark! It is also unsafe to stand up or change places in a boat. And remember, Federal Boating Regulations require that you provide a life jacket for each passenger on board. Water skiers, give skippers and boat drivers heads-up! When skippers never lean forward — Do a sit-down fall on the back of the skis, etc. etc. Most of these rules are just common sense, but they're worth thinking about again and again because they do save lives. Think about all the rules of water safety this summer. Have a pleasant vacation and be sure to come back alive!

Mystery Tour Takes W.I. Ladies to London
A "Mystery tour" sponsored by the Georgetown W.I. took forty ladies to London recently. Leaving from Scott Motors at 9 o'clock, the bus travelled to London via Highway 401, with a coffee break at Paris. The ladies enjoyed a box lunch in Springbank Park and spent an hour strolling through Storybook Gardens.

Next stop was the shopping mall in downtown London where afternoon tea was served to the group in a reserved room at Eaton's, and time was allowed for shopping. The return trip brought them to the White Horse restaurant in Paris for dinner.

Appreciation for the day was expressed to the committee in charge and to the efficient bus driver.
