SECRET DEAL?

Raider Cooks Will Meet To Stir the Hockey Pot

Things are bubbling in the intermediate A Raider hockey cauldron but club president Fred Maveal won't be able to lift the lid until next week. The ingredients make for an interesting stew. Basically it's the coaching question. Elmer Lee, who has guided the Raiders from the best of the past two campaigns is apparently directly underneath the dropping axe, but a replacement at writing time isn't immediately available. One of the problems the club will be faced with when they put their heads together some time before the week-end is Lee has been an excellent whip cracker, and his ability to squeeze the last ounce of aggression out of his charge has never been in doubt. But paying customers, and now his employers, have magnifying abut the little general's use of talent. The thing that obviously sours hockey mentors in his tight to be at the reins again in 1962-63 was his will to experiment with unlikely combinations during crucial games. Breaking up tries that have produced in the pre-1962 days and icing fair players too often, displaying a curious choice of penalty killers when the Thomson-Richardson duo wasn't available offset his talent to fire up the Raiders.

Club Active Force In the Community

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, 18 members strong, are seeking new recruits for their year-old organization as part of their celebration of Jaycee week.

The club has been prominent in the community since its inception and plans to call for courses in public speaking, business letter writing and parliamentary procedure being offered to the membership in the next year.

The Jaycees, initially formed in Canada in 1938, now boasts 531 branches in various parts of Canada. Local membership comprises men in the 18-40 age group who, besides wishing to better themselves as citizens have an interest also in community work.

One recent public effort of the club was a sale of car seat belts, primarily designed as a move for traffic safety among local drivers.

This week the club is soliciting membership enquiries from young men in town and district. A Jamaica holiday ticket sale and a washerama are activities planned this fall to raise funds for some of the Jaycee service work.

MINOR BASEBALL NEWS

By Ted Bragg

The second round of the finals will be played in all leagues on Saturday, Sept. 15 beginning at 10 a.m. Come on out and watch a couple of hours of enthusiastic baseball in the windup of this summer's activities. C.M.B.A. finalists are as follows:

International League
Jacksonville — Coaches Jack Handy, Bob Sutherland
Rochester — Coaches Gary Alton, Sid Alcorn.

American League
Chicago White Sox — Coaches Norm Long, Gurd Inglis
Cleveland Indians — Coaches Bob Waites, Bill Korczak.

National League
Milwaukee Braves — Coaches Paul Ward, Terry Reis
Los Angeles Dodgers — Coach Stan Walsh.

If a third game is necessary to decide the finals it will be played on Sunday, Sept. 16th, commencing at 1 p.m.

A full schedule of baseball last week saw the semi-finals played on Saturday.

Jacksonville won both games against Richmond in the International League semi-finals, piling up a 13 to 8 total score.

Rochester took the first game of the finals, however, beating Jacksonville 3-1.

In the American League, Chicago beat Minnesota 13-5 and Cleveland won over the N.Y. Yankees 10-7. Chicago emerged as the winner of the first game of the final against Cleveland with a score of 6-3.

Some measure of the Chicago success was attributed to the eye-catching effect of the red headgear sported by the Chicago coach. If this psychological challenge is taken up by the Cleveland coaches, next Saturday's sartorial clash could be as dazzling as the game!

Follow a scoreless first round, the L.A. Dodgers came on to win the 2-game series 8-5 over the St. Louis Cardinals. The impetus did not carry over into the finals and Milwaukee Braves shut out the Dodgers 3-0 to win the first game.

Putting Green New Golf Club Feature.

Directors at Georgetown's 18 hole golf course, Georgetown Golf and Country Club, on the northern town limit, won't rest until the club facilities offer every thing necessary to make it a "family club".

Already one of the finest 18 hole layouts in this part of the province, the course will shortly have a putting green which is now under construction, adjacent to the pro shop, and buildings moved in this week to reshape the par 3, 17th hole. The 17th was a rugged par three with sloping rough on two sides and a stream guarding the other two. After the alterations, tee shots will have a better chance of avoiding trouble.

Also definitely in the plans of the directors now is the talked about swimming pool. It will be constructed near the club-house and will provide recreation for the non-golfing members of the family.

Lady Golfers Are Trafalgar Winners

Georgetown Golf and Country Club was well represented at the recent ladies' invitation day at Trafalgar Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Norm Marchmont won the first low net in the Bronze A Division, Mrs. Bill Hurak won first low net in the Bronze B Division, and Mrs. Bill Cheyne won 6th low net in the Bronze B Division. Mr. Jim Blair completed the four some from the local club.

The two first prizes were golf shoes and the 6th prize was place mats. Golf clubs from all over the province were represented.

Bowling Leagues Gird for Action

League pinbusters are regrouping for their upcoming alley schedules at both local clubs and again The Herald would like to extend to all organized bowling groups the invitation to publish the results of their weekly sessions.

Your league doesn't have to be one of the ten or twelve team aggregations and your average doesn't have to be in the 200 neighbourhood to make your result sheets of interest to us, so why not make a habit of putting your league's progress into print.

Tell your league secretary to contact the alley manager for information on how your team standings, etc. can appear regularly in The Herald.
