

Wilfrid Bird Served Township For More Than Fifteen Years

Haltoun county and district were shocked and saddened on Friday, August 30, to learn of the sudden death of Wilfrid Bird, warden of Haltoun County, at his home, R. R. 2, Georgetown. Mr. Bird was born in Chingachousy township, the son of Annie Cook and James Bird. He received his public school education in Meadowdale and attended high school in Streetville. In 1915 he moved to the 5th line, leaving there in 1927 to live at the present home on R. R. 2. He and Isabel Fisher, who survives him, were married on April 9, 1930. A farmer all his life, Mr. Bird was vitally interested in the well being of the community and served on the Esquimaux Area School Board for several years. He first entered local politics when he became a member of the Esquimaux Township Council in 1927 and served continuously on this council in the capacity as councillor, Deputy Reeve, Reeve and as a member of the Esquimaux Township Council in 1927 and 1928. He served continuously on this council in the capacity as councillor, Deputy Reeve, Reeve and as a member of the Esquimaux Township Council in 1927 and 1928.

His wife, the former Dorothy (Dor) whom he married in 1930, predeceased him. Surviving are their children, Dorothy (Mrs. Paul Suter) of Georgetown, Bill of Suter Bridge, Misses and Margaret of Georgetown. Three sisters in England had three grandchildren are also left. He was an employee of Alliance Paper Mills.

Signs of the Times

10 years ago who would have dreamed that taxpayers of Georgetown would be forced to attend every council meeting to protect themselves from unfair legislation, passed by council, at the dictation of one developer. Tax payers, for your own protection - keep it up - act accordingly. —The Gardener
