Attends Insurance Quebec Conference
 Clarence Kroll, representative of the Sun Life Insurance Company of Canada in Georgetown and vicinity has returned home from a week-long conference at the Sun Life head office in Montreal and at nearby Ste. Adele in the Laurentian mountains. The conference which Mr. Kroll attended as a senior life underwriter dealt with new life insurance sales and marketing developments and other matters of current interest in the business. Mr. Kroll is associated with Sun Life's Toronto York Branch.

Scuba Divers Explore Wrecks at Tobermory
 Six local scuba divers, Joyce Rundle, Gary McCrea, Paul Barber, Mike Baker, Mike West and Stan Hirstrom descended as deep as eighty feet in the waters off Tobermory while on a weekend sunken ship hunt Saturday and Sunday.
 Joyce's father and a friend, Judy Ryder accompanied the searchers and did some fishing while the main party went under, but on the first plunge, neither divers nor fishermen saw any fish.

CRUISER IN ACCIDENT
 Georgetown's No. 2 police cruiser was damaged in a two car collision opposite the station last week. The cruiser was backing out of the driveway on to an St. when it was in collision with a southbound car. Total damage was estimated at $700.
