GET ALONG LITTLE DOGGIE

DACHSHUNDS HAVE BEEN the clowns of the canine world for so long that this one has decided to comply with some of the exaggerated dimensions applied to the 'sausage hounds' and extend himself to prove a point. Actually this elongated pup, if you haven't already guessed, is normal length (for a dachshund) and Herald photographer Peter Jones admits the camera sometimes 'stretches' the truth so to speak. His name is 'Audi' and with a tag like that could only belong to public accountant Ed Mallison, of 12 Maple Ave.
