"GEE MOM, I GET ALL THE CRAB GRASS"

THINGS ARE TOUGH all over as little Tony the Pony will tell you for would if he knew how.) And if a fella can't even rely on his mom to look after his needs who can he rely on? Getting the short stubble after his mom's (or mare's) has lopped off the top of the crop isn't exactly easy street you know. Tony is one of ten little pony colts on the farm of R. C. Given just north of town on the 10th line, who are spending the summer there with the folks. There are thirty ponies in all, in the herd owned by William Moody of Brampton, and on a bleak windy day the sight of the herd galloping over the rolling Given terrain puts one in mind of the famous Shetland Islands where the mid-gal horses had their source. Mr. Moody uses the ponies in his rides at various fairs and picnics, including Georgetown Road and Fall Fair. Right now the pick of the crop are under the comb and brush in preparation for the competition at the CNE. So take heart, Tony, maybe one day you'll be wearing one of those coveted blue ribbons or making a Georgetown youngster happy as he or she rides around the pony ring on your strong back.

Former Glen Resident Bert Scott, 76, Dies

A former Glen Williams resident, Bert Scott, 76 died in Oakville-Trafalgar Hospital on August 28th.

Mr. Scott farmed in his younger years near London. After living in the Glen for some time he moved to Bronte about twelve years ago.

Besides his wife he leaves three children, Walter, Mrs. A. Cricklow (nee) and Clifford of London; four brothers, Archie, Lloyd, Ivan and Clifford of London; and four stepchildren, Tom Poole of London, Bernard Poole of Hamilton, Mrs. Herb Hestcock (Catharine), and Mrs. Joe Norton (Della) of Glen Williams.

Funeral services at the funeral home were held Tuesday, Norman Langille, James English, and Harvey Mann, Bronte, Robert Slaght, Oakville and Ronald Doughton, Hamilton. Six grandchildren were flower bearers, Bob Poole, Tynnis Hestcock, Terry Hestcock, Leroy Poole, Norman Poole and Wayne Norton.

New Stamp Marks Highway Opening

The Hon. Ellen L. Fairclough, Postmaster General, today announced that the postage stamp marking the opening of the Trans-Canada Highway will be released for sale on August 31, and not on September 4th, as previously announced.

Mrs. Fairclough explained that the date of release has been advanced because of the change of date for the official opening of the Highway to September 3rd. The opening, to take place at Rogers Pass in Glacier National Park, British Columbia, had originally been planned for the 4th and the stamp was to have been issued on that date to coincide with the opening. Since post offices are closed on Labour Day, the day for the release for the stamp has been advanced to August 31st.

The Postmaster General stated that in view of the short notice given for the change in release date, all first day covers received by the Postmaster, Ottawa, before September 4th, will be processed.

Rockwood Girl Bride Of George English

St. John's Anglican Church, Rockwood, was decorated with chrysanthemums, for the recent wedding of Patricia Ann Vincent, Rockwood, to George Alexander Murray English, R.R. 5, Milton. Rev. James E. Maxwell officiated for the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. C. Vincent, Rockwood. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert English, R.R. 5, Milton.

Mrs. James Maxwell, Hornby, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white peau de sole gown styled with floor length skirt, jewelled neckline, and lily point sleeves. A tiara of pearls held her finger-tip veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade of white stephanotis and pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Peg Emberson, Guelph, cousin of the bride was maid of honour. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Higgenbottom, St. Thomas, cousin of the bride, and Miss Brenda Vincent, Rockwood, sister of the bride.

Miss Emberson and Miss Higgenbottom wore waist length dresses of aqua silk organza, styled with puff sleeves. Miss Vincent wore a similar gown in coral silk organza. Their head dresses were pillbox hats matching their dresses and they carried bouquets of white carnations, centred with carnations tinted to match their dresses.

Walter Wilson, Ashgrove, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Melvin Ilcken, of Georgetown and John Mueham, R.R. 3, Georgetown.

For a reception in St. John's parish hall, Rockwood, the mother of the bride received her guests wearing a dress of turquoise linen with white accessories and a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother assisted, wearing a green and white jersey dress with white hat and corsage of white sweetheart roses.

For a honeymoon trip to Michigan, the bride wore a yellow linen dress with matching coat and white accessories.

The newlyweds will reside at R.R. 5, Milton.

Out-of-town guests were present from St. Thomas, Toronto, Port Perry, Galt, Dundas, Hornby, Norval, Stewarttown, Streetsville, Acton and Guelph.

'DISTRICT GOD'

Three teams from Branch 420 headed for Chippawa last Saturday to compete in the annual district golf tournament.

The weather was good, temperature excellent, everything was just fine except for the scores. So many shot scores way over their average that I thought I should open a suicide booth with a sign on it reading "Guns for Hire."

But all the same Georgetown managed to qualify and we'll be sending a team to Chippawa sometime in October to compete in the Provincial tourney.

Roast Beef Dinner

After the tournament all participants assembled back at Branch 396 for refreshments and a fine dinner of hot roast beef.

On the first floor of the branch they have beverage rooms and in the far corner they have a shuffle board and snooker table. Four of us got together and played games on both of these fine attractions and I feel that maybe we should look into the possibilities of doing something along the same lines for our branch.
