Milton Wins, Town Loses Put Baseballers in Cellar

A pair of Milton Red Sox wins combined with two consecutive losses by Georgetown has dumped the locals back into the depths of Halton County Intermediate Baseball League basement.

Facing the power-laden Campbellville outfit for the second time in 3 games, Georgetown intermiddles rapped village pitching for 8 runs but fell apart defensively to bobble the contact 15 to 8.

One had inning, the 4th, decided it. Glen Gibbs, who started for the locals, gave up a double and a home run in the shaky first, but then settled down to out think the villagers until the 4th when the roof fell in. Campbellville sluggers found holes in the infield and piled up 8 big runs to make it no contest.

Manager Lyn McLaren switched Ron Ritchie from his third base position to the mound and the move paid off, but too late. It was in the late stages of the top sided affair, with Ritchie containing Campbellville bats that Georgetown came on to score most of their total. The 5th inning produced four Georgetown runs when Max Stafford of the first. It was much the action picking up a home run, and three triples, and George- town's 1 triple and a pair of doubles. Instead of leaving the game when he inserted Jim McGill in a relieving role, manager Lyn McLaren converted himself to a second sacker and stayed in the action. He returned to the mound with the bases loaded the last frame and got the best out of the situation unscathed. Paul Lessa paced the locals with 3 hits in 5 trips. The locals are in Dundas against Milton on Tuesday night to play an important pointer against Dundas.

HARV LOCKS UP NORTH HALTON SILVERWARE

HARV CHAPPELL HAS REPEATED as club champion of the North Halton Golf Club. The slender slammer who copped the title at Georgetown in 1960 and then beat out Bill Anderson at North Halton last year, did it again Sunday in a 36 hole final against the vice captain, Jim Reeves, win the round 6 and 4. Here he puts the trophy in his locker for safe-keeping and even gets assistance from finalist Reeves. (left.)

MINOR BASEBALL NEWS

Toronto and Rochester saw double action recently but Toronto were able to hold their opponents off on both occasions. Playing a previously rained out game, Toronto came from behind with three runs in the final inning to win 4-2. Hits by Brad Price, Robbie Pfaff and Steve Graham put Toronto ahead. The two teams met again in the regular schedule on Tuesday and Toronto were again the winners, 6-4, once more scoring three runs in the last inning. Both teams again played well. Toronto first baseman Bob Inglis hit a home run and Steve Graham and John Kennedy hit for doubles. Top efforts for Rochester came from catcher Bruce Stockfish who hit a triple and Wayne Gardhouse who also hit a triple bringing in two runs.

Other action in the International League saw Jacksonville finally break their six game losing streak with a 3-2 win over the top running Richmond. Jacksonville pitcher Guy Hennessey took the honors. Columbus tied their game with Buffalo 5-5. Columbus third baseman Doug Guest came up with the play of the evening catching an important infield fly from Brian Barrett. R. Quanbury and G. Louth shared the pitching duties for Columbus.

In the American League the Yankees finally got off the ground taking the Boston Red Sox 9-3. This was the Yankees first win in seven starts. Baltimore broke loose with four runs in the final inning of their game with Cleveland to break a tie and chalk up a 6-2 win. Good pitching by reliever Frank Anderson and two triples from Mike Bronnhead contributed a great deal to Minnesota's 9-4 win over Detroit. Jack Kennedy also turned in a top performance at short stop.

St. Louis Cards recorded a run-away 13-2 victory over Cincinnati in National League action. The L.A. Dodgers similarly swamped the Pirates 15-1. However, action was steadier between the Milwaukee Braves and the S.F. Giants. The Braves edged the Giants out by one run to win 3-2.

Georgetown Midgets took on the local crew was the fly hawk fielding of Frank Brewster who went back to the fence and up the ramp early in the game to rob a Campbellville batter of a home run.

Oakville returned to haunt Georgetown at the park on Sunday as the local boys threw and back to back singles to the Gudgeon and Monkman and first two innings with three Davison. Oakville got back errors to third baseman Jim Blair and errors apiece to Jack Gudgeon and Alister Blair, giving stop Gudgeon. Both teams scored single runs in the fifth and Oakville tied it up in the last of the sixth on an error for Georgetown and went the third to third baseman John Monkman. All four Oakville runs were unearned. Wayne Davison on the mound for the All Stars went five and a third innings, being relieved by Bullough. Bullough retired the side but in the last of the sixth got himself in trouble and Davison came back in relief to strike out the next two batters. Bullough tried to make up for his poor fielding with three hits, one a good double. Cummins and Bradley had two hits each with singles to Gudgeon and Jim Bullough. One bright point for

Brampton, Orangeville Here Swimming Meet

It's aquatic night again at the Community Pool tonight and organizers have their fingers crossed that John Public will take a bigger interest in the water show than they have in past seasons. The swimming competitions in which teams from Brampton and Orangeville will vie against the local club have never held an overwhelming attraction here and last year the swimmers performed in front of a handful of spectators. They deserve an audience much larger.

The program includes demonstrations as well as competitions. Under water swimming and diving, races for swimmers from 10 to 12 (breast), 13 to 15 (breast) stroke, backstroke and crawl) 16 to 18 (breast, back crawl and crawl). One of the highlights will be the relay racing.

The meet is the first of six planned by the three clubs. The second is in Brampton on August 2, the third in Orangeville on the 9th, the fourth back here on the 16th, the fifth in Brampton on the 23rd and the sixth in Orangeville on the 30th. Following this schedule there will be a gala windup meet in one of the three pools.

The local swimmers are headed by Cliff Johnson.

Bowlers Have Perfect Weather

Intercountry lawn bowling started into the second half of the 12-game schedule last week when Acton visited here and took a close game from the local Edith Street club by 12 points to 10. Both Georgetown and Acton won five games but Acton bowlers compiled the highest aggregate score to earn the extra points. Prior to this week's rain the bowlers have been having a streak of perfect weather for their games, and the green has been getting lots of use. Last Monday the men's section had one of their best nights; the ladies bowled Tuesday; Wednesday Acton was here in the intercounty match and Thursday was mixed jitney night. Last night the Georgetown

Chappel Wins Golf Honours Third Time

The North Halton club champion round finished on the 32nd hole of the proposed 36 hole match at the Maple Ave. club Sunday afternoon with the same result as last year's tussle — Harv Chappel won it.

Introduced to local sports fans in a Raider uniform some years back, Harv has long since overshadowed his ice career with a splendid record of golf honours in three years in a row has made a habit of taking local golf titles. He captured the Georgetown Golf Club championship in 1960, and last year picked off the brass ring at North Halton for the first time.

His opponent in this year's final was Jim Reeves, a coincidence in itself since Jim is the club vice-captain, and Harv is captain, and the pair have been touring amateur tournaments almost every weekend together. Prior to that Harv disposed of Yeo Fenning, Jack Hamilton, and Jim Linton, while Jim was eliminating Don Rand, Joe Strite and Ben Matthews to gain the final. The North Halton pro, Russ Kelly, refereed the match.

The only other flight completed at either of the two local clubs is the C Flight at North Halton where Paul Cunningham won out over Bob Yost. Paul started the tourney with a bye, then eliminating Bert Blackling and Reg Brownhead before playing the final. Bob Yost played through George Mitchell, Matt Todd, and Mel Chapman.

Lawn bowlers were in Rockwood for an intercounty match there, and tonight the ladies section is holding a mixed jitney with lunch and prizes.
